

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday December 6, to Saturday December 10, 1808.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

For further continuing, from the Thirty-first Day of December next until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Forty-eighth Year of Our Reign, intituled "An Act to prohibit the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain for a limited Time," it was enacted, that in case We, at any Time after the First Day of October last, should in Our Royal Discretion judge it to be for the Benefit and Advantage of Our Kingdom further to continue the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain from the Thirty-first Day of December next until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, then and in such Case it should and might be lawful to and for Us, by Our Royal Proclamation or Proclamations, to be issued by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, or by Our Order in Council to be published from Time to Time in the London Gazette, and in the Dublin Gazette, to continue throughout the United Kingdom, from the said Thirty-first Day of December until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, the Prohibition thereinbefore mentioned, that is to say, that throughout the United Kingdom, during the Continuance of such Prohibition, no Worts or Wash for Distillation shall be made from Oats, Barley, or any other Corn or Grain, or from Malt, Flour, or Bran, or any Mixture with the same; and whereas we do judge it for the Benefit and Advantage of Our Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be further continued, We are thereupon pleased, by this Our Royal Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to order and direct that the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain be further continued from the Thirty-first Day of December next until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament; and that during that Period no Person shall cause any Worts or Wash for Distillation to be made from Oats, Barley, or any other Corn or Grain, or from Malt, Flour, or Bran, or any Mixture with the same, upon pain of incurring the Forfeiture in the said Act mentioned.

Given at the Court at the Queen's Palace, the Sixteenth Day of November, One thousand eight hundred and eight, in the Forty-ninth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the Eighth Day of December next, We, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said Eighth Day of December next, to Monday the Sixteenth Day of January next; and We have given Order to Our Chancellor of that Part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly: And We do further hereby, with the Advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure that the said Parliament shall, on the said Sixteenth Day of January next, be held and sit for the Dispatch of divers urgent and important Affairs; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs, of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their Attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said Sixteenth Day of January next.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the Twenty-third Day of November, One thousand eight hundred and eight, in the Forty-ninth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.
