Navy Pay-Office, March 25, 1809.
Prize Agency.

Information having been received at this Office, that, in direct Disobedience to the Act of Parliament, 45 George 3. Chap. 72. Payments of Prize-Money have been made by Prize Agents, residing as well in Great Britain as in Foreign Parts, to various Individuals before the general Distribution to the Companies of His Majesty's Ships of War, and without advertising the said Payments, or communicating to the Treasurer or Paymaster of His Majesty's Navy the Amount of an individual Share in each Class, in conformity to the said Act; Notice is hereby given, that, if any such Irregularities shall take place in future, the Parties offending will be immediately prosecuted, in order that the Penalties imposed by the said Act may be levied. And as all Persons residing abroad who transact Prize Agency are, or ought to be, acquainted with the Duties they have to perform, no alleged Ignorance of the Provisions of the Act, or of this Notice, will be admitted as a Reason for stopping the Prosecution.

John Smith, Paymaster.
