July 1808,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to permit Goods secured in Warehouses in the Port of London to be removed to the Out Ports for Exportation to any Part of Europe; for empowering His Majesty to direct that Licences, which His Majesty is authorized to grant under His Sign Manual, may be granted by one of the Principal Secretaries of State; and for enabling His Majesty to permit the Exportation of Goods in Vessels of less Burthen than are now allowed by Law during the present Hostilities, and until One Month after the Signature of the preliminary Articles of Peace;" it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty by Order in Council, or by His Royal Proclamation, to direct that all or any such Licences as, by virtue of any Act of Parliament or otherwise, His Majesty may lawfully grant under His Sign Manual, shall and may be granted by one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in pursuance of an Order of Council specially authorizing the Grant of such Licences, a Duplicate of which Order shall in all Cases be annexed to such Licences; His Majesty having taken the same into His Royal Consideration, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order and direct, and it is hereby ordered and directed, that all Licences which by virtue of any Acts of Parliament or otherwise His Majesty may lawfully grant under His Sign Manual touching, concerning, or in any Manner relating to Trade, Commerce, or Navigation, shall and may hereafter, and until further Order, be granted by either of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in pursuance of any Order in Council specially authorizing the Grant of such Licences; and that all Licences so granted, and having a Duplicate of such Order in Council annexed thereto, shall be as valid, and have as full Force and Effect, as if such Licences had been granted under His Majesty's Sign Manual; provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or taken to invalidate, or in any Manner to affect any Licences which His Majesty shall think proper to grant under His Royal Sign Manual; but every such Licence so granted shall be of the same Force and Effect as if this Order had not been made.

Steph. Cottrell.

St. James's, July 27, 1808.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your Majesty's good City of Edinburgh, deeply feeling the momentous Importance of the present Crisis in the Fate of Europe, crave Permission to approach your Royal Throne.

Representing the ancient Metropolis of a Kingdom long famous for maintaining its Liberties against Invasion, and sharing the Benefits of your Majesty's paternal Government, it is impossible for us to behold without the keenest Interest the gallant Struggles of the Spanish Nation against foreign Tyranny, since our own Experience teaches us the Blessings of legitimate Freedom, and the History of our Ancestors shews us how it ought to be defended. When we consider the eventful and invigorating Spectacle of a gallant and injured People rising to a Man in Defence of their Laws, their King, and their Religion, against unprovoked and treacherous Invasion, we cannot but nourish the animating Hope that Providence has destined the Presumption of the Oppressor of Europe to be the Instrument of ruining his usurped Power. It was, when possessed of all the Resources of Spain, when waiting in the extensive Plans of his own Ambition, but in which she had not the remotest Interest, the Treasures of her Colonies, and the Blood of her Subjects, it was then that the present Ruler of France was pleased, in the wanton Insolence and Lust of Domination, to occupy her Capital with his Soldiery, to massacre its loyal Inhabitants, to deceive, dethrone, and lead into Captivity her unfortunate Monarch and Royal Family. Thus he has at once treated with the foulest Perfidy a Nation celebrated from its earliest History for rigid Adherence to public and to individual Faith, and stigmatized with Insolence and Contumely a People proverbially jealous of national and of personal Honour.

May we be permitted to hope that an Aggression unparalleled in History for the Treachery in which it commenced, the undisguised Effrontery with which it was avowed, and the Cruelty by which it was enforced, as it has already converted the most passive and useful Ally of France into the most formidable Enemy, may teach the other Nations of Europe how little is to be expected from Submission to such a Foe; how much may be hoped from decided, determined, and uncompromising Resistance. Above all, from the Measures, alike prudent, liberal, and active, already adopted in your Majesty's Councils, we are encouraged to hope that no Aid which the Resources of your Majesty's Kingdoms can supply will be withheld from those Patriots who are now in Arms, not solely in the Cause of Spain, but in that of Britain, of Europe, and of the World. If it is the Pleasure of God that their noble Efforts shall be finally unsuccessful, let it not be recorded as a Cause of their Failure that Britain was a cold and indifferent Assistant in so glorious a Struggle. But if, as we hope, trust, and pray, the Issue of the Contest shall be successful, may it be written in the Annals of Spain, that, not alone the Wisdom of her patriotic Councils, and the Enthusiasm of her brave Warriors, but the ready, the decided, unconditional, and disinterested Succours of Britain, saved her from the Yoke of a worse than Moorish Conqueror, and aided her to erect, in the preserved Independence and renovated Energy of her Government, an insurmountable Barrier against his insatiable Ambition.

That God may grant your Majesty a long and happy Reign, and may vouchsafe to direct your Councils at this important Crisis to the Weal of Britain, of Spain, and of Europe, is the unfeigned and devout Prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh.

Signed in our Name, by our Appointment, and in our Presence, and the Seal of the said City is hereto affixed. Donald Smith, Provost.
Edinburgh, July 20, 1808.

[Transmitted by the Lord Provost]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of His Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Marlborough.

MAY it please your Majesty, graciously to allow your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient Borough and Town of Marlborough, to approach the Foot of your Throne, among their Fellow-Subjects, with their sincere and hearty Congratulations on the gallant and almost British Spirit manifested by the Spanish and Portuguese Nations in their truly patriotic Opposition to the insidious Artifices and nefarious Inroads of the Enemy of your Majesty's just Rights and Dominions, the Corrupter and Destroyer of all national and moral and religious Liberty.

Our Duty to your Majesty, and our Love for our Religion and Laws, teach us the Importance of so providential an Interposition in the Behalf of our Country. We are sure that we, in common with every true-hearted Briton, with every honest and good Man throughout the Continent of Europe, shall feel the Benefits of it under your Majesty's Wisdom and Counsel. We presume not to appreciate its Importance, nor to estimate its Value; we only request, with the proper Lowliness that becomes us, your Majesty's most gracious Permission to avow the Sentiment of our Joy at finding that there are other Nations besides your Majesty's who prefer Death to Gallic Chains; to express the Solicitude of our Wishes for the entire Discomfiture of French Arrogance, Avarice, and Atrocity in every Direction; and to present our unfeigned Gratitude for your Majesty's fatherly and unremitting Attention to all our important Concerns.

Long may your Majesty live; and, if it please Divine Providence, soon may you, Sir, enjoy the Triumph of seeing the Reign of Truth and Justice restored to the World by the Exertions of your Majesty's Power.

[Transmitted by Lord Bruce and Lord Stopford.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble, dutiful, and loyal Address of the Portreeve, the Bailiff, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Great Bedwin.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Portreeve, the Bailiff, and principal Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Great Bedwin, beg Leave again to approach your Royal Throne, and to reiterate the Assurances of our Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, and our Veneration for the excellent Constitution which your Majesty so zealously maintains. Indignant as we have been at the unbounded and unprincipled Ambition which has so long and so fatally actuated the common Enemy of Order and the Independence of every Nation in the World, we cannot but feel the liveliest Interest at the recent Events in Spain, and hail the loyal and determined Spirit which her brave Defenders have manifested in the Vindication of their dearest Rights. Permit us, Sir, to offer our grateful Thanks and sincere Homage for the Promptitude of your Exertions to support their just and glorious Struggle, and to feed the Flame of Liberty which now burns in Spanish and British Breasts with equal Ardour and Brilliance.

May your Majesty's Efforts be the blessed Means of uniting in perpetual Alliance these brave and generous Nations, and tend, under the Guidance of Providence, to the Restoration of the Liberties and the Peace of Europe.

*George Hill, Portreeve.
Josiah Wooldridge, Bailiff.*

MURDER.FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD.

Whitehall, July 30, 1808.

*W*hereas it has been represented to His Majesty, that, about Twelve o'Clock on the Night of the 22d Instant, the Boats of the Nimble Cutter and Asp Luggar, in the Service of His Majesty's Customs, fell in with and drove on Shore, at the North End of Deal, Two Smuggling Ten-Oared Gallies; and that, on the Approach of the Revenue Boats, the Smugglers, who were assembled on the Beach, together with others who had landed from the said Gallies, commenced a very heavy Discharge of Muskets and Blunderbusses on the Crews of the Revenue Boats, whereby Robert Bruce, a Mariner of the Nimble, and John Ellis, a Mariner of the Asp, were shot dead, and John Wilson and William Burwich, Two other Mariners, were dangerously wounded;

His Majesty, for promoting the Discovery of the Persons guilty of the aforesaid Murder and Felony, is graciously pleased hereby to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the Persons concerned therein (save those that actually fired) who will discover any one or more of his Accomplices, so that he or they may be convicted thereof.

HAWKESBURY.

And the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, for further promoting such Discovery, do hereby offer a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who will discover any one or more of the Persons guilty of the said Murder and Felony, such Reward to be paid on his or their Conviction by the Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs.

By Order of the Commissioners,
H. Richmond, Secretary.

FLY WAGGONS. AND INLAND CANAL NAVIGATION.

THOMAS and JAMES PICKFORD, and Co. respectfully inform the Public, that Goods are taken in at the several Places particularised in their Hand Bills, to be carried and conveyed to and from the Places therein-mentioned, and which Goods are received on the following Conditions, that is to say—

They will not hold themselves responsible for any Goods delivered into their Charge, whether going to or from London, unless the same shall be entered by the Book-Keeper, or signed as received by one of them, on the Book or Paper of the Porter or Person who delivered them.

Not more than 5*l*. will be paid for any Articles of less Weight than 28*lb*; nor more than after the Rate of 20*l*. per Hundred Weight for any Packages of a greater Weight, unless it shall have been booked at the Time of Delivery as of a greater Value, and a Premium of 6*d*. for every 10*l*. Value paid, or agreed to be paid, in addition to the common Charge for Carriage.

They will not be accountable for any Money, Plate, Watches, Rings, Jewels, Writings, Prints, Paintings, or other Valuables, unless entered as such, and an Insurance paid above the common Carriage, according to the Value at the Time of Delivery into their Care.

Nor will any Animal be paid for though lost, hurt, or killed on the Journey by Accident, such Things being the Perquisite of the Driver.

China, Glass, Earthen-Ware, and all such brittle or hazardous Goods, will not be paid for in any Degree, unless the same shall have been properly packed, and an extra Payment made, or agreed to be paid, of 1*5* l. for every 100*l*. Value, over and above the usual Rate of Carriage, at the Time of delivering the same into their Charge.

The Owners of all Goods not paying, or agreeing to pay, the Insurance upon the Value, will be considered as taking the extra Risk entirely upon themselves.

The Proprietors will not be accountable for any Accident that may happen to Carriages drawn at the End of their Waggon.

Nor will they be responsible for any Article that may be delivered to the Drivers of their Waggon at any of the Places through which they pass, unless regularly delivered and entered at the proper Receiving-House for such Place.

Any Goods that are put into returned Wrappers, if lost or stolen, the Proprietors will not be accountable for them.

All Goods addressed to Order, or until called for, if not taken away within 48 Hours after their Arrival, every Accident or Damage they may sustain during the Remainder of their Continuance, will be at the Risk of the Owners.

All Claims for Loss or Damage must be made within Three Days after the Delivery of the Goods, or they will not be allowed.

The Proprietors request the Senders of Aqua-fortis, Spirits of Vitriol, and all other ardent Spirits, to take Notice, that it is absolutely necessary to specify on the Direction that the Contents are such Spirits, and also to make it known to the Book-Keeper at the Time of Delivery, in order that they be properly taken Care of, and securely loaded; in Default of such Information, should any Damage arise, the Proprietors will look to the Senders for Indemnification.

If the Canals should be stopped by Frost, or any other Impediment, every Exertion will be used to have the Goods forwarded with all possible Dispatch, and an extra Price charged thereon.

N.B. All Goods delivered for either of the above-mentioned Conveyances will be considered as general Liens, and subject not only to the Money due for the Carriage of such particular Goods, but also for the general Balance due from the respective Owners to the Proprietors.

JAMES PICKFORD, for Self and Co.
