GENERAL MEMORANDUM.

I HAVE great Satisfaction in announcing to the Squadron the Surrender of the Fort Bourbon, which Event was finally concluded, and the Terms of Capitulation ratified, on Friday Night; and Yesterday the British Troops marched in, and took Possession of the principal Defences of that Fortrefs; by which the Sovereignty of this important Island has been secured to Great Britain.

When I reflect on the Labour and Difficulties the Commodore, the several Captains and Officers, Petty-Officers, Seamen and Marines, have encountered, and on the short Time in which this Service has been accomplished, I am impressed with the highest Sense of their Perseverance and Courage; and I shall not fail to report the same to my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

I have also viewed with Admiration the Bravery and Discipline of the Army; but British Troops, led on by such Officers as we have had the Happiness of serving with in the Reduction of this Island, are invincible; and it is with no little Pride I have witnessed the Cordiality which has so uninterruptedly subsisted between the Land and Sea Forces, which, on all combined Expeditions, is the surest Means of leading to Success.

I request that Commodore Cockburn and the several Captains will do me the Honour to accept my warmest Thanks for their Exertions, also the other Officers and Petty-Officers, Seamen, and Marines; and that the Captains will communicate the same to the latter in a suitable Manner.

(Signed) ALEX. COCHRANE.

Copy of a Letter from Captain George M'Kinley, of His Majesty's Ship Lively, to the Honourable W. W. Pole, dated on board that Ship, Vigo, the 29th of March 1809.

SIR,

AS I have thought it of Importance that my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty should have the earliest Intelligence of the Surrender of Vigo, I have dispatched Mr. T. Furber, Senior Lieutenant of this Ship, (in a Vessel hired for the Purpose,) with a Copy of my Letter on that Subject to the Honourable Vice-Admiral Berkeley.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

GEORGE M'KINLEY.

SIR, Lively, Vigo, March 29, 1809.

IN consequence of a Letter I received at Villagarcia from Captain Crawford, of the Venus, off Vigo, informing me that the Loyal Peasantry were in considerable Force around the Castle and Town of Vigo, and that the Presence of another Frigate would very much contribute to the Surrender of that Fortrefs, I joined him on the Evening of the 23d Instant.

The next Morning I went to the Head-Quarters of Don João de Almada de Souza e Silva, who commanded the Patriots. At the Instant, a Summons was sent to the Governor of Vigo to surrender at Discretion, which led to a Negotiation between him and the French, which continued till the 26th, when Don Pablo Murillo, commanding a regular Force of Fifteen Hundred Men, composed of retired Soldiers in this Province, arrived, and sent in a Summons to surrender. In consequence of which, on the following Day, the Proposals (No. 1.) were brought on board by Don Pablo Murillo, accompanied by
