

W^tchford, May 1st. This day the following Addresses were presented to His Maj^{ty}:

To the King's most Excellent Maj^{ty}.

The Honourable Address of Your most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects of the City of Hereford.

Dear & well beloved Y^r Maj^{ty}.

Since we are very sensible that no ge haib ever yet produced any Prince that hath not more Justice, Truth and Mercy, swaid the Scepters of the three realms Blessings whiche our Forefathers never had in more eminent degree of Perfection, and all other all reaumer yet knew. We conceive it our Duty to inform Your Maj^{ty} and all the World, our just ways and the full uprightness of the Peoples we exist in. For the last Kings, and most especially of Godwin, who however some ill Men to accomplish their designs, attempting to subvert the Government, his F^{ather} to the true Britons People, caused of his F^{ather} the Feudal power growing, and the publick man f^{or}stalls. Your Maj^{ty} if at times given to your People if your G^d is in the Land of the Land, and by no biter Means we find your Maj^{ty} holds to truely ours as Sacred) keep us as safe from such mischiefes, as we are secure from the dymal prophesied a may of Government, which we have nowe, prepared, unless to be from those that suggest such an inimicite, that they have subverted a well tempered Church, and infecte^d ther b^{oth} England & Scotland. We chapt but with h^e humble Luty, and Conscience, and excess of joy of your Maj^{ty}'s most excellent Endeavours to give us satisfaction and Ease in the minds of your Maj^{ty}'s Subjects, not only in your strict Adherence to and Favour of the true Protestant Religion, but (more especiall) in your late Decrees & reliish cannot but stop the mouths of the Rebells and factious, pleserwe from Apolitick the doubt-full, and confirm the Loyalty of your Maj^{ty}'s Subjects; And that your Maj^{ty} my selfe but we are not poison'd to think so by any Sedition or factious Designers, neidoⁿ amimoⁿ st^r and heartily affirme, and thank^e your Maj^{ty} it stand^s with flattery your Maj^{ty} in the freewar-ring of your Person, your Heirs and lawful Successors, and their Subjects, to the best of their power, as it is nowe established, with the last drop of our Blood, and our most fortunes; and shall be ready at all occasions to do my best to give you such large Assistance as I can^d with the proportionable Supplies of other Y^r Maj^{ty}'s Loyal Subjects I may make out Governing Country and Empire to your Selfe at home, and valued and searched by all your Allies and Neighbours abroad. We humblye^b Your Sacred Maj^{ty} to give a Gracious Acceptance to the steady Resolutions of your most Obedient and Loyal Subjects, which no Time, no Treachery no Power, no Fraud or Factioⁿ shall ever make us breake or Alter.
Your Maj^{ty}'s most Humble^b Obedient Obedient Subjects and Servants.

There has been^d likewise presented to His Maj^{ty} by J^{ohn} Smith from the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the City of Gloucester.

To the King's most Excellent Maj^{ty}

My^d please your most Sacred Maj^{ty}.

Y^r Maj^{ty}'s most Humble, Loyal, and Obedient Subjects, out of a deep sense of your most princely tenderness and transcendent Care for us, and all your good Subjects, as well in respect of our Religious as Civil Concerns, d^e make this our most Humble and faithful Address, returning all possible Gratitude for your Majesties most Gracious late Declaration, which bath like a Flood of Goodness issued from your Royal Heart towards all your Subjects, whereby all M^{en} that have not wilfully blinded their Intellects, may be abundantly satisfied of your Majesties Fatherly Love to us all.

We cannot but remember by what Frauds and Machinac^c ons the Subjects of this your Majesties Realm in the late times were beguiled, and under pretence of Religion (and partly ar^y this City, of which there was a most deserved Infamy brought upon us by Men of sedicious Principles, the dregs of n^o t^h ill remain always watching to distract our Peace) created into a Rebellion, the consequence whereof was a sad Devastation of all, and the loss of the best of Kings. And we have reason to believe the same deadly poison was again preparing, and had certain y^e been given, had not God put it into your Majesties Heart timely, and most prudently to prevent it.

As therefore we are bound to Glorifie God for his Mercy, so we make our most humble and grateful acknowledgement to your Maj^{ty} for your most intent & y^e gallant^b to save us from so portentous a Storm, and do therefore with all unanimity and Faithfulness prostrate our selves at your Majesties Feet, solemnly vowed before God and the whole world, that we are and shall be ready to the last drop of our Blood, and Mine of our Estates, to stand by and defend your most Sacred Person, your lawfull Successors, and the just Laws by which you govern both in Church and State.

The C^o of H^{er} M^{aj} and E^{mb}, by whom Kings Reign, Bless you with length of Day, Health, and all affluence of Wealth, Establish your Sacred Person in the hearts of your People, Disipate your Enemies, and Confound their Devices; and let the Scepter of Great Britain be sway'd by you and your Lawfull Successors to the end of Time.

Several other Addresses have been presented to His Maj^{ty}, as from Bristol, Lyn-Regis, &c. which space is not room to publish here.

The Officers of the Receipt of His Majesties Exchequer, have Money in Bank to pay to Number 774, inclusive, of the Orders Registered on the second act for Disbanding the Army.

3 Advertisements.

Whereas John Shury Hydrographer to the King, and J^{ohn} Strong, designed the Engraving of large Counties Map of four Foot Long, and three Foot deep, with the Compartments from the actual Survey of each County. Notice is here given to the Subscribers, that Ken^s is compleated, and shall be ready to be delivered to the Subscriber, by the first day of J^{une}, in every^b and all the County of Oxford, by the last day of the same Month, at the Shop of the said John Shury, in Ports-H^{ad} Alley in Crown; and J^{ohn} Oliver in the Old Bart near Turkst Where all Persons, who please may subscribe for any of the said Counties; Eng^{land} or Wales, and are desired to pay any Money till the delivery of the Maps.

A Robbery on Barnard-D^r on the 1st Instant, a Gold Watch was taken away; it was made by J^{ohn} Barre, but the Name is covered by a Flower of Silver. If the Watch be brought to be Sold, or be otherwise discovered, Notice thereof is to be given to Captain R^{obt}son in the Keeper of G^org^o, who will reward the Person who brings the same.