ELECTION OF A TEMPORAL PEER OF IRELAND.

THE Writs for electing a Temporal Peer of Ireland to succeed to the Vacancy made in the Representation of the Peerage of Ireland by the Death of the Earl of Clanricarde, will be ready to be delivered at this Office, on Monday the 24th Day of October instant, to the several Lords now entitled to vote, whose Names and Titles of Honour will be published in the London and Dublin Gazettes of that Date, or they will be forwarded by Post to every such Lord who shall send Directions in Writing for that Purpose, and his Address, to this Office. The Writs for such Peers as reside in Dublin will be delivered at their respective Houses.

THOMAS BOUCHIER,

Deputy Clerk of the Crown in Ireland.

Crown and Hanaper-Office, Dublin,
18th October 1808.

N. B. By the Act of Union no Peer (except the Twenty-eight Representative Peers) can vote without first taking the Oaths of Allegiance, &c. before a Magistrate in Ireland, after the issuing of the Writs, and before they are returnable.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 5th of October 1808,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in virtue of the Powers vested in His Majesty by an Act, passed in the Forty sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, Cap. 29, intitled "An Act for reviving and continuing several Laws of Customs relating to the establishing Courts of Judicature in the Island of Newfoundland; and to the prohibiting the Exportation from, and permitting the Importation to, Great Britain, of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March, One thousand eight hundred and nine; and for continuing several Laws relating to the granting a Bounty upon certain Species of British and Irish Linens exported from Great Britain, and taking off the Duties on Importation into Great Britain of Foreign Raw Linen Yarns made of Flax; to the granting a Bounty upon the Importation into Great Britain of Hemp, and rough and undressed Flax, from His Majesty's Colonies in America, and to the Encouragement of the Greenland Whale Fisheries; and for reviving and continuing several Laws relating to the regulating the Prices at which Corn and Grain may be exported from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain; and to the Admission to Entry in Great Britain of Oil and Blubber of Newfoundland, taken by His Majesty's Subjects carrying on the Fishery from, and residing in, the said Island; and for continuing an Act of the Twenty-third Year of His present Majesty, for the more effectual Encouragement of the Manufactures of Flax and Cotton in Great Britain; and for reviving and continuing several Laws relating to the permitting the Importation into Great Britain of Hides and other Articles in Foreign Ships; and to the prohibiting the Exportation from Ireland of Corn or Potatoes, or other Provisions, and to the permitting the Importation into Ireland of Corn, Fish, and Provisions, without Payment of Duty, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eight; and for reviving and continuing an Act, passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Twenty-fifth Year of His present Majesty, for the Encouragement of the Flaxen and Hempen Manufactures of Ireland until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven; and for amending and further continuing an Act made in the Seventh Year of His present Majesty for the free Importation into Great Britain of Cochineal and Indigo, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and nine:"

His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Sixth Day of April last, to permit, for the Space of Six Months, from the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of April, the Importation of sundry Articles of Provisions, therein specified, Duty free: And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Permission should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council to allow, and doth hereby allow, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and nine, the Importation into any Port or Place of Great Britain of any Beans, called Kidney
