FLY WAGGONS AND INLAND CANAL NAVIGATION.

THOMAS and JAMES PICKFORD, and Co. respectfully inform the Public, that Goods are taken in at the several Places particularised in their Hand Bills, to be carried and conveyed to and from the Places therein-mentioned, and which Goods are received on the following Conditions, that is to say—

They will not hold themselves responsible for any Goods delivered into their Charge, whether going to or from London, unless the same shall be entered by the Book-Keeper, or signed as received by one of them, on the Book or Paper of the Porter or Person who delivered them.

Not more than 5*l.* will be paid for any Articles of less Weight than 28*lb.*; nor more than after the Rate of 20*l.* per Hundred Weight for any Packages of a greater Weight, unless it shall have been booked at the Time of Delivery as of a greater Value, and a Premium of 6*d.* for every 10*l.* Value paid, or agreed to be paid, in addition to the common Charge for Carriage.

They will not be accountable for any Money, Plate, Watches, Rings, Jewels, Writings, Prints, Paintings, or other Valuables, unless entered as such, and an Insurance paid above the common Carriage, according to the Value at the Time of Delivery into their Care.

Nor will any Animal be paid for though lost, hurt, or killed on the Journey by Accident, such Things being the Perquisite of the Driver.

China, Glass, Earthen-Ware, and all such brittle or hazardous Goods, will not be paid for in any Degree, unless the same shall have been properly packed, and an extra Payment made, or agreed to be paid, of 1*5*l. for every 100*l.* Value, over and above the usual Rate of Carriage, at the Time of delivering the same into their Charge.

The Owners of all Goods not paying, or agreeing to pay, the Insurance upon the Value, will be considered as taking the extra Risk entirely upon themselves.

The Proprietors will not be accountable for any Accident that may happen to Carriages drawn at the End of their Waggon.

Nor will they be responsible for any Article that may be delivered to the Drivers of their Waggon at any of the Places through which they pass, unless regularly delivered and entered at the proper Receiving-House for such Place.

Any Goods that are put into returned Wrappers, if lost or stolen, the Proprietors will not be accountable for them.

All Goods addressed to Order, or until called for, if not taken away within 48 Hours after their Arrival, every Accident or Damage they may sustain during the Remainder of their Continuance, will be at the Risk of the Owners.

All Claims for Loss or Damage must be made within Three Days after the Delivery of the Goods, or they will not be allowed.

The Proprietors request the Senders of Aqua-fortis, Spirits of Vitriol, and all other ardent Spirits, to take Notice, that it is absolutely necessary to specify on the Direction that the Contents are such Spirits, and also to make it known to the Book-Keeper at the Time of Delivery, in order that they be properly taken Care of, and securely loaded; in Default of such Information, should any Damage arise, the Proprietors will look to the Senders for Indemnification.

If the Canals should be stopped by Frost, or any other Impediment, every Exertion will be used to have the Goods forwarded with all possible Dispatch, and an extra Price charged thereon.

N. B. All Goods delivered for either of the above-mentioned Conveyances will be considered as general Liens, and subject not only to the Money due for the Carriage of such particular Goods, but also for the general Balance due from the respective Owners to the Proprietors.
