AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 4th of July 1808,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having taken into His Consideration the glorious Exertions of the Spanish Nation for the Deliverance of their Country from the Tyranny and Usurpation of France, and the Assurances which His Majesty has received from several of the Provinces of Spain, of their friendly Disposition towards this Kingdom; His Majesty is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered;

First, That all Hostilities against Spain on the Part of His Majesty shall immediately cease.

Secondly, That the Blockade of all the Ports of Spain, except such as may be still in the Possession or under Controul of France, shall be forthwith raised.

Thirdly, That all Ships and Vessels belonging to Spain shall have free Admission into the Ports of His Majesty's Dominions, as before the present Hostilities.

Fourthly, That all Ships and Vessels belonging to Spain, which shall be met at Sea by His Majesty's Ships and Cruizers, shall be treated in the same Manner as the Ships of States in Amity with His Majesty, and shall be suffered to carry on any Trade now considered by His Majesty to be lawfully carried on by Neutral Ships.

Fifthly, That all Vessels and Goods belonging to Persons residing in the Spanish Colonies, which shall be detained by any of His Majesty's Cruizers after the Date hereof, shall be brought into Port, and shall be carefully preserved in safe Custody, to await His Majesty's further Pleasure, until it shall be known whether the said Colonies, or any of them, in which the Owners of such Ships and Goods reside, shall have made common Cause with Spain against the Power of France.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take such Measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 4th of July 1808,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty fifth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and seven, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom of any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, will expire upon the Eleventh Day of this instant July: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do at any Time, for the Space of Six Months, from the said Eleventh Day of this instant July, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Sheet-Copper, Sail-Cloth or Canvas, or other Naval Stores, or do ship or lade any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Sheet-Copper, Sail-Cloth or Canvas, or other Naval Stores, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt-Petre, Arms, and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:" But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies: Provided that upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles for the Purpose of Trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards and Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, (except as hereinafter excepted,) to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been all duly landed at the Places for which they were entered outwards: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure, nevertheless, that the following Articles, viz. Bar-Iron, White and Tanned Rope, Tallow or Mill Grease, Tarpaulins for Waggon-Covers, Pitch, Tar, and Turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon Payment of the proper Duties, without Bond being entered into by the Merchant Exporter, to any of the British Plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's Settlements in South America; provided the Merchant Exporter shall first verify, upon Oath, that the Articles so exported are intended for the Use of a particular Plantation or Settlement, to be named in the Entry Outwards, and not for Sale; and that the said Plantation or Settlement has not before been furnished with any Supply of the said Articles during the same Season; and provided also that the Exportation of the said Articles shall, in no Case, exceed the Value of Fifty Pounds Sterling for any given Plantation or Settlement, whether by one or more Shipments within the same Season: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord

High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Steph. Cottrell.

Downing-Street, July 12, 1808.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Extracts, have been received from Major-General Spencer by Viscount Castlereagh, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Extract of a Dispatch from Major-General Spencer to Viscount Castlereagh, dated on board His Majesty's Ship Windsor Castle, off Ayamonte, June 17, 1808.

MY LORD,

I AVAIL myself of the Opportunity afforded by the passing of the Nautilus from Lord Collingwood to Sir Charles Cotton, to congratulate your Lordship on the Surrender of the French Squadron of Five Line of Battle Ships and One Frigate, in the Harbour of Cadiz, to the Spanish Arms on the 14th Instant; on which Day the Spanish Colours were flying in all the French Ships. The Particulars of this important and interesting Event will, no Doubt, be fully communicated to your Lordship by Lord Collingwood.

It is also very satisfactory for me to inform your Lordship, that the Movement I have made to this Quarter, at the Request of General Morla, has been attended with the happiest Effects. The French Troops are retiring in every Direction towards Lisbon, except some very insignificant Parties left to occupy the different small Forts and Posts on this Side of Portugal. The Portuguese People are rising in all Parts, encouraged greatly by our Presence here; and the Spanish Frontier on the Guadiana is thus effectually secured from any Attack of the French.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) B. SPENCER, Major-General.

Extract of a Dispatch from Major-General Spencer to Viscount Castlereagh, dated on board His Majesty's Brig Scout, off Lagos, June 21, 1808.

MY LORD,

THE French Fleet having surrendered on the 14th, and the Spanish Commissioners having since embarked for England, I beg Leave shortly to recapitulate the different Events which have led to these desirable Objects, and to state to your Lordships the present Situation of Spain and Portugal, as far as I have obtained correct Information.

The general Feeling of the Spaniards had been for some Time excited to the utmost Degree of Indignation at the Conduct of the French. The Information of the forced Renunciation of the Crown of Spain by Charles the Fourth, Ferdinand, and all the Royal Family, in Favour of Bonaparte, appeared to be the Signal of universal Opposition to the Views of France.

The Council of Seville, one of the principal Provincial Jurisdictions in Spain, have laid hold of some Statutes in their Constitution, which authorize their rejecting the Orders of the Supreme Council of Madrid when that Capital shall be in the Power of Foreign Troops. They have therefore assumed an independent Authority in the Name of Ferdinand the Seventh, whom they have proclaimed King; and after some previous Steps, they have formally declared War against France, and have appealed to the Spanish Nation to support them; and their Supremacy has been acknowledged by the Councils of several other Provinces.

In Andalusia they collected from Fifteen to Twenty Thousand Regular Troops, and have put Arms in the Hands of upwards of Sixty Thousand Peasants. General Castaneos is appointed Commander in Chief; and I understand they propose, out of the first Levies, to augment the Establishment of the old Regiments, to double their present Numbers.

Provincial Assemblies are also forming in most of the large Towns, and different Depôts fixed upon for raising Volunteers.

They have a Proportion of near Four Thousand Cavalry, and a large Quantity of Artillery, as Seville is a Foundry, and one of the largest Depôts in Spain.

All Accounts agree, that in every Part of Spain the Insurrections have commenced almost at the same Period; many small Detachments of the Enemy, and many Officers, have been cut off.

General Dupont was on his March to Seville, and had already passed the Morena Mountains when the Insurrection took Place. He has pushed on to Cordova, and, by the intercepted Dispatches, we learn he is strengthening himself there, and proposes to wait for Reinforcements. In the mean Time the Morena Passes in his Rear have been occupied by Five Thousand Spaniards, the Road has been broken up; and, I trust, all Communication has been cut off.

General D'Alril had received Orders to join him at Seville with Four Thousand Men, who were to assemble at Alcorentin, but our Arrival off Ayamonte, and the arming of all Spain, and the Alarms in Portugal, having prevented this Movement, I trust that General Junot will not now be able to detach any Troops from Portugal, though we understand a French Corps has been collected at Elvas, but I do not think it can exceed Four Thousand Men, though the Reports of its Strength are very various.

At Faro the Portuguese have already risen, have taken or destroyed a Detachment of about Two Hundred Men, have seized the Arms and Ammunition of the Province, which the French had collected in a Depôt, and also about Forty Thousand Dollars in Gold, which the French General had amassed.

Admiralty-Office, July 12, 1808.

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Collingwood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to the Honourable W. W. Pole, dated Ocean, off Cadiz, June 14, 1808.

SIR,

IN my Letter of the 12th Instant, by the Alpheia, I informed you that Application had been made for a Ship to carry to England Commissioners appointed by the Supreme Council of Seville, to treat with His Majesty's Ministers on such Matters as are important to the Interest of both Countries. The Admiral who commands in the Port of Cadiz being one of the deputed, they did not choose he should depart until the Surrender of the French Ships, which took place this Morning.

The Spaniards having constructed an additional Battery of Thirty heavy Guns, and numerous Gun and Bomb-Vessels having taken their Stations, the French Ships struck their Colours at Seven o'Clock this Morning, and soon after the Spaniards were hoisted on board them. The French Ships, I understand, are not at all injured, as the Spaniards wanted them for their own Use; nor has there been much Loss of Men on either Side.

The Governor some Days since (and before I came here) requested of Major-General Spencer to proceed to Ayamante, to oppose a Detachment of the French Army, which was said to be marching from Portugal by the Coast; and Yesterday the Transports proceeded, under the Protection of the Zealous, to that Quarter, where the Windsor Castle had conducted a Detachment the Day before.

June 15.

The Governor of Cadiz has notified to me, that the Commissioners will be ready to embark in Two Days. As the Revenge has been stationed near the Town, where Sir John Gore has had much Inter-course with the Governor and Chiefs in Command during the late Operations, and witnessed the Temper and Disposition of the People, I have ordered that Ship to receive them, that he may give to His Majesty's Ministers the Information they may desire of what has come within his Observation as to the present State of this Part of Spain.

Application has been made to me this Evening by the Supreme Council at Seville and the Governor of Cadiz, to give a Passport to a Spanish Frigate and Four Dispatch Vessels, to carry to the several Governments and Presidencies in the West Indies, Information of the Events which have happened in Spain, and their Instructions to the Governors; and also that a Sloop of War may take out Officers to that Country, whose Presence there is important; this they urge in Preference to their going in a Spanish Vessel, as it will convey a Proof of their Connexion with Great Britain.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

Extract of a Letter from Sir Charles Cotton, Bart. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to the Hon. William Wellesley Pole, dated on board His Majesty's Ship the Hibernia, off the Tagus, the 22d June 1808.

SIR,

ENCLOSED I transmit, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Copy of a Letter received by me from Captain Creyke, of His Majesty's Sloop Eclipse, detailing the State of Affairs at Oporto.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

C. COTTON.

His Majesty's Sloop Eclipse, off the Bar of Oporto, June 20, 1808.

SIR,

SINCE the Account I had the Honour of delivering to you on the 10th June, Oporto has undergone Two Revolutions, and has been successively in the Hands of the French and the Subjects of the Prince Regent.

After the Spaniards had delivered the Forts into the Custody of the Portuguese, and the National Colours were every where hoisted, the French were again able to establish their Authority, in consequence of the weak and undetermined Measures of the Governor, Louis D'Oliveira, who is now confined as a Traitor, and maintained it till the 16th, the Day of Corpus Christi, a great national Festival, when it had been usual for the Portuguese Regiments to attend with Colours flying. The Governor, D'Oliveira, in consequence of Orders from Junot, attempted to establish the French Flag instead of the Portuguese at the Procession. This violent Attack on the national Custom drew forth the Murmurs of the Populace to so great a Degree, that an Attempt to compromise on the Part of the Governor had no Effect; and on the 18th, in the Evening, the Day before my Arrival here, they were excited to such a Degree of Fury, that, countenanced by the Priests, the People rose in Masse, broke open the Depôts, and supplied themselves with Twenty-five Thousand Stand of Arms, and, together with the Regulars, formed a most determined and enthusiastic Army. From this Moment all French Authority ceased; and every Man, either French, or suspected of being inclined to the French Interest, was arrested.

The Bishop of Oporto was elected as the new Governor, and an Army of Twenty Thousand Men sent to meet the French, who had advanced to the Amount of Nine Hundred within Six Leagues of Oporto.

The Enthusiasm has communicated from one to the other, and the Portuguese Provinces of Traloz, Moutos, Minho, and the Northern Part of Beira, in Imitation of the Spaniards, have risen in Arms, determined to extirpate the French from their Kingdom. From the most moderate Accounts, besides what are at Oporto, I may estimate them at upwards of One Hundred Thousand Men.

All the regular Regiments disbanded by the French are forming again with the greatest Alacrity, and will soon join them. I have this Day had an Interview with His Excellency the Governor, conducted to him amidst the Shouts and Huzzas of the Populace.

To-morrow I send a Party of Men to mount the Guns of a large Brazil Ship, the Command of which is given to an Englishman, and destined as a Floating Battery to defend the Bridge, in case the French should have the Temerity to approach, though such an Event is not to be apprehended. If any Requisition is made for Powder, I shall comply with it, but they have at present Abundance of Arms, Ammunition and Provisions.

The Detestation of the Portuguese to the French is so great, that Captain Jones and myself, after having begged the Life of the French Intendant of Police, had the greatest Difficulty in conveying him a Prisoner to the Boat, and the unbounded Love and Respect for the English alone prevented the enraged Populace from tearing him to Pieces.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) G. A. CREYKE.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Digby, of His Majesty's Ship the Cossack, addressed to the Right Honourable Lord Gambier, Admiral of the Blue, &c. and transmitted by his Lordship to the Honourable William Wellesley Pole.

His Majesty's Ship Cossack, off Saint Andero, June 25, 1808.

MY LORD,

THE last Opportunity I had of writing to your Lordship, I acquainted you of my Intention to go to St. Andero immediately, and afford every Assistance in my Power to the loyal Inhabitants, and bring off any British Subjects that might wish to come away, in the present uncertain State of the Country; and I had Intelligence that the French Frigate in Passage, accompanied by several Gun-Boats, was expected to make a Descent on that Part of the Coast; owing to the strong easterly Winds, and long Calms, I did not get there till the 21st. The Signal-Post displayed a Flag of Truce, which was answered by both Ships. The Captain of the Port, Don Vincento Camino, came on board, he told us the French Army were soon expected to make an Attack on the Pass in the Mountains that guarded the Approach to the Town; he invited us to anchor in Sardenero Bay, which we did at Five P. M.; until he had made his Report to the Bishop, who was the present Governor, he wished us not to land. No Boat returning by One o'Clock the next Day, I concluded some sudden Attack, or unexpected Event must have taken Place. In the Afternoon a Brig came out of the Harbour full of People of all Descriptions, who had left the Town on the Report that the French were advancing. I immediately got under Weigh, and sent Captain Daly, of the Comet, up the Harbour, to gain some confirmed Intelligence, and should the Report prove true, to reconnoitre the Fort, and find out where the principal Magazine was; and, if it was possible, to destroy it. Between Eight and Nine P. M. Captain Daly returned with certain Information, that the French Army had gained the Pass, and had halted only a few Miles from the Town, and were expected to enter that Night or next Day.

Captain Daly also made every possible Observation, and had himself spiked the Guns in Two Forts near the Town, and he requested to go and destroy the Magazine, and the Guns in the Forts that guard the Entrance of the Harbour. I should certainly have sent the Boats that Night, but the great Chance of their being taken by Surprise, should the Enemy advance, and the Night being very dark and squally, with every Appearance of bad Weather, made me defer it till the next Morning; at Day-light we stood into the Bay, and manned and armed Two Boats from each Ship, under the Orders of Captain Daly; he was accompanied by Lieutenant H. M. Herbert, of the Cossack, and Lieutenant Read, of the Royal Marines, and several of the younger Officers, who all volunteered their Services; they left this Ship soon after Six o'Clock, and landed about Eight, spiked all the Guns in Fort St. Salvador de Ano, and Fort Sedra, and wedged Shot in the Chambers of them, which renders them quite useless; the Magazine was at some little Distance, and had Five Hundred whole Barrels of Powder in it, besides Quantities of other Stores; all which was completely destroyed, great Part by throwing it over the Cliffs into the Sea, leaving sufficient to blow up the Magazine; the Train was laid for a considerable Distance, and it was let off about Ten o'Clock; which instantly levelled the whole Building to the Ground; finding some more Powder in Fort Sedra, a Train was laid to it, which took Effect, and blew Part of the House and Storehouse in it up; the Two other Forts on the West Side of the Bay they could not attempt, as the Surf was so high it was impossible to land, and to walk round was too far from the Boats, as they had not a Moment to spare; having heard before they set Fire to the first Train, that the French had entered the Town, and they expected a strong Guard at the Forts; the Boats left the Shore by Eleven o'Clock, and had just got round the Point of De Ano, when a considerable Body of French Dragoons appeared on the Hill, and took Post near the Smoking Ruins of the Magazine. I am sorry to say, Captain Daly, and Lieutenant Read of the Marines are much scorched, particularly Lieutenant Read, in setting Fire to the last Train, but am happy to find his Eyes are safe, and he is doing well. Captain Daly speaks in high Commendation of the Zeal and Exertion of every Officer and Man employed with him.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

Copy of a Letter from the Honourable Captain Dundas, of His Majesty's Ship Euryalus, to Captain Graves, of the Brunswick, and transmitted by Vice-Admiral Sir James Saumarez to the Hon. W. W. Pole.

His Majesty's Ship Euryalus, in the Great Belt, June 12, 1808.

SIR,

AFTER having seen the Convoy clear, I proceeded in Company with His Majesty's Sloop Cruizer, and late yesterday Evening discovered several Vessels at anchor near the Entrance of the Nafkon, very close to the Shore. We anchored at dark, and I sent Lieutenant Head with the Boats of this Ship and Cruizer (Four in number) to destroy them; and it is with great Pleasure I have to inform you, he executed this Service with his usual Bravery and Judgment, by burning Two large Vessels fitted for the Reception of Troops, capturing a Gun Vessel of the largest Dimensions, mounting Two Eighteen-Pounders, and having Sixty-four Men on board, moored within Half Pistol Shot of a Battery of Three Eighteen-Pounders, and the Shore lined with Troops. Although the Enemy defended themselves well, we had but One Man slightly wounded; their Loss was great, Seven killed and Twelve wounded, with many drowned; and they must have suffered on Shore by the Fire from our Boats.

I beg Leave to mention the Midshipmen employed, Messrs. Wemyss, Ricketts, Yeoman, Richard and Gaymore of this Ship, Moffatt and Loveday of the Cruizer, for their good Conduct on this Occasion, and who are, together with the Boats' Crews, particularly mentioned by Lieutenant Head.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

G. H. L. DUNDAS.

And that all Out Pensioners belonging to the said Hospital, who live at a greater Distance than Twenty-five Miles from London, and those in Scotland and Ireland, are hereby required and commanded, after the 25th Day of December next, and after every succeeding 25th of June and 25th of December, until further Orders, to apply to one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in the Neighbourhood where they reside, and make the following Affidavit, which the said Magistrate for the County, City, Borough, or Riding, before whom the Pensioner appears, will sign and date, viz.

"I came before me, One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of

" and made Oath that he was admitted an Out-
 " Pensioner of Chelsea Hospital on the Day
 " of 17 (or 18), from the Regiment
 " of commanded by ; was then
 " aged about Years: served in the Army
 " Years; was discharged for
 " and that he is no otherwise provided for by the " Public but as a Pensioner of the said Hospital,
 " at per Day, and now lives in the Parish of
 " in the County of

" Sworn before me this Day of
 " 18."

The Affidavit, drawn according to the above Form, sworn before, dated and attested by a Magistrate, is to be put up in a Cover, and sent by the General Post, directed thus: "To the Right Hon. the Paymaster-General of His Majesty's Land Forces, London," marking on the Cover, "Chelsea Pensioners' Affidavit;" and Counterparts or Duplicates of the said Affidavits are to be reserved by the Out Pensioners respectively, to be exhibited to such Persons as shall be directed to pay them, that they may be satisfied that all such as may claim Out-Pensions are the real Persons entitled to receive the same.

And to the End that the Commissioners for the Affairs of Chelsea Hospital may be satisfied that the Pensioners are the same Persons who have passed their Examination, it is hereby further directed, that such of them who have served in, and have been discharged from, any of the Regiments, or Independent Companies of Invalids, or Royal Veteran Battalions, are not to mention in their Affidavits such Regiment or Company of Invalids, or Royal Veteran Battalions, in which they served last, but the Regiment, Troop, or Corps of the Army from which they were first discharged and recommended, and received at Chelsea Hospital.

The Pensioners are particularly to take Notice, that the Half-yearly Payments after Midsummer, are regulated, as to the Place of Payment, by the Musters at Chelsea, or the Affidavits sent as above, after the Christmas preceding; and that the Christmas Payment is in the like Manner regulated by the Musters or Affidavits after the Midsummer preceding.

It is also ordered and directed, that no Person who shall change the Place of his Abode given in at his Muster, or specified in his Affidavit aforesaid, and who may apply for his Pension, (excepting to the Officers of Excise nearest such Place of Abode,) shall receive the same, unless it appears, by the Certificate of respectable Persons, that such Removal was through unavoidable Necessity, which he or they could not foresee or prevent.

And that if any Pensioner shall fraudulently attempt to receive a double Payment of the Pension, either at Chelsea or at different Places, he shall be struck off the Lists.

Lastly, it is notified, that none will be entered upon the Pay Lists of the said Hospital, or be entitled to receive any Benefit therefrom, who shall not act agreeably to these Orders and Directions, particularly in sending their Half-Yearly Affidavits to the Paymaster-General, as above directed, and to no other Office; which several of the Pensioners have of late either neglected to do, or sent them irregularly to other Departments.

G. AUST, Secretary and Registrar.

Stamp-Office, July 8, 1808.

Notice is hereby given, that by an Act, passed at the Close of the late Session of Parliament, the Stamp Duties on Deeds, Law Proceedings, and other written Instruments, and the Duties on Legacies and Successions to personal Estate upon Intestacies, now payable in Great Britain, are repealed from and after the 10th Day of October next, and other Duties are granted in lieu thereof, to commence immediately after that Day.

The new Duties are of the like Nature, and in general of the same Amount, with the present Duties; but a more precise and accurate Description is given of the Instruments on which they attach. There are some Duties altogether new, and some new in Amount; of which the principal ones are, ad valorem Duties on Conveyances upon the Sale of any Property, according to the Amount of the Purchase-Money; increased Duties on Promissory Notes allowed to be re-issued; and a Duty on Licences to be taken out Yearly by Bankers and others issuing such Promissory Notes. There is also a Duty on Policies of Insurance on Lives, and on Three or Four Law Proceedings, not now charged. The Duties on Mortgages for small Sums, and on Conveyances on the Sale of Property of small Value, are less than at present. The Duties are contained in a Schedule, in which the Instruments charged are classed and alphabetically arranged, with numerous References, so as to afford a complete Table of Duties in the most convenient and practical Form, and to supersede the Necessity of those Compilations to which the Profession of the Law and the Public have hitherto found it expedient to resort. The Schedule is also framed so as not to admit of an Abridgment that can be safely relied upon. The Commissioners therefore recommend it to the Profession, and others whom it may concern, to look only to the Schedule itself.

The Act contains special Provisions for securing the Duties on Conveyances on the Sale of Property, on Bills of Exchange, and Drafts on Bankers post-dated, or issued beyond Ten Miles from the Banker's Residence, and on Instruments relating to Copyhold Estates, which the Commissioners recommend to the Notice and Attention of Purchasers and Sellers, Attornies, Solicitors, Bankers, Stewards of Manors, and others, that they may not incur Penalties, which it will be the Duty of the Commissioners to enforce. The Provisions respecting Drafts on Bankers take effect after One Month from the passing of the Act.

LEGACY DUTY.

It being apprehended that many Persons may have neglected to pay the Duties on Legacies, and on Residues of personal Estate given by Will, or devolved to next of Kin upon Intestacies, within the Time prescribed by Law, through Ignorance or Inadvertence, or from accidental or unavoidable Causes; the Act authorizes the Commissioners to remit the Penalties which may have been incurred in such Cases, provided the Duty shall be paid on or before the 31st Day of January 1809. In giving Notice of this Provision of the Act, the Commissioners think it right also to state, that Prosecutions in the Exchequer will be instituted against those Persons who shall not take the Benefit of it, as well as against those who shall fail to pay the Duties which may hereafter become due, within the Time allowed by Law; an Abstract of Wills proved and Administrations granted being returned to the Commissioners from the several Ecclesiastical Courts, for the Purpose of discovering Defaulters.

By Order of the Commissioners,
C. E. Beresford, Secretary.

Whitehall, July 5, 1808.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, between the Hours of Nine and Ten o'Clock on the Evening of Wednesday the 18th of May last, as Mr. Humphreys, of Hexter Castle, in the County of Kent, Farmer, was returning home, he was attacked by a Footpad at a Place called Four Elms, near his own House, who with violent Oaths demanded his Money, and, on Mr. Humphreys dismounting to defend himself, the Footpad shot at him, and the Ball passed through both Cheeks; he afterwards beat him with the Pistol, which broke his Jaw and fractured his Skull, and then robbed him; since which the said Mr. Humphreys has died of the Wounds he received;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the said atrocious Murder and Robbery, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually shot and beat the said Mr. Humphreys) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HAWKESBURY.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FORTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by Mrs. Humphreys, Widow of the Deceased.
