If James Plunket, who in the Year 1793, was with Milburn and Watson, Merchants, Montego-Bay, in the Island of Jamaica, be still alive, and will apply to the Executor of his late Brother, the Rev. Richard Underhill Plunket, at No. 30, Duke-Street, Lincoln's Inn-Fields, London, any Time before the 15th of December 1809, he will hear of something to his Advantage.

M. SMIT, in the Capacity of First Marshal for the Honourable Court of Justice in the Colony of Demerary, advertises by these Presents for the first, second and third time, that by Power of certain Sentence decreed by the abovementioned Court, on the 13th December 1807, and the thereupon followed Execution, after the Expiration of a Year and Six Weeks from the 26th of March 1808, he will expose at Public Marshal's Sale, the Coffee and Sugar Plantation called Gode Verwagting, situated on the West Bank of this River, with all its Buildings, Cultivations, Slaves, and further Appurtenances, belonging to A. Frazer, in behalf of H. C. Fvertz, Executor to the Will of M. F. Fvertz, deceased, for One Half, and for his self in his private, for the other One Half, as representing the Concern of the Estate of M. Loop, deceased.

The Inventory of the abovementioned Plantation is daily to be seen at the Counting-House of Messrs. D. van Leenep Coffer, at Amsterdam, and Messrs. Ridley and Poole, Liverpool.

And be it known, that Three Months after the Day of Sale, at the ordinary Session of the abovementioned Court of Justice, the Judicium of Price and Concurrence shall be held, and in consequence of which, J. the First Marshal, do hereby summon all those who may pretend to have a Claim against the Amount of the Produce of Sales or otherwise of said Plantation, to appear or appoint Attorneys, at the Time and Place before mentioned, against the first Day to go to Law, which will be kept by the beforementioned Court in the Month of July 1809; to sustain their Rights, as Proceedings shall be instituted against the Non-Appeareers according to Law.—Rio Demerary, 1st June 1808.
