Queen's Palace, October 26, 1808.

This Day Monsieur d'Adlerberg, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Sweden, had an Audience of Leave of His Majesty; and Monsieur de Brinckman, his Successor in the same Character, had afterwards a private Audience of His Majesty, to deliver his Credentials:

To which they were introduced by the Right Honourable George Canning, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

St. James's, October 26, 1808.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkebury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr, in full Synod assembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Hearts full of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

At this important and eventful Crisis, we congratulate your Majesty on the remarkable Success of your Arms in Portugal, and on the glorious and patriotic Efforts of the Spanish Nation in defending their Liberty and Independence as a People, Events so advantageous to Britain in its political and commercial Interests.

With the most sincere Expressions of Gratitude to Almighty God, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree Justice, and to whom your Majesty, during your long and auspicious Reign, hath looked up for Wisdom to go out and come in before your People, we admire and approve of that generous and prompt Assistance which your Majesty has been pleased to afford that brave and high-spirited People.

Under the Providence of God, who will ultimately bless the righteous Cause, we hope and pray that their Efforts may be crowned with complete Success.

Most gracious Sovereign, it shall be our Endeavour, as Ministers of Jesus Christ, to impress on the Minds of our People the many and great Obligations under which they lie to your Majesty, for uniformly and conscientiously acting in conformity to those Principles which placed your august Family on the Throne of these Kingdoms, in preserving the Liberties of your Subjects, civil and sacred, and in opposing those Tyrants who disturb the Peace, and threaten to destroy the Independence of the Nations of Europe.

May your Majesty long be preserved to reign over a free, generous and pious People, is the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr, in full Synod assembled.

Signed in our Name, Presence, and by our Appointment, by Adam Forman, Moderator.
Glasgow, 12th. October 1808.

[Transmitted by the Lord Advocate.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgeses, and Commonalty of the Town and Borough of Ipswich, in Great Court assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeses, and Commonalty of your ancient Town and Borough of Ipswich, in Great Court assembled, humbly beg Leave to repeat our most sincere Professions of inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to our unrivalled Constitution.

In the glorious Struggle in which the Spanish and Portuguese Nations are engaged, to resist the atrocious Attempt of the Ruler of France to subvert their Constitutions, and establish on their Ruins the most detestable Usurpation, the wise and magnanimous Measures which your Majesty has adopted excite our Admiration, and call forth our warmest Gratitude; and the noble Promptitude to assist with the Resources of this great Empire, so just and honourable a Cause—the Cause of Freedom and outraged Humanity, will ever reflect on your Majesty's Councils the brightest Lustre, while the unprincipled Conduct of the French Invader will be stamped by Mankind in all Ages with Execration and Horror.

May the Nations in Subjection to the Power of France, be animated by the noble Example now set them, bravely to assert their lawful Rights; and may they finally triumph over the unbounded Ambition of the Common Enemy of Europe. And we earnestly pray, that the powerful Exertions of your Majesty's Government may, under the Divine Protection, restore to your People the Blessings of an honourable and a permanent Peace.

Given under our Common Seal the 29th Day of September 1808.

[Transmitted by Sir H. Popham and R. A. Crickitt, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the Borough of Ipswich.]
