Numbr. 1618

Published by Authority.

From Thursday May 19, to Monday May 23. 1681.

Brussels, May 27.

THe Prince of Parma is resolved to go to Actb and Mons the beginning of the next week, and in his return will visit Charleroy. To morrow the Nations of this City are to meet, in order to the renewing the Imposition upon Beer, &c. We have Letters from Lille of the 23 Instant which say, that Monsieur Pelletier, the Chief of the French Commissioners was returned thither from Courtray, so that the Conferences there are again at a stand. From Liege we have an Account, That on Thursday last 200 Germans, by order of the Elector of Cologne, entred Vifet, a small Town upon the Mense, between that City and Maeſtricht, and obliged all the Vessels that past up the River to pay the Imposition of the 60th Penny for the Merchandizes they were laden with, of which they of Liege having notice, resolved immediately to dislodge them, and on Friday Morning 8 or 9000 Men, Soldiers and Burghers marched thither with four or five pieces of Cannon, and having assaulted the Place, the Germans after a stout resistance all the day, were forced to Capitulate towards the Evening, and had leave to march out with their Arms, Bag and Bagage. Two hours after, some thousands of the Countrey Militia, who were drawn together to relieve the Place, arrived there, though too late, but we are expecting to hear that some Action has past between them, and those of Liege in their return home. They took at Vifet about half a score Freemen of their City, who having in these differences, Declared themselves for the r Prince, were retired thither, and have carried them to Liege, where it's thought they will pass their time very ill.

Hague, May 27. Here passes hardly any thing of Moment at present, but when the Prince of Orange returns, which he will now do very suddainly, and that the States of Holland meet, we may be able to give you an Account of several things that may be worth the knowing.

Paris, May 24. We do not yet hear what Resolution the King has taken, upon the Advice presented to him by the Bishops, concerning the Convoking a National Council, or a general Assembly of the Clergy. This we know, that His Majesty is much offended with the Bishop of Arras, who refused to jyn therein with the others. In the mean time matters stand at Rome in the same posture as formerly, the Cardinal d'Estree, after the several Audiences he has had of the Pope, and Conferences with the Cardinals, not being able to induce the Pope to depart from his Pretensions. The King of Sweden presses hard by his Ministers here, that the French will wighdraw their Garrisons out of the Dutchy of Deuxponts, that so he may take Possession of it, as of Right belonging to him.

Falmouth, May 16. The 13th Instant arrived here the Unity of London, laden with Oyls from Galipoli, she came about five weeks since from Cadiz, and the Master tells us, that putting into Gibraltar, he saw there the Golden Horse of Argiers, mounted with 48 Guns, and that he was informed by the English Commanders, that one of His Majesties Frigats had taken another Algerine of 24 Guns; and that as he was coming out of the Streights, he met an English Frigate, having with him an Algerine Prize; which it's supposed was the same he had an account of at Gibraltar, and that the Frigate was the Sapphire, and the Prize the Rose of Argiers.

Plymouth, May 17. Yesterday sail'd from hence His Majesties Ship the Guernsey, Captain Tennent Commander for Portmouth. Here are now in Port the Foresight, the Assurance, the Sweepstakes, and the Mermaid, the latter being come in from Cruising to Victual here.

Windsor, May 17. An Humble Address has been presented to His Majesty, by the Mayor and Aldermen of Lynne Regis, which follows,

WE Your Majesties Obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council, and other the chief Inhabitants of Your antient Burrough of Lynn-Regis in the County of Norfolk; in all Loyalty and Dutiful Reverence, do give Your Majesty our Humble and hearty Thanks for Your Royal Affection, and Continuance to the Excellent Constitution of the Church of England, and constant care to defend it against the ill designs of Popery, and all other Oppositions whatsoever; for Your firm Resolution, to maintain both the Just Rights of the Monarchy, and the Liberty and Property of Your People; particularly, for Your late Gracious Declaration, and those Instances of Your Princely Goodness, and Condescensions contain'd therein, which we think sufficient to allay the Fears, and remove the Misunderstandings of all well-meaning and reasonable Men; and with Gratitude to Your Majesty, we account our selves highly obliged to praise Almighty God for the manifold Blessings we enjoy from, and under Your Majesties Government, exercised with great Justice, Wisdom, and Clemency; Wherefore, as Religion and Allegiance engages, we in a deep and grateful sense, of Your Princely Grace and Favour, do beseech the King of Kings, that he will Grant Your Majesty, a long and prosperous Reign; and to our utmost we shall endeavour with our Lives and Fortunes, the preservation of Your Royal Person, and the support of Your Royal Authority.

TH:

The Humble Address of the Grand Jury, for the Town and Burrough of Southwark, at the general Sessions of the Peace, holden there on Monday the 16th of May, 1681.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

DREAD SIR,

WE Your Majesty's truly Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the Grand Jury of this Your antient Burrough, having first Humbly begged Your Majesty to be iove, that our apprehensions of the Happiness we enjoy, through Your Majesty's Princely Care and Paternal Affection towards us, have always been such as become the best Subjects to Entertain under the benigne influences of the most Propitious and Indulgent Monarch, doe further implore Your Majesty to accept of our most prostrate acknowledgments of the Royal Grace and Favour of Your Majesty's late Declaration, and to permit us to Express how sensible we are of our living under the most desirable Government in the world.

The Protestant Religion as Established by Law is so dear to us, and our condition by the Provision of the stated Laws of the Kingdom is rendered so easie, that though we have ever hitherto in all Duty rested silently satisfied in Your Majesty's Zeal for both; yet now, if it may please Your Majesty, we can no longer forbear to Declare to Your Majesty, and Publish to all the World, our grateful Sense of Your Majesty's so Solemn, so condescending, and so gracious a Publication of Your Resolutions to Maintain the one, and Rule by the other, thereby removing all the just fears and jealousies that might arise from the Practices of undermining Patriots, and factious Republicans.

Your Majesty's Gracious Promise of calling frequent Parliaments, is so transcendent an Obligation upon us, who are resolv'd to be the same Loyal Subjects in the Intervalls of Parliaments, as during their Session; that whenever Your Majesty's Wisdom and Providence shall appoint an Election we shall take all possible care to choose such Representatives, as shall comply with Your Majesty's Designs of extirpating Popery, and maintaining the Established Religion of the Church of England, and who shall likewise be ready to present Your Majesty with such Supplies, as the Dignity of the Crown, and the necessities of the Government shall require.

Your Majesty is pleas'd to remind us of the late Rebellion, in a manner so obliging, and for an end so good, as gives a most undeniable Testimony of Your Majesty's generous Obivion of the Injustice therein done to Your Self, and that Your Royal Memory retains only a compassionate impression of the Miseries thereby brought upon Your Subjects, so that should we not now yield our selves up as the Conquest of Your Majesty's Goodness, and sit down contented with our own Happiness, but contrary to all Your Majesty's Desires and Counsels, fall into the like Guilt and Mischiefe again, we should be not only the most ungrateful, but the most unpitied People in the World. And therefore as we Your Majesty's ever Loyal Subjects do for our parts with Shame and Sorrow reflect upon the former miscarriages and calamities, and with the utmost detestation and horror tremble at the thoughts of ever seeing the like a second time; so we doubt not but that Multitudes of deluded and misled Men have upon the occasion of Your Majesty's Declaration, so effectuallly considered and recollcted the several steps and advances by which they were betrayed into those confusions, as to be by this time fully convinced that true and steady Loyalty is the surest foundation of the Kingdoms Felicity.

To this Maxim we Declare, that we do at present firmly stand, and that by it we will always act, beseeching Your Majesty to be assur'd, that our Lives and Fortunes lie at Your Royal Feet, and that we will upon all occasions, be ready to Sacrifice them, both in defence of Your Majesty's Sacred Person, and the Establish'd Government of Church and State.

Sign'd by the said Grand Jury.

London, May 18. At a meeting of the Lieutenantcy this day it was order'd, That Sir Thomas Bindworth, Sir George Jeffreys, Mr. Serjeant R. C. ardsin, Sir Francis Raymone, Sir William A. K. s. l. Sir John Mathews, Sir Benjamin Newland, and Sir Buckworth, Esq; be desired to wait upon His Majesty at Hampton Court with the following Petition.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Petition of Your Majesty's most dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commissioners of the Lieutenantcy, and of the Officers, Citizens and Soldiers of the several Regiments and Companies of the Militia and Trained Bands, within Your City of London, and the Suburbs and Liberties thereof;

HUMBLY SHEWETH,

THAT Your Petitioners being infinitely satisfied with Your Majesty's most gracious and firm Resolutions: of using Your Majesty's utmost endeavours to preserve the Government as it is now by Law Established both in Church and State, sufficiently made known and secured to us, and to all other Your Majesty's Dutiful, Loyal, and Obedient Subjects, by Your late most Gracious Declaration published for that purpose, gives us Encouragement with all Duty, Loyalty, and Submission, humbly to beg leave to tender to Your most Sacred Majesty our most humble and hearty thanks for the same, and to give you a perfect Assurance, that we are unanimously resolv'd, to venture our Lives and Fortunes for the preservation of Your Majesty's Life (which we pay God long continue) and for the maintenance of the Government, as it is now by Law Established both in Church and State, in opposition to, and defiance of all the Enemies and opposers thereof, if what Said or Said sever.

And Your Petitioners as in Duty bound shall ever Pray, &c.

THe Officers of the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, have Money in Bank to pay to Number 781. inclusive, of the Orders Registered on the second Act for Disbanding the Army.
