AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 18th of May 1808,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order of His Majesty in Council, of the Twenty-fifth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and seven, it was ordered and declared, that Information of His Majesty's Order in Council of the Eleventh Day of the same November should be taken and held to have been received in the Places therein mentioned, at the Periods therein respectively assigned, to such Places respectively: And whereas the Countries on the Continent of North and South America, extending from the Tenth to the Thirtieth Degree of North Latitude, are not included in the Places so specified; His Majesty is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order and declare, that Information of the said Order of the Eleventh of November One thousand eight hundred and seven, shall be taken and held to have been received in all Places on the Continent of North and South America, extending from the Tenth to the Thirtieth Degree of North Latitude, including the Island of New Orleans, on the Tenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and eight; and that all Matters contained in the said Order of the Twenty-fifth of November One thousand eight hundred and seven shall apply to Vessels sailing from the Places aforesaid, as having received Notice of the said Order of the Eleventh of November One thousand eight hundred and seven on the said Tenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and eight:—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary Measures herein as to them shall respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

By the KING.

A P R O C L A M A T I O N,

For apprehending William Williams, Master of the Ship Croydon, in the African Trade.

G E O R G E R.

WHEREAS William Williams, Master of the Ship Croydon, in the African Trade, stands charged on the Oath of Two credible Witnesses, with the Murder of Samuel Barnes, a Sailor belonging to the said Ship, at Charleston, South Carolina, some Time in the Year 1806; and whereas the said William Williams lately returned in the said Ship Croydon from a Voyage to the Coast of Africa, and has resided at Chepitow, in the County of Monmouth, but is supposed to have fled from thence; we have therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby requiring and commanding all Our loving Subjects to discover and apprehend, and cause to be discovered and apprehended, the said William Williams, and to carry him before some of Our Justices of the Peace, or Chief Magistrates of the County, Town, or Place, where he shall be apprehended, who are respectively required to secure him, and thereof to give speedy Notice unto Our Privy Council, or one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, to the end he may be forthcoming, and may be dealt withal and proceeded against according to Law: And whoever shall discover and apprehend the said William Williams, and bring him before such Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate, or so discover him that he may be apprehended, shall receive for Reward the Sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, which said Sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS the Lords Commissioners of Our Treasury are hereby required and directed to pay accordingly.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the Eleventh Day of May, One thousand eight hundred and eight, in the Forty-eighth Year of Our Reign.

G O D save the KING.
