St. James's, September 28, 1808.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Dock, and Parish of Stoke-Damerel, in the County of Devon.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Dock, and Parish of Stoke-Damerel, beg to approach your Throne to express our unfeigned Attachment and Allegiance to your sacred Person and Government, and to offer our most grateful Acknowledgments, at this important Crisis, for your Majesty's unremitted paternal Care and Attention to the welfare of your People.

We beg to congratulate your Majesty on the Cessation of Hostilities with Spain, and behold, with the most heartfelt Pleasure, the auspicious Commencement of Resistance to a System, pursued by the despotic Ruler of France, of the deepest Treachery and most unprovoked Oppression; and we cannot but witness, with the most lively Admiration, the gallant Efforts and most brilliant Achievements of two Nations, in Amity with your Majesty, for the Protection and Preservation of their dearest Rights; and the distinguished and powerful Assistance afforded by your Majesty to Patriots struggling in so glorious a Cause has, in the most essential Degree, promoted the Honour of the British Name, and excited as well their Gratitude as the Approbation of Mankind in general.

It is with the most ardent Interest and Satisfaction we have observed the Promptitude and Energy of the Measures adopted by your Majesty's Government on this great and magnanimous Occasion, as the Patriots of Spain and Portugal have thereby been inspired with increased Confidence and Valour; and from a Continuance of the same Policy the most beneficial Effects, in the Re-establishment of the Liberties of Europe, and Repose and Tranquillity of the World, are anticipated by us.

We most earnestly implore a long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign over a loyal, peaceable, and happy People, whilst surrounding Nations, struggling against Tyranny and Oppression, may always recognize in your Majesty a natural Friend and Ally.

Town-Hall, Dock, Devon, Sept. 13, 1808.

[Transmitted by Sir John St. Aubyn, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Stamford, in the County of Lincoln, and also the Gentlemen, Clergy, and the Inhabitants thereof, with its Neighbourhood.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough aforesaid, and the Neighbourhood thereof, with the utmost Humility, beg Leave to express our Detestation and Abhorrence of the French invading the Kingdom of Spain and your Majesty's old Allies the Portuguese; and we, in Course with the rest of your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, congratulate your Majesty upon your Majesty's laudable Exertions to assist the Spaniards, and the Honourable Success of your Arms in the glorious Defeat of the French, in their unjust Invasion of Portugal; and we humbly hope, that by a continued Exertion of your Majesty's Councils in the Prosecution of the present War, in which this Nation is unavoidably engaged, a permanent and honourable Peace may be hereafter obtained and enjoyed by your Majesty and your august Family, who, we heartily wish, may, to the End of Time, be the Support of our glorious Constitution, and reign over a loyal and faithful People.

Given, at the Town-Hall, under the Common Seal of the said Borough, the 10th Day of September in the Year of our Lord 1808.

PROCLAMATION for pardoning Deserters from His Majesty's Regular Land Forces.

War-Office, August 25, 1808.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the King, that there are at this Time several Deserters from the different Regular Corps in His Majesty's Land Service, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of His Majesty's gracious Pardon, and that such an Instance of His Royal Clemency would have a due Influence upon their future Behaviour; His Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant His Free Pardon to all Deserters from His Regular Land Forces, who shall surrender themselves on or before the Twenty-fourth Day of October, to the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, or to any of the Superintending Field Officers of the Recruiting Service, whose Stations are mentioned in the Margin hereof, or to the Commandant of the Army Depot in the Isle of Wight.

Durham. Such Deserters, if Able-bodied Men, and fit for Service, shall be sent to the Regiments from which they respectively deserted, or be appointed to such Regiments in the United Kingdom as His Majesty may be pleased to command; and when so placed, shall not be liable to be claimed by any other Corps to which they may formerly have belonged.

Carlisle. And whereas many of the said Deserters may have enlisted in other Regular Corps, and are now serving therein, His Majesty is graciously pleased to extend to such Deserters the Benefit of this Pardon; and to direct that they shall continue to serve in the Corps wherein they now are, upon declaring themselves to their respective Commanding Officers on or before the Twenty-fourth of October next, and they shall not be liable at any future Time to be claimed by the Regiments in which they formerly served.

The Magistrate to whom any Deserter from His Majesty's Regular Forces may surrender himself, is authorized and required to certify the Day on which such Deserter surrendered himself; which Certificate is to continue in Force until the Arrival of the Deserter at the Head-Quarters of the nearest Military Post, provided he proceed at the Rate of Ten Miles a Day, unless prevented by Sickness, to be certified by some Medical Practitioner on the Back of the Magistrate's Certificate, or to be otherwise proved to the Satisfaction of the Officer-commanding at such Military Post.

And, with a View to prevent as far as possible all Soldiers from Desertion after these His Majesty's most gracious Intentions shall be made known, His Majesty has been pleased to command, that the Name of every Soldier who may hereafter desert shall be transmitted, through the Secretary at War, to the Church Wardens of the Parishes, to which the Deserters belong; in order that their Names may be exposed to public View in the Church, or such other conspicuous Place as may render it impossible for Men, who have been guilty of this Crime, to return Home to their Friends, on whom they have brought Disgrace by their misconduct, without immediate Detection; and His Majesty has further commanded that this Measure shall be made public, that every Soldier may be assured that the greatest Exertions will be used for the Apprehension of any Man who may hereafter desert, and that those who have already been guilty of that Crime may be aware of the daily Risk they incur of Detection, and of the most severe Punishment, if they do not immediately avail themselves of the Pardon held out in this His Majesty's most gracious Proclamation.

Any Soldier who may desert after these His Majesty's gracious Intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above Pardon; but be proceeded against with the utmost Severity.

It is to be clearly understood, that this Proclamation of Pardon is intended to include all Deserters from the Army of Reserve and Additional Force Act, but not to extend to any Deserter from His Majesty's Militia Forces.

By His Majesty's Command,
JAMES PULTENEY.

NEW STAMP DUTIES.

Stamp-Office, September 26, 1808.

Notice is hereby given, that by an Act, passed at the Close of the late Session of Parliament, the Stamp Duties on Deeds, Law Proceedings, and other written Instruments, and the Duties on Legacies and Successions to personal Estate upon Intestacies, now payable in Great Britain, are repealed from and after the 10th Day of October next, and other Duties are granted in lieu thereof, to commence immediately after that Day.

The new Duties are of the like Nature, and in general of the same Amount, with the present Duties; but a more precise and accurate Description is given of the Instruments on which they attach. There are some Duties altogether new, and some new in Amount; of which the principal ones are, ad valorem Duties on Conveyances upon the Sale of any Property, according to the Amount of the Purchase-Money; increased Duties on Promissory Notes allowed to be re-issued; and a Duty on Licences to be taken out Yearly by Bankers and others issuing such Promissory Notes. There is also a Duty on Policies of Insurance on Lives, and on Three or Four Law Proceedings, not now charged. The Duties on Mortgages for small Sums, and on Conveyances on the Sale of Property of small Value, are less than at present. The Duties are contained in a Schedule, in which the Instruments charged are classed and alphabetically arranged, with numerous References, so as to afford a complete Table of Duties in the most convenient and practical Form, and to supersede the Necessity of those Compilations to which the Profession of the Law and the Public have hitherto found it expedient to resort. The Schedule is also framed so as not to admit of an Abridgment that can be safely relied upon. The Commissioners therefore recommend it to the Profession, and others whom it may concern, to look only to the Schedule itself.

The Act contains special Provisions for securing the Duties on Conveyances on the Sale of Property, on Bills of Exchange, and Drafts on Bankers post-dated, or issued beyond Ten Miles from the Bankers' Residence, and on Instruments relating to Copyhold Estates, which the Commissioners recommend to the Notice and Attention of Purchasers and Sellers, Attornies, Solicitors, Bankers, Stewards of Manors, and others, that they may not incur Penalties, which it will be the Duty of the Commissioners to enforce. The Provisions respecting Drafts on Bankers, take effect after One Month from the passing of the Act.

LEGACY DUTY.

It being apprehended that many Persons may have neglected to pay the Duties on Legacies, and on Residues of personal Estate given by Will, or devolved to next of Kin upon Intestacies, within the Time prescribed by Law, through Ignorance or Inadvertence, or from accidental or unavoidable Causes; the Act authorises the Commissioners to remit the Penalties which may have been incurred in such Cases, provided the Duty shall be paid on or before the 31st Day of January 1809. In giving Notice of this Provision of the Act, the Commissioners think it right also to state, that Prosecutions in the Exchequer will be instituted against those Persons who shall not take the Benefit of it, as well as against those who shall fail to pay the Duties which may hereafter become due, within the Time allowed by Law; an Abstract of Wills proved and Administrations granted being returned to the Commissioners from the several Ecclesiastical Courts, for the Purpose of discovering Defaulters.

By Order of the Commissioners,
C. E. Beresford, Secretary.

Notice is hereby given, that Application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for Leave to bring in a Bill to incorporate the Owners of certain Lands and Premises in the Parish of St. Mary Rotherhithe, in the County of Surrey, to erect certain Buildings, and to dig out and form certain Docks for the Reception of Ships and Merchandize, with an Entrance or Entrances by a Lock or Locks into the River Thames; and to grant them certain Powers to use the Business of Dock-Masters and Wharfingers, &c.; and to purchase certain Parcels of Land and other Premises in the said Parish of St. Mary Rotherhithe, in the County of Surrey, and in the Parish of St. Paul Deptford and St. Nicholas Deptford, both in the County of Kent; and also for removing and altering such Part of the public Roads and Footways lying contiguous to the said Lands as may be thought necessary.

Leasehold Iron-Works, Collieries, and Farms, in the Neighbourhood of Sheffield, in the County of York.

TO be sold to the highest Bidder, at the House of Mr. Samuel Peck, the Angel Inn, in Sheffield, on Tuesday the 11th of October instant, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, by Order of and before the major Part of the Commissioners acting under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against Mr. Richard Swallow, of Attercliffe-Forge, in the Parish of Sheffield, in the County of York, Iron-master, Dealer and Chapman, subject to such Conditions of Sale as will be then produced, and in such Lots as will be then declared,

All those very valuable and extensive Iron and Coal Works, situated at Chapel-Town and Hesley, in the Parish of Ecclesfield, in the County of York, at about an equal Distance of 6 Miles from Sheffield, Barnsley, and Rotterdam, to all which Places they have excellent Roads; they are also within 5 Miles of the River Don Navigation, and a shorter Distance of several other navigable Canals, by which they have a ready Communication with Hull, and the Yorkshire, Lancashire, and Staffordshire Canals.—The Iron Works occupy a Site of nearly 4 Acres of Land, besides the Water-Goights and Dams; and consist of Two Blast-Furnaces, with Bridge-Houses, Casting-Houses, Sand-Pit, Drying-Stove, Air-Furnace, Cupolas, and Two Refineries, with suitable Shops, Warehouses, Counting-House, &c.; also of a capital single-powered Patent Engine, with Cast-Iron Regulator-Beam, Steam Cylinder, 44 Inches in Diameter, and an Air Cylinder, 84 Inches in Diameter, Two Boilers of suitable Dimensions, and a Cast-Iron regulating Vault, 38 Feet long, and 12 Feet wide, inside Dimensions, with several other valuable Conveniences.

The Engine is in complete Repair, and is supplied with condensing Water by Pipes from the Furnace-Dam, without having Occasion to lift it at all.

These Works are held by Lease from his Grace the Duke of Norfolk, for a Term of 42 Years from the 25th of March 1802, under the yearly Rent of 40l.

The Iron and Coal-Mines are near the above Furnaces, and very extensive; the Ore is rich, and in Abundance; the Coal is also of an excellent Quality, (the deep Levels of which are from 35 to 40 Yards from the Surface,) and is drained partly by Soughs, and partly by a new erected Steam-Engine, with a 40 Inch Steam Cylinder, which has only to lift the Water 10 Yards into a new Sough, and it also raises to the Surface such Water as is wanted to supply the Machines or Wimsey Tubs to draw up the Coals.

There are now Seven Working-Shafts on these Collieries, which not only supply the Iron-Works, but one of them is also in considerable Estimation as a Sale Colliery, and has supplied the Neighbourhood for near a Century.

These Mines are also held by Lease from the said Duke of Norfolk for a Term of 21 Years, which commenced at Lady-Day 1804, under moderate yearly Rents.

Also Two Leasehold Farms, situated near Attercliffe aforesaid, containing together by Survey 54 Acres, or thereabouts, now in a very superior State of Cultivation, and occupied by Mr. Swallow, held by Lease under the Duke of Norfolk, for 21 Years from Lady-Day 1802, at moderate yearly Rents.

Purchasers may be accommodated with immediate Possession of all the above Works and Farms.

Particular Descriptions of the Iron and Coal Works, and any further Information, may be had by Application to Mr. Charles Brookfield, Solicitor, Sheffield.
