And His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, is further pleased to order, and doth hereby order, that notwithstanding any Thing hereinbefore contained, the said Permission and Authority to import and export shall cease and determine, or be varied and altered, before the Expiration of the abovementioned Period of Twelve Months, at the Expiration of Six Months after the Notification, in the London Gazette, of any Order of His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, for revoking, varying, or altering such Permission and Authority, or shall cease and determine at the Expiration of Six Months after the Ratification of a definitive Treaty of Peace. *Steph. The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, during the present War, to make Regulations respecting the Trade and Commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope," it is enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from Time to Time, to give such Directions, and make such Regulations touching the Trade and Commerce to and from the said Settlement, and the Territories and Dependencies thereof, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any Thing contained in an Act, passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation;" or in an Act, passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuses in the Plantation Trade;" or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, relating to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations; or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty is hereby pleased to order, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by the above-recited Act, and it is hereby ordered, that it shall be lawful, until further Order, for all Ships and Vessels belonging to the Subjects of any Country or State in Amity with His Majesty, to enter into the Ports of the said Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof; and to carry on Trade and Traffic with the Inhabitants of the said Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof; and to import and export to and from the Ports of the said Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize whatsoever, subject to the following Exceptions, Duties, Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions; that is to say, It shall and may be lawful for the Governor of the said Settlement, and of the Territories or Dependencies thereof, for the Time being, to impose on all Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, not of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland, which shall be imported into the said Settlement, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, from any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, after due Notice to be given by the Governor of the said Settlement as hereinafter directed, a Duty, not exceeding Fifteen per Cent. on the Value thereof; such Duty to be rated and collected in the same Manner as is in Use with Regard to the Import Duty now levied at the said Settlement, and the Territories and Dependencies thereof, from and in Ships and Vessels belonging to the Subjects of Countries and States in Amity with His Majesty, and upon the Goods and Merchandize imported in the same; provided always, that the Time of the Commencement of such

Duty shall be fixed in the Proclamation, or other lawful Instrument which shall be made and issued by the said Governor for the Purpose of imposing such Duty, which Time shall not be less than Six Months from the Day of issuing such Proclamation or other lawful Instrument; and provided also, that the Rate of Duty imposed on the Importation of Goods (not the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland) from any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, when so imported in British-built Vessels, owned and navigated according to Law, shall in no Case be so high as that which shall be imposed on the like Goods so imported in the Vessels of Foreign States.

And it is His Majesty's Pleasure, that no Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the Countries to the Eastward of the Cape of Good Hope; be imported into the said Settlement, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, except by the United Company of Merchants trading to the East Indies; and that no such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize be permitted to be exported from thence, except for Sea Stores only, or by the United Company of Merchants trading to the East Indies, or by their Licence.

But it is His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing in this Order contained shall extend to prevent Ships or Vessels employed in the Southern Whale Fishery from carrying on the same, in such and the same Manner as might have been done if this Order had not been made.

And it is also His Majesty's Pleasure, that no Arms, or Artillery, Gunpowder, or Ammunition of any Sort, be allowed to be imported into the said Settlement, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, except by the said United Company of Merchants in England trading to the East Indies, or by Licence from His Majesty.

And it is His Majesty's further Pleasure, that the Trade and Commerce to and from the said Settlement, and the Territories and Dependencies thereof, shall be subject to such of the Laws of Trade and Navigation as would have affected the same if this Order had not been made, except so far as such Laws are contrary to this present Order.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint Hugh Elliot, Esq; to be Captain-General and Governor in Chief of His Majesty's Leeward Charibbee Islands in America, he this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Governor of His Majesty's Plantations.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 15, 1809.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Drawing-Room at St. James's, advertised for Thursday the 20th Instant, is put off till further Orders.

Admiralty Office, April 15, 1809.

CAPTAIN JAMES LUCAS YEO, of His Majesty's Ship the Confiance, has, with his Letter dated at Cayenne, the 9th February last, transmitted to the Honourable William Wellesley Pole Copies of his Letters to Rear-Admiral Sir William Sidney Smith, detailing his Proceedings in the Expedition against the above Settlement.

Having, in Conjunction with the Portuguese Land Forces under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Manoel Marques, taken Possession, on the 8th December last, of the District of Oyapok, and on the 15th of the same Month, with the Confiance and a Portuguese Sloop and Cutter, reduced that of Approaque; Captain Yeo, together with the Lieutenant-Colonel, proceeded to the Attack of the Island of Cayenne with the Confiance, Two Portuguese Sloops, and some smaller Vessels, having on board Five Hundred and Fifty Portuguese Troops; the following is a Copy of Captain Yeo's Letter on this Subject.

His Majesty's Ship Confiance, Cayenne Harbour, SIR, 15th January 1809.

MY last Letters to you of the 26th Ult. informed you of the Arrival of the Portuguese Troops at Approaque. On the 4th Inst. it was determined by Lieutenant-Colonel Manoel Marques and myself to make a Descent on the East Side of the Island of Cayenne. Accordingly all the Troops were embarked on board the small Vessels, amounting to Five Hundred and Fifty, and Eighty Seamen and Marines from the Confiance, and a Party of Marines from the Voador and Infante Brigs. On the Morning of the 6th all dropt into the Mouth of the River. In the Evening I proceeded with Ten Canoes and about Two Hundred and Fifty Men, to endeavour to gain Possession of Two Batteries; the one, Fort Diamant, which commands the Entrance of the River Mahuree, the other, Grand Cane, commanding the great Road to the Town of Cayenne. The Vessels, with the Remainder of the Troops, I entrusted to Captain Salgado of the Voador, with Orders to follow me after Dark, to anchor in the Mouth of the River Mahuree, and wait until I gained the beforementioned Batteries, when, on my making the Signal agreed on, he was to enter the River and disembark with all possible Dispatch. I reached Point Mahuree at Three o'Clock next Morning with Five Canoes; the others being heavy could not keep up. We then landed in a Bay half Way between the Two Batteries. The Surge was so great that our Boats soon went to Pieces. I ordered Major Joaquim Manoel Pinto, with a Detachment of Portuguese Troops, to proceed to the Left, and take Grand Cane; while myself, accompanied by Lieutenants Mulcaster, Blyth, and Read, (of the Royal Marines) Messrs. Savory, William Taylor, Forder, and Irwin proceeded to the Right with a Party of the Confiance's, to take Fort Diamant, which was soon in our Possession, mounting Two Twenty-four and One Brafs Nine-Pounder, and Fifty Men. I am sorry to add that Lieutenant John Read of the Royal Marines, a meritorious young Officer, was mortally wounded, as also One Seaman and Five Marines badly. The French Captain and Commandant, with Three Soldiers, killed, and Four wounded. The Major had the same Success: the Fort mounting Two Brafs Nine-Pounders and Forty Men: Two of the Enemy were killed. The Entrance of the River being in our Possession, the Signal agreed on was made, and by Noon all were disembarked. At the same Time I received Information of General Victor Hugues having quitted Cayenne at the Head of a Thousand Troops to dispossess us of our Posts. Our Force being too small to be divided, and the Distance between the Two Posts being great, and only Twelve Miles from Cayenne, it was determined to dismantle Fort Diamant, and collect all our Forces at Grand Cane. I therefore left my First Lieutenant, Mr. Mulcaster, with a Party of the Confiance's, to perform that Service, and then join me. On arriving at Grand Cane I perceived Two other Batteries about a Mile up the River, on opposite Sides, and within Half Gun-shot of each other; the one on the Right Bank called Treo, on an Eminence commanding the Creek leading to Cayenne; the other, at the opposite Side, at the Entrance of the Creek leading to the House and Plantation of General Victor Hugues, and evidently erected for no other Purpose than its Defence. At Three o'Clock I anchored the Lion and Vinganza Cutters abreast of them, when a smart Action commenced on both Sides for an Hour; when finding the Enemy's Metal and Position so superior to ours, the Cutters having only Four-Pounders, and many of our Men falling from the incessant Shower of Grape Shot, I determined to storm them, and therefore directed Mr. Savory (the Purser) to accompany a Party of Portuguese to land at General Hugues' Battery; at the same Time proceeding myself, accompanied by Lieutenant Blyth, my Gig's Crew, and a Party of Portuguese Troops, to that of Treo; and though both Parties had to land at the very Muzzles of the Guns keeping up a continual Fire of Grape and Musketry, the cool Bravery of the Men soon carried them, and put the Enemy to Flight; each Fort mounted Two Brafs Nine-Pounders and Fifty Men. This Service was scarcely accomplished before the French Troops from Cayenne attacked the Colonel at Grand Cane. Our Force then much dispersed, I therefore, without waiting an Instant, ordered every Body to the Boats, and proceeded to the Aid of the Colonel, who, with his small Force, had withstood the Enemy, and after a smart Action of Three Hours, they retreated to Cayenne. At the same Time, Two Hundred and Fifty of the Enemy appeared before Fort Diamant; but perceiving Lieutenant Mulcaster prepared to receive them, and imagining his Force much greater than it was, they, on hearing the Defeat of their General, followed his Example. There was yet the strongest Post of the Enemy's to be taken, which was the private House of General Victor Hugues; he had, besides the Fort abovementioned, planted before his House a Field-Piece and a Swivel, with an

Hundred of his best Troops. It is situated on the Main, between Two and Three Miles in the Interior, at the End of an Avenue the same Length from the River; on the Right of which is a thick Wood, and on the Left the Creek Foulle. I have also to remark, that there is nothing near appertaining to Government, or for the Defence of the Colony. On the Morning of the 8th I proceeded, accompanied by Lieutenant Mulcafter, Messrs. Savory and Forder, with some Seamen and Marines of the Confidence, and a Party of Portuguese Troops, with a Field-Piece, to take the said Post; but as my only Object was to take the Troops Prisoners, by which the Garrison of Cayenne would be much weakened, I dispatched Lieutenant Mulcafter in my Gig with a Flag of Truce, to acquaint the Officer commanding, that my only Object was to take the Post, for which I had Force sufficient; and though I might lose some Men in taking it, there could be no Doubt as to the Result; I therefore requested, for the Sake of Humanity, he would not attempt to defend a Place not tenable, but that I was determined, if he made a useless Resistance in defending a private Habitation, against which I gave him my Honour no Harm was intended, I should consider it as a Fortress, and would level it to the Ground. The Enemy's Advanced Guard allowed the Flag of Truce to approach them within a Boat's Length, then fired Two Volleys at them, and retreated. I then landed; but reflecting it was possible this Outrage was committed from the Ignorance of an inferior Officer, I sent Lieutenant Mulcafter a second Time, when, on his approaching the House, they fired the Field-Piece at him. Finding all Communication that Way ineffectual, yet wishing to preserve the private Property of a General Officer, who was perhaps ignorant and innocent of his Officer's Conduct, I sent one of the General's Slaves to the Officer with the same Message, who returned with an Answer that any Thing I had to communicate must be in Writing; at the same Instant he fired his Field-Piece as a Signal to his Troops, who were in Ambush on our Right in the Wood, to fire, keeping up a steady and well-directed Fire from his Field-Piece at the House. It was my Intention to have advanced with my Field-Piece; but finding he had made several Fosses in the Road, and the Wood being lined with Musketry, not a Man of whom we could see, and the Field-Piece in Front, I ordered ours to be thrown into a Fosse, when our Men, with Cheers, advanced with Pike and Bayonet, took the Enemy's Gun; they retreated into the House, and kept up a smart Fire from the Windows; but on our entering they flew through the back Premises into the Wood, firing as they retreated. Every Thing was levelled with the Ground except the Habitations of the Slaves. As we received Information that about Four Hundred of the Enemy were about to take Possession of Beauregard Plain, on an Eminence which commands the several Roads to and from Cayenne, it was determined between the Lieutenant-Colonel and myself to be beforehand with the Enemy, and march our whole Force there direct. We gained the Situation on the Enemy of the 9th, and on the 10th Lieutenant Mulcafter and a Portuguese Officer, (Lieutenant Bernardo Mikillis,) were sent into the Town with a Summons (No. 1.) to the General. In the Evening these Officers returned, accompanied by Victor Hugues' Aide-de-Camp, requesting an Armistice for 24 Hours to arrange the Articles of Capitulation; this being granted, and Hostages exchanged, on the 11th the Lieutenant-Colonel and myself met the General, and partly arranged the Articles; a second Meeting on the Morning of the 12th finally fixed them, (No. 2) and on the Morning of the 14th, the Portuguese Troops and British Seamen and Marines marched into Cayenne, and took Possession of the Town; the Enemy, amounting to Four Hundred, laid down their Arms on the Parade, and were immediately embarked on board the several Vessels belonging to the Expedition; at the same Time, the Militia, amounting to Six Hundred, together with Two Hundred Blacks, who had been incorporated with the Regular Troops, delivered in their Arms.

It is with Pleasure I observe, that throughout the Expedition the utmost Unanimity has prevailed between the Portuguese and British, and I have myself experienced the most friendly Intercourse with Lieutenant-Colonel Manoel Marques.

The Conduct of Captain Salgado of the Voader in the Post I assigned him was that of a zealous and energetic Officer, and I feel I should do him an Injustice were I to withhold my Testimony of his Merit. I must also acknowledge with Satisfaction the Services of Lieutenant Joze Pedro Schultz, who landed the Voader's Marines, and indeed every Individual belonging to the Portuguese Squadron.

It has always been with the highest Gratification to my Feelings, that I have had to mention the good Conduct of the Officers, Seamen, and Marines of the Ship I have the Honour to command, but during the whole Course of my Service I have never witnessed such persevering Resolution as they have displayed from the Commencement of the Campaign to the Reduction of Cayenne.

To my First Lieutenant Mr. William Howe Mulcafter I feel myself principally indebted for the very able Support I have received from him throughout, though it was no more than I expected from an Officer of his known Merit in the Service.

Lieutenant Samuel Blyth continued his Exertions, notwithstanding his Wounds, and the Assistance I derived from his active Intrepidity can never be forgotten.

I must here pay a Tribute to the Memory of a very zealous and gallant young Officer, the late Lieutenant John Read, of the Royal Marines. His Conduct was always exemplary, and whenever we landed, his Exertions were most strenuous. He was mortally wounded, as before-observed, in leading the Marines into Fort Diamant. His Memory will long be cherished by his Brother Officers.

To Mr. Thomas Savory (the Purser), who has made himself remarkably useful on various Occasions, and who, from my having so few Officers on so detached a Service as this has been, was of the greatest Utility to me, I feel myself much indebted.

Mr. James Larque (Master's Mate), to whom I gave Charge of the Gun-Boat No. 1, conducted her much to my Satisfaction; and James Thompson (Gunner's Mate), who had Charge of the Gun-Boat No. 2, is entitled to an equal Share of Commendation.

To Messrs. William Taylor (Carpenter), George Forder, and David Irvin, Midshipmen, Mr. Thomas Silvester, Assistant-Surgeon, who gave particular Attention to the Wounded, my warmest Thanks are due.

It is but just that I should take Notice of the Exertions of Mr. J. Acott (acting) Master, who has passed for Lieutenant, whom I left in Charge of the Ship, and who proved himself worthy of the Confidence reposed in him. The Topaze French Frigate appeared in the Offing on the 13th, with a Reinforcement for the Garrison, though with only Twenty-five Englishmen and Twenty Negroes, and no other Officers than Two young Gentlemen, Messrs. George Yeo and Edward Bryant, he contrived by his skilful Manœuvres to drive her off the Coast.

As to the Seamen and Marines, all Praise I can bestow falls short of their Merit; from the 15th December they never slept in their Beds; the Weather was constantly both boisterous and rainy; the Roads almost impassable; and from the Time we landed until the Surrender of the Place they had not the least Cessation from Fatigue.

I have the Honour to inclose a Statement of the Killed and Wounded on board the Confidence (Twenty-four); also a List of the Returns of Ordnance, Stores, &c. The Portuguese Land and Sea Forces, One killed and Eight wounded; French, One Captain and Fifteen Privates killed, and Twenty wounded.

I have now, Sir, the Happiness to congratulate you on the final Success of the Expedition, and I trust the Steps I have taken will insure me your Approbation.

I am, &c. JAMES LUCAS YEO.

To Rear-Admiral Sir William Sidney Smith, K. S.

Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

CAPITULATION, proposed by Victor Hugues, Officer of the Legion of Honour, Commander of His Majesty the Emperor and King, Commander in Chief of Cayenne and French Guyana, and accepted by James Lucas Yeo, Post Captain in His Britannic Majesty's Service, commanding the Combined Naval English and Portuguese Forces, and Manuel Marques, Knight of the Military Order of Saint Benoit d'Avis, Lieutenant-Colonel in Chief and Director of the Corps of Artillery of Para, commanding the advanced Army of the Portuguese.

ALTHOUGH the advanced Posts have been carried, and that the Commissioner of the Emperor and King is reduced with his Garrison to the Town, he owes it to those Sentiments of Honour which have always distinguished him, to the Valour and good Conduct of the Officers and Soldiers under his Command, to the Attachment of the Inhabitants of the Colony for His Majesty the Emperor and King, to declare publicly, that he surrenders less to the Force than to the destructive System of liberating all the Slaves who should join the Enemy, and of burning all the Plantations and Ports where there should be any Resistance.

The Commissioner of the Emperor commanding in Chief, after having witnessed the burning of several Plantations, particularly his own, the most considerable of the Colony, had attributed it at first to the Casualties of War, and the Disorganization of the Gangs, and the Liberation of the Slaves appeared to him a momentary Nuisance; but being assured in Writing that the English and Portuguese Officers acted in virtue of the Orders of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, and in wishing to save the Colony from total Destruction, and to preserve his august Master's Subjects, who had given him so many Proofs of their Attachment and Fidelity, the Commissioner of His Imperial and Royal Majesty surrenders the Colony to the Forces of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent on the following Conditions:

Article I. The Garrison shall march out with their Arms and Baggage, and all the Honours of War; the Officers shall retain their Side Arms, and those of the Staff their Horses. The Garrison shall lay down their Arms, and engage not to serve against His Royal Highness and His Allies during one Year.

II. Vessels shall be furnished at the Expence of His Highness the Prince Regent, to carry the Garrison, the Officers Civil and Military, and all those employed in the Service, with their Families and Effects, direct to France with as little Delay as possible.

III. A convenient Vessel shall be furnished to convey to France the Commissioner of the Emperor commanding in Chief, his Family, his Officers, his Suite, and Effects, the Chief of the Administration of Finances, the Commander of the Troops, the Inspector, and the Commandant of the Artillery, with their Families.

IV. A convenient Delay shall be granted to the Officers who have Property in the Colony to settle their Affairs.

V. The Arsenals, Batteries, and every Thing belonging to the Artillery, the small Arms and Powder Magazines, and the Provision Stores, shall be given up by Inventory, and in the State in which they now are, and the same shall be pointed out.

VI. The Slaves on both Sides shall be disarmed and sent to their respective Plantations. The French Negroes whom the Commanders by Sea and Land of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent have engaged for the Service during the War, and to whom, in virtue of their Orders, they have given their Freedom, shall be sent out of the Colony, as they can only remain there in future an Object of Trouble and Dissension. The Commanders engage, as they have promised, to solicit of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent the replacing of those Slaves, or an Indemnity in favour of the Inhabitants to whom they belong.

VII. The Papers, Plans, and other Articles belonging to the Engineer Department, shall be equally given up.

VIII. The Sick and Wounded who are obliged to remain in the Colony may leave it, with all that belongs to them, as soon as they are in a Situation to do so; in the mean Time they shall be treated as they have been hitherto.

IX. Private Property, of whatsoever Nature or Description, shall be respected, and the Inhabitants may dispose of it as heretofore.

X. The Inhabitants of the Colony shall preserve their Properties, and reside there, conforming to the Orders and Forms established by the Sovereign under which they remain; they shall be at Liberty to sell their Properties and retire wherever it may suit them, without any Obstacle.

XI. The Civil Laws, known in France under the Title of the Napoléon Code, and in Force in the Colony, shall be observed and executed until the Peace between the Two Nations; the Magistrates shall only decide on the Interests of Individuals and Differences connected with them in virtue of the said Laws.

XII. The Debts acknowledged by Individuals during or previous to the Time fixed by the preceding Article, shall be exacted agreeably to the Basis determined by the same Article.

XIII. The Papers concerning the Controul and Matriculation of the Troops shall be carried away by the Quarter-Master.

XIV. Desirous of preserving the Spice Plantation called La Gabrielle in all its Splendour and Agriculture, it is stipulated that neither it nor any of the Plantation Trees or Plants shall be destroyed, but that it shall be preserved in the State in which it is given up to the Commanders of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent.

XV. All the Papers of the Stores, of Inspection, of the Customs, or of any Responsibility whatever, shall be deposited in the Secretaries' Office, or in any other Place that may be agreed on to be referred to when there is Occasion: the Whole shall be under the Seal of the Two Governments, and at the Disposal of His Imperial and Royal Majesty.

XVI. The present Capitulation shall be written in the Three Languages, and signed by the Three Officers stipulating.

At the advanced Posts of Bourde, this 12th January 1809.

(Signed) VICTOR HUGUES.

Admiralty-Office, April 15, 1809.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Young, Commander in Chief at Plymouth, to the Hon. W. W. Pole, dated the 13th Instant.

SIR,

I HAVE great Pleasure in transmitting, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Copy of a Letter from Captain Seymour, of His Majesty's Ship Amethyst, to Admiral Lord Gambier, giving his Lordship an Account of the Amethyst having taken another of the Enemy's Frigates. I am, &c. W. YOUNG.

MY LORD, Amethyst, off Ushant, April 12, 1809.

I HAVE very sincere Pleasure in acquainting you of the Capture of Le Niemen, a fine new French Frigate of Forty-four Guns, Twenty-eight of which are Eighteen Pounders on the main Deck, and Three Hundred and Nineteen Men, Copper fastened, Two Days from Verdun Roads, with Six Months Provisions and Naval Stores on board, and bound to the Isle of France, commanded by Mons. Dupotet, Capitaine de Frigate, a distinguished Officer, who defended his Ship with great Ability and Resolution.

At Eleven in the Forenoon of the 5th Instant, the Wind at East, Emerald North within Signal Distance, Cordovan bearing E. by N. 42 Leagues, a Ship was perceived in the E. S. E. coming down, steering to the Westward; which hauled to the S. S. E. on making us out. She was immediately chased, but at Twenty Minutes past Seven we lost Sight of her and the Emerald, and had not gained on the Chace.

After Dark the Amethyst's Course was shaped to meet the probable Route of an Enemy, which, at Half past Nine, we crossed One, but though within Half Gun-Shot at Eleven, from which Time till One the Bow and the Stern Chasers were exchanging, her extraordinary sailing prevented our effecting any Thing serious. From One till past Three A. M. on the 6th, the Action was severe, after which the Enemy's Main and Mizzenmasts fell, his Fire became faint, was just silenced, while ours continued as lively as ever, when the Arethusa appeared, and on her firing, he immediately made a Signal of having surrendered, and proved to be the same Frigate recommended to my Notice in your Lordship's Order of the 9th Ultimo. She fell on board us once in the Contest; she had Forty-seven killed and Seventy-three wounded. The Main and Mizzenmasts of the Amethyst fell at the Close of the Action, and she had Eight killed and Thirty-seven wounded.

To render just Praise to the brave and admirable Conduct of every Officer and Man of this Ship's Company (of whom Two Officers and Thirty-seven Men were absent in Prizes, the Prisoners from which, Sixty-nine, were on board), I am perfectly unequal. The great Exertions and Experience of the First Lieutenant, Mr. William Hill, and Mr. Robert Fair, the Master, I am particularly indebted for. Lieutenants Waring and Prytherch, of the Royal Marines, deserve my best Thanks.

The Prize's Foremast fell next Day, and I left her in tow of the Arethusa, who afforded us in every Instance the most prompt Assistance; and by Captain Mend's Desire I write.

In justice to a most vigilant Officer, I have to observe, that from the Emerald's Situation, even Captain Maitland's Skill would not avail him in getting up to the Enemy, and the Darkness and squally Weather in the early Part of the Night precluded all Hope of his keeping Sight of the Amethyst.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

M. SEYMOUR.
