By the Court,

THOMAS SHELTON,
Clerk of the Peace.

Notice is hereby given, that in virtue of certain Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, dated the 20th Day of December 1808, it is thereby given and granted unto John Schmidt, of Saint Mary, London, Watch-Maker, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, and any of them, by himself and themselves, or by his and their Deputy or Deputies, Servants or Agents, or such others as he the said John Schmidt, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall at any Time agree with, and no others, from Time to Time, for and during, and unto the full End and Term of Fourteen Years from the Date of the said Letters Patent next and immediately ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended according to the Statute in such Cases made and provided, to use, vend, exercise, and enjoy his certain Invention called a Chronometer, or Nocturnal Dial, representing or making visible at Night, to any enlarged Size, the Dial of a Watch against the Wall of a Room, the Reflection attained by a Light and Optical Apparatus, being at the same Time sufficient to give the Room a pleasing Illumination.—The Nocturnal Dial may, with little Alteration, be made of any Watch or Time-Piece; but to render the whole as simple and useful as possible, he has also invented a Mechanism, or Instrument, which is applicable to, or separately useful from, the above, on account of its useful Action, which the Inventor calls his Mysterious Circulator, or Chronological Equilibrium, requiring only one Hand or Nonius, to shew Seconds, Minutes, and Hours, is particularly useful, and may if required, with little Alterations, represent an Orrey, in that Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, called England, His Majesty's Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick-upon-Tweed.

Notice is hereby given, that if there are any Heirs, Children, or Grandchildren of the Body of Elizabeth, the eldest Daughter of Nathaniel Fletcher, of London, Merchant, who married John Pritchard, Mercer, of Saint Paul's Covent-Garden, other than Letitia Pritchard, their eldest Daughter, they are to apply immediately to William Fletcher, Esq; of Lee-House, Rumsley, Hants, the Trustee for the said Elizabeth Pritchard and her Children; and in Default thereof, within Three Months from the 13th of December 1808, the Directions of the Trust Deed will be passed solely to the Use of the said L. Pritchard.
