Smithfield Market, in the Parishes of St. Sepulchre, St. Bartholomew the Great, and St. Bartholomew the Less, in the City of London.

Whereas from the Enlargement of the Metropolis and Increase of Business, the said Market is inadequate to accommodate the numerous Cattle required for the Supply of London and its Environs; Notice is hereby given, that Application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Sessions, for Leave to bring in a Bill, under such Rules and Regulations as to the Legislature may seem meet, for the better Regulation of the said Market; and for altering the Day of Sale from Monday to Tuesday; and also for fixing and regulating the Rates to be taken for the Use of such new Accommodation.

N. B. The proposed Improvements will not occasion the Market to be removed from its present old and central Scite, so convenient for the Trade; neither will they occasion the Subversion of any Property, or the Removal of any Houses in the Neighbourhood, as the additional Space wanted will be acquired by Means of permanent Iron Platforms, with convenient Access, situated above the present Stalls or Receptacles for Cattle.—1st September 1808.

Notice is hereby given, that Application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session for Leave to bring in a Bill for the better supplying the Inhabitants of the Towns of Manchester and Salford, and the Parish of Manchester, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, with Water
