

held out in this His Majesty's most gracious Proclamation.

Any Soldier who may desert after these His Majesty's gracious Intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above Pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost Severity.

It is to be clearly understood, that this Proclamation of Pardon is intended to include all Deserters from the Army of Reserve and Additional Force Act, but not to extend to any Deserter from His Majesty's Militia Forces.

By His Majesty's Command,

JAMES PULTENEY.

BY THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Forty-seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to allow for Two Years, from and after the passing of this Act, an additional Bounty on Double Refined Sugar, and to extend former Bounties on other Refined Sugar, to such as shall be pounded, crashed, or broken; and to allow for One Year certain Bounties on British Plantation Raw Sugar exported;" reciting, That whereas by the Laws now in force in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, it is required that Refined Sugar exported for the Bounties shall be in Lumps or Loaves complete and whole; and that it is expedient that the said Bounties shall be continued to be allowed and paid on the Exportation of the same from the Ports of London and Dublin, although such Lumps or Loaves may be pounded, crashed, or broken; it is enacted, that on the due Exportation of Refined Sugar for the Bounties under those Laws, the same Bounties respectively shall be allowed and paid under the Provisions and Regulations of those Acts, on such Lumps and Loaves as may be pounded, crashed, or broken under the Regulations of this Act: And whereas by the said Act it is further enacted, That whenever it shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, that proper Refindries are established and carried on at or near to any Port of the United Kingdom, to which it would be safe in their Judgment to extend the Benefit granted by this Act to the Ports of London and Dublin, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, to declare that the Regulations of this Act shall be extended to such Port, provided that no Bounty shall be paid or allowed upon Refined Sugar or Candy exported from any such Port, unless and until the Lord High Treasurer, or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, shall have signified their Approbation thereof by Publication in the London or Dublin Gazette respectively; and from and after the Day mentioned in such Publication, all and every the Provisions, Powers, Authorities, Penalties, Forfeitures, Regulations, Acts, Matters, and Things in this Act contained, or any Way relating to the Allowance of the Bounties on such Lump or Loaf Sugar pounded, crashed, or broken, or on Sugar

Candy, in pursuance thereof, shall extend and be construed to extend to the Port or Ports named in such Order, in like Manner, in every Respect, and as fully and amply to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Port or Ports had been expressly named in this Act:

And whereas it has been made appear to our Satisfaction that proper Refindries are established and carried on in the Ports of Port Glasgow and Greenock, in that Part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, and it is in our Judgment safe to extend to the said Port the Benefit granted by the said Act to the Ports of London and Dublin, we the undersigned Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury do therefore, pursuant to the said Act, hereby declare that the Regulations of the said Act shall, from the Day of the Date hereof, be extended to the said Ports of Port Glasgow and Greenock.

Given under our Hands this 9th Day of September 1808,

W. BRODRICK.

W. ELIOT.

W. STURGES BOURNE.

IN Obedience to the standing Orders of the Hon. the House of Commons, Notice is hereby given, that Application is to be made to Parliament during the ensuing Session, for Leave to bring in a Bill to authorize and empower the Magistrates and Council of the City of Glasgow to enlarge and render more commodious the Harbour of the Broomielaw, in the Parish of Glasgow, immediately below the New Bridge on the River Clyde, by lengthening and improving the present Quay, and building a new and additional Quay on the South Side of the River, in the Parish of Govan and Gorbals, and County of Lanark, and for other Purposes connected with the general Improvement of the said Harbour; as also to authorize the said Magistrates and Council to borrow Money, and levy and exact certain Duties and Customs from all Vessels arriving at the said Harbour, in order to defray the Expence of the said Improvements.

Notice is hereby given, that the Company of Proprietors of the Ellesmere Canal intend to apply to Parliament the ensuing Session for an Act to authorize the said Company to extend the said Canal from the Whitchurch Branch thereof, at or near a certain Place now or heretofore called or known by the Name of Sherryman's Bridge, in the Parish of Whitchurch, in the County of Salop, to or near a certain Place called the Castle Well, in the said Parish, and near Watergate-Street, in the Town of Whitchurch aforesaid; which said Extension of the said Canal is proposed to be carried and made in the Parish of Whitchurch aforesaid; and in the several Townships of Whitchurch and Dodington, in the same Parish; and for making a Road or Communication from or near the said Place now or heretofore called or known by the Name of Sherryman's Bridge aforesaid, on the Western Side of the said proposed Extension of the said Canal, to the Termination thereof at or near the Castle Well, and near Watergate-Street aforesaid; and for further amending and altering the several Acts passed relative to the making of the said Canal.

Potts, Leeke, and Potts, Solicitors.

Ellesmere, September 7, 1808.
