Copy of a Letter addressed by Lord George Stuart, Captain of His Majesty's Ship L'Amable, to the Senior Officer of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels off the Texel, dated the 7th Instant, and transmitted to the Honourable W. W. Pole by Rear-Admiral Sir Edmund Neble.

SIR,

I BEG Leave to acquaint you, on the 2d Instant, while standing to the Southward to regain my Station, His Majesty's Ship under my Command being driven by the late tempestuous Weather from off the Texel on the Wellbank, I perceived, at Eleven A. M. a strange Sail on the Weather Quarter, standing to the Northward and Eastward; concluding from that she was an Enemy, I immediately wore round and made all Sail, and, after a Chace of Twenty-eight Hours, at Four P. M. on the 3d Instant, (Aberdeen bearing North 75° W. Distance Thirty-six Leagues,) came alongside of her, and having exchanged Broadfides, continued a running Fight, and in a few Minutes she struck. She proved to be L'Iris, French National Twenty-four Gun-Ship, commanded by Monsieur Miquet, Capitaine de Frigate, but capable of carrying Thirty-two Guns, had only Twenty four when taken, Twenty-two Twenty-four-Pounder Carronades and Two long Twelves, a Complement of One Hundred and Forty Men. She is only Ten Months old, Copperfastened, and, I think, in every Respect qualified for His Majesty's Service. She sailed from Dunkirk on the 29th Ultimo, bound to Martinique, with Six Hundred and Forty Casks of Flour on board, besides being victualled and stored with every Species to Four Months. I am happy to say, only Two Men were slightly wounded; the Enemy lost Two killed and Eight wounded. I am concerned to add, we suffered materially in our Masts and Rigging; the Mainmast shot in the Head, Mainyard shot away in the Slings, the Mizemast-Head and Mizem-Topmast shot away, also the Try-sail-Mast and the Rigging and Sails greatly cut up.

I have, &c.
(Signed) G. STUART.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament, passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to those whom it may concern, that Information has been received at this Office, that the Brigantine or Vessel called the Apollo, of London, whereof ——— Reddall was Master, (Owner's Name or Names not known,) of the Burthen of One Hundred and Fifty Tons, or thereabouts, belonging to London, and bound from London to Curaçoa with sundry Merchandises, was driven on Shore on the Goodwin Sands by Strels of Weather, on Wednesday the 25th Day of January last, and was there lost, with the greatest Part of her Cargo, and the Master and all the Crew, excepting One Mau, named Lewis Romangara.

W. W. POLE.

Whitehall, February 11, 1809.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that the Body of Mr. George Johnstone, a First Lieutenant of one of His Majesty's Ships lying at the Nore, was found on Saturday Morning last, near the Five Bells in the Kent Road, most inhumanly murdered. The said Mr. Johnstone was in his Way to Deptford, and, it is supposed, that, about Half-past One o'Clock in the Morning, he was attacked by Three Men, who were seen near the Spot about that Time, one of them answering the following Description, viz. About Five Feet Nine or Ten Inches high, of a very swarthy Complexion, with large dark Whiskers, dressed in a close-bodied Blue Coat with Yellow Buttons, a light-coloured Waistcoat, light drab coloured Breeches, dark worsted Stockings, Shoes fastened with a small Buckle at the Side, and a good round Hat; at that Time his Pockets appeared to be full;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in such an atrocious Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually committed the same) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

LIVERPOOL.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

Whitehall, January 31, 1809.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that, some Time during the Night of Friday the 20th Instant, James Crick, residing in the Parish of Lidlington, near Woburn, in the County of Bedford, and his Housekeeper, Rebecca Rudd, were most inhumanly murdered by some Person or Persons unknown;

The said James Crick had returned Home from Woburn Market about Half-past Five on Friday Evening, his Body was found about Eleven o'Clock on Saturday Morning, near, a Mile from his Home, by a Footpath leading from the Parish of Lidlington; he had received Two Stabs in the Belly, and his Throat had been cut with a sharp Instrument. The Body of the said Rebecca Rudd was found upon the Landing-Place of the Staircase in the House of the said James Crick, with her Throat cut in a Manner nearly similar;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in these atrocious Murders, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually committed the said Murders) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

LIVERPOOL.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by His Grace the Duke of Bedford, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

THESE are to give Notice, that a General Court of the Governors of the Charity for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, will be held at this Office, on Thursday the 23d Instant, in order to choose Two Vice-Presidents and Fifteen Assistants for the Year ensuing.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
December 31, 1808.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give Notice, that at Salters' Hall, in London, on Wednesday the 15th Day of March next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, Woodhall-Mill, with the Ground now therewith occupied, consisting of Eighty Acres and Thirty-one Perches, in the Chapelry of Haydon, and County of Northumberland; and the Fisheries, Fishing Shields, and Appurtenances at Scremerston, and a Dwelling-House and Premises at Tweedmouth, in the Chapelries of Ancroft and Tweedmouth, and County of Durham, will be let on Leases, to commence upon the 12th Day of May 1809, and for the Terms of Years following, that is to say, Woodhall-Mill and Ground for Eighteen Years, and the Fisheries, Fishing Shields, and Dwelling-House for Twelve Years.

Such Persons as may be desirous to take either of the said Estates, are requested to deliver or send their Proposals in Writing to John Dyer, Esq; at Greenwich-Hospital, so as that the Delivery thereof at that Place shall not be later than on Tuesday the 14th Day of March next; and all such Proposals as shall be received after that Day will be returned as inadmissible.

Mr. William Coats, of Haydon-Bridge, will shew the Mill and Ground, and Mr. John Dinning, of Newlands, near Belford, will shew the Dwelling House and Fishing Shields, and the Situation of the Fisheries; and Messrs. Walton and Forster, upon being applied to at their Office in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, will give any further Particulars which it may be proper to require.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
January 21, 1809.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give Notice, that at Salters' Hall, in London, on Wednesday the 15th Day of March next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the following Estates will be let on Lease for Seven, Fourteen, or Twenty-one Years, (as shall be agreed upon,) to commence upon the 12th Day of May 1809, that is to say, Brokenbeugh Colliery, and Limestone Quarry, in the Parish of Warden, and Fell End or Barkham Colliery, and Limestone Quarry, in the Parish of Haltwhistle, and County of Northumberland.

Such Persons as may be desirous to take the said Collieries and Quarries, are requested to deliver or send their Proposals, in Writing, to John Dyer, Esq; at Greenwich-Hospital, so as that the Delivery thereof at that Place shall not be later than on Tuesday the 14th Day of March next; and all such Proposals as shall be received after that Day, will be returned as inadmissible.

The several Persons making Proposals are particularly requested to set forth in their Biddings, the Annual Rents proposed to be paid for Seven, Fourteen, and Twenty-one Years separately.

Messrs. William Coats and William Wardle will shew the Situation of the Limestone Quarries, and Mr. William Wardle will give every Assistance in the Viewing and Examination of the Collieries; the former of which has been lately drained by Means of a complete Water Level communicating with the River Tyne.

Messrs. Walton and Forster, upon being applied to at their Office in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, will give any further Information which it may be proper to require.

Trinity-House, London, Feb. 2, 1809.

THIS Corporation having, in compliance with the Request of a numerous Body of Merchants, Owners and Masters of Ships, caused a Light-House to be erected on the South Stack near Holyhead, Notice is hereby given, that a Triangular revolving Light will be exhibited in the said Light-House on the Night of Thursday the 9th Instant, and constantly attended and kept burning every Night, from Sun-set to Sun-rise, for the Benefit of Navigation.

This Light on the South Stack being a revolving Light, will be readily distinguishable from the Light on the Skerries, which is a Stationary Light, as well as the other Lights in its Vicinity, by observing its Revolution, which is so performed as to shew One of its Three Faces every Two Minutes, Masters of Ships will be able to distinguish it from any other revolving Light on the Coast they might expect to fall in with.

Printed Directions for sailing by this Light will be delivered out to Masters of Ships by the Collectors of the Light Duties in London and at the Out-Ports.
