Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Vashon, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Leith, to the Hon. W. W. Pole, dated August 2, 1808.

SIR,

I AM to beg you will be pleased to lay before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty the inclosed Letter which I have received from Captain Dix, of His Majesty's Sloop Cygnet, giving an Account of the Capture of the Danish Privateer Brig Christiana, mounting Fourteen Guns, with a Complement of Sixty Men; out Three Days from Christiana.

The Privateer has just anchored in Leith Roads.

I am, &c. J. VASHON.

His Majesty's Sloop Cygnet, at Sea, July 27, 1808.

SIR,

I BEG Leave to inform you, that, after a Chace of Nine Hours, I had the good Fortune to come up with and capture the Danish Brig Privateer Christiana, mounting Fourteen Guns, Twelve Twelve Pounder Carronades, and Two long Nines, manned with Sixty Men; out Three Days from Christiana without having made any Captures. She is victualled and stored for One Month, and was proceeding off the North End of Suetland for the Purpose of intercepting our homeward-bound Greenlandmen.

The Christiana was formerly an English Merchant Brig.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

EDWARD DIX.

St. James's, August 3, 1808.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkebury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Town of Liverpool, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Town of Liverpool, in Council assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most heartfelt Congratulations on those late Events on the Continent of Europe, which seem to promise the Dawn of a brighter Day to the Liberties and the Independence of Nations.

Your Majesty's paternal Care, through a long and glorious Reign, has often called from us respectful Expressions of Gratitude and Attachment; and we cannot avoid on this Occasion entreating your Majesty to accept our most unfeigned Thanks for the recent Influence of your Solicitude, not only for the Safety of your People, but for the Honour of the British Name, by evincing to Europe and to the World the Generosity of a great and powerful Nation in the Assistance she disinterestedly affords to those who struggle against Oppression, Perfidy, and Fraud for that Liberty, which, under Providence, she has herself so long enjoyed.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person; of our Confidence in the Wisdom, Vigour, and patriotic Measures of your Majesty's Government; and of our firm Resolution to support your Majesty by every Exertion, and through every Sacrifice.

We devoutly pray, that your Majesty may long live to witness the Blessings bestowed by your beneficent Reign upon a free and happy People; and that the bright Example of your Majesty's public and private Life may long remain an emphatic Call on Britons to cultivate those Virtues, through which true Freedom, by continuing to be deserved, has its best Hope of Perpetuity.

Given under our Common Seal, at Liverpool, the 28th Day of July 1808.

[Transmitted by the Mayor of Liverpool.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton, beg Leave at this important Crisis to approach your Majesty's Throne with Expressions of Gratitude and Admiration for the generous and exalted Manner in which your Majesty has met the Exertions of a brave and noble People to break the Chains which have been forged for them by a malignant and treacherous Tyrant. We cannot but, in common with our Fellow-Subjects, hail the Dawning of a brighter Day upon an harassed and afflicted World,

And while every Heart is kindled with the holy Ardour which glows in the Bosoms of the Spanish Patriots, the oppressed in every Part of the Globe turn their Eyes with anxious, but not doubtful, Expectation to your Majesty's powerful Co-operation in this sacred Cause. The prompt and disinterested Sentiments which your Majesty has expressed, the Exertions which have already been made, and the large and active Preparations which are now on foot to support a Cause the most momentous to social Man which has occurred since the Days of William Tell, are the Pride and Triumph of the Subjects of the magnanimous Sovereign of one of the most free and happy People at this Day on Earth; and will encircle your Majesty's Memory with Glory to the remotest Times, so long as one Spark of manly rational Freedom shall remain unextinguished in the human Breast.

And while we humbly offer up our hearty Prayers to Almighty God that, after so many Years of his just Chastisement, he would be pleased to unnerve the Arm of the Oppressor, to bless the Cause of that Being whom he has stamped with his own immortal Image, and to give Repose to the wearied Nations, permit us, Sir, to express our deep Sense of the paternal Solitude with which your Majesty, through a long Reign in new and disastrous Times, has preserved to us unimpaired a Constitution, so uniform and equal in its Blessings, that, like the Sun in its Course, it neglects not to shine upon the poor Man's Glebe, and to warm and cherish the lowly Cottager. Permit us to express our Gratitude for those wise Councils, which, amidst the Wreck of surrounding Empires, have, under the Divine Protection, preserved this Country undisturbed and undismayed. May it please the Disposer of all Things to prolong your Majesty's Reign, and to continue to this Empire the Example of your Virtues, and the Guidance of your Wisdom.
