A PROCLAMATION,

For further continuing, from the Thirty-first Day of December next until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Forty-eighth Year of Our Reign, intituled "An Act to prohibit the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain for a limited Time," it was enacted, that in case We, at any Time after the First Day of October last, should in Our Royal Discretion judge it to be for the Benefit and Advantage of Our Kingdom further to continue the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain from the Thirty-first Day of December next until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, then and in such Case it should and might be lawful to and for Us, by Our Royal Proclamation or Proclamations, to be issued by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, or by Our Order in Council to be published from Time to Time in the London Gazette, and in the Dublin Gazette, to continue throughout the United Kingdom, from the said Thirty-first Day of December next until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, the Prohibition thereinbefore mentioned, that is to say, that throughout the United Kingdom, during the Continuance of such Prohibition, no Worts or Wash for Distillation shall be made from Oats, Barley, or any other Corn or Grain, or from Malt, Flour, or Bran, or any Mixture with the same; and whereas we do judge it for the Benefit and Advantage of Our Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be further continued, We are thereupon pleased, by this Our Royal Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to order and direct that the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain be further continued from the Thirty-first Day of December next until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament; and that during that Period no Person shall cause any Worts or Wash for Distillation to be made from Oats, Barley, or any other Corn or Grain, or from Malt, Flour, or Bran, or any Mixture with the same, upon pain of incurring the Forfeiture in the said Act mentioned.

Given at the Court at the Queen's Palace, the Sixteenth Day of November, One thousand eight hundred and eight, in the Forty-ninth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the Eighth Day of December next, We, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said Eighth Day of December next, to Monday the Sixteenth Day of January next; and We have given Order to Our Chancellor of that Part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly: And We do further hereby, with the Advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure that the said Parliament shall, on the said Sixteenth Day of January next, be held and sit for the Dispatch of divers urgent and important Affairs; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs, of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their Attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said Sixteenth Day of January next.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the Twenty-third Day of November, One thousand eight hundred and eight, in the Forty-ninth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

Each District will be put up at the Sum above set opposite thereto, which, if there be no Bidding, will be gradually abated down to a certain Point, or till a Bidding shall be made. The highest Bidder will be declared the Farmer, and will be required to pay down immediately, in Bank Notes, One-Eighth Part of the Annual Rent as a Deposit; but if no sufficient Bidding shall be made for any District, it will be withdrawn.

And it is intended, that the Districts shall not be put up in the Order above stated, but in any other which the Commissioners of Stamps may think fit, and which will not be declared before the Time of letting.

All Persons intending to bid for any of the said Duties, are to deliver in their Proposals, addressed to the Commissioners at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, at least Three Days previous to the said 16th Day of December next, signed with their Names, stating the Places of their Abode, and specifying the District or Districts for which they intend to bid, otherwise their Proposals cannot be proceeded upon.

And no Persons licensed to let Horses for the Purpose of travelling Post, nor any one for their Use, can be admitted to contract for any of the said Duties.

To Innkeepers and others letting Horses to hire, as well as to Persons intending to bid for any of the said Duties,

Notice is also given, that by the above mentioned Act of the last Session, all Licences for letting Horses to hire, granted previously to the 31st of January next, will expire on that Day, and all Licences to be granted after that Day, will expire on the 31st of January following the Date thereof; but for the Convenience of the Persons concerned, and to give Time for obtaining Licences, all such as shall be granted between the 31st of January and the 16th of March in any Year, will be dated on the 1st of February, and will protect from that Day. The Act also contains divers new Provisions and Regulations for better securing the Duties and preventing Frauds, as well as for facilitating the Recovery of the Duties, and the Penalties for Offences relating thereto, which will be found beneficial to the Farmers thereof; and Innkeepers and others letting Horses to hire will be subject to Penalties if they neglect to conform to such Regulations.

By Order of the Commissioners of Stamps,
C. E. Beresford, Secretary.
