A proper Person will be ordered to attend in the Great Hall of the Admiralty, from Eleven o'Clock till Two, to receive Applications on the Subject above-mentioned.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to Us, that, on Monday the 30th Day of May last, an outrageous Mob, of several Thousands in Number, collected together in the Town and Parish of Rochdale, in the County of Lancashire, and broke open the private Houses of Cotton and Woollen Weavers, carried off their Shuttles and other Implements of Weaving, and demolished the Glass Windows of the Office where the Magistrates were then met for transacting public Business and preserving the Peace of the Town and Neighbourhood, by throwing large Stones thereat, several of which Stones wounded the special Constables then in Attendance; and in the Evening of that Day broke open and entirely burnt down the Prison then and there being: And whereas, on Tuesday the 31st of the said Month of May, such Rioters continued their Depredations, and in the Evening thereof extorted Money from several peaceable Inhabitants of the said Town and Parish of Rochdale, by gathering themselves together in large Bodies, and menacing to burn their Houses, Factories, Mills, &c. and proceeded to such Extremities that the Lives of Individuals were not only threatened, but in most imminent Danger;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person or Persons who actually set Fire to the said Prison) who shall discover his, her or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
