Copy of a Letter from Captain Worth, of His Majesty's Sloop Helena, dated at Sea, 28th February 1809, to Admiral Young, Commander in Chief at Plymouth, and transmitted by the latter to the Hon. W. W. Pole.

S I R,

I HAVE the Honour to acquaint you, that before Daylight this Morning a suspicious Vessel was seen coming from under the Dodman, and standing for the Convoy under my Protection. The Wind being very light I sent the Boats after her. She proved to be L'Auguste, of St. Maloes, armed with Two Carriage Guns, large Swivels, and Twenty-four Men, out Six Days without making any Captures. She sailed in Company with the Speculator Luggar, of Ten Guns, and Seventy-Men; parted from her Yesterday: the Speculator had that Day captured Two Brigs, which are now in Sight. I lost no Time in dispatching my First Lieutenant, who was in Charge of a fast-sailing Brig which I had previously captured, after one, and the Master, with a sufficient Number of Men, in the Privateer, after the other.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

J. A. WORTH.
