

above mentioned soon after joined in the Attack upon the Ville de Varfovie and Aquilon, and obliged them, before Five o'Clock, after sustaining a heavy Cannonade, to strike their Colours, when they were taken Possession of by the Boats of the advanced Squadron. As soon as the Prisoners were removed, they were set on Fire, as was also the Tonnerre, a short Time after by the Enemy.

I afterwards detached Rear-Admiral the Honourable Robert Stopford in the Cæsar with the Thefeus, three additional Fire Ships (which were hastily prepared in the Course of the Day), and all the Boats of the Fleet, with Mr. Congreve's Rockets, to conduct the further Operations of the Night against any of the Ships which lay exposed to an Attack. On the Morning of the 13th, the Rear-Admiral reported to me, that as the Cæsar and other Line of Battle Ships had grounded and were in a dangerous Situation, he thought it advisable to order them all out, particularly as the remaining Part of the Service could be performed by Frigates and small Vessels only; and, I was happy to find that they were extricated from their perilous Situation.

Captain Bligh has since informed me, that it was found impracticable to destroy the Three-decked Ship, and the others which were lying near the Entrance of the Charente, as the former, being the outer one, was protected by Three Lines of Boats placed in advance from her.

This Ship and all the others, except Four of the Line and a Frigate, have now moved up the River Charente. If any further Attempt to destroy them is practicable, I shall not fail to use every Means in my Power to accomplish it.

I have great Satisfaction in stating to their Lordships how much I feel obliged to the zealous Co-operation of Rear-Admiral Stopford, under whose Arrangement the Boats of the Fleet were placed; and I must also express to their Lordships the high Sense I have of the Assistance I received from the Abilities and unremitting Attention of Sir Harry Neale, Bart. the Captain of the Fleet, as well as of the animated Exertions of the Captains, Officers, Seamen, and Marines under my Command, and their Forwardness to volunteer upon any Service that might be allotted to them; particularly the Zeal and Activity shewn by the Captains of Line of Battle Ships in preparing the Fire Vessels.

I cannot speak in sufficient Terms of Admiration and Applause, of the vigorous and gallant Attack made by Lord Cochrane upon the French Line of Battle Ships which were on Shore, as well as of his judicious Manner of approaching them, and placing his Ship in the Position most advantageous to annoy the Enemy, and preserve his own Ship; which could not be exceeded by any Feat of Valour hitherto achieved by the British Navy.

It is due to Rear-Admiral Stopford, and Sir Harry Neale, that I should heretake the Opportunity of acquainting their Lordships of the handsome and earnest Manner in which both these meritorious Officers had volunteered their Services before the Arrival of Lord Cochrane to undertake an Attack upon the Enemy with Fire Ships; and that, had not their Lordships fixed upon him to conduct the Enterprize, I have full Confidence that the Result of their Efforts would have been highly creditable to them.

I should feel that I did not do Justice to the Services of Captain Godfred of the Ætna; in bombarding the Enemy's Ships on the 12th, and nearly all the Day of the 13th, if I did not recommend him, to their Lordships' Notice; and I cannot omit bearing due Testimony to the anxious Desire expressed by Mr. Congreve to be employed wherever I might conceive his Services in the Management of his Rockets would be useful; some of them were placed in the Fire Ships with Effect, and I have every Reason to be satisfied with the Artillerymen and others who had the Management of them, under Mr. Congreve's Direction.

I send herewith a Return of the Killed, Wounded, and Missing of the Fleet, which, I am happy to observe, is comparatively small. I have not yet received the Returns of the Number of Prisoners taken, but I conceive they amount to between Four and Five Hundred.

I have charged Sir Harry Neale with this Dispatch (by the Imperieuse) and I beg Leave to refer their Lordships to him, as also to Lord Cochrane, for any further Particulars of which they may wish to be informed.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

GAMBIER.

15th April.

P. S. This Morning Three of the Enemy's Line of Battle Ships are observed to be still on Shore under Fouras, and One of them is in a dangerous Situation. One of their Frigates (L'Indienne), also on Shore, has fallen over, and they are now dismantling her. As the Tides will take off in a Day or Two, there is every Probability that she will be destroyed.

Since writing the foregoing, I have learnt that the Honourable Lieutenant-Colonel Cochrane (Lord Cochrane's Brother) and Lieutenant Bissett of the Navy, were Volunteers in the Imperieuse, and rendered themselves extremely useful, the former by commanding some of her Guns on the Main Deck, and the latter in conducting one of the Explosion Vessels.

Names of the Ships in Aix Roads, previous to the Attack on the 11th April 1809.

L'Océan, 120 Guns, Vice-Admiral Allemande, Captain Roland.—Repaired in 1806; on Shore under Fouras.

Foudroyant, 80 Guns, Rear-Admiral Gourdon, Captain Henri.—Five Years old; on Shore under Fouras.

Cassard, 74 Guns, Captain Faure, Commodore.—Three Years old; on Shore under Fouras.

Tourville, 74 Guns, Captain La-Caille.—Old; on Shore in the River.

Regulus, 74 Guns, Captain Lucas.—Five Years old; on Shore under Madame.

Patriote, 74 Guns, Captain Mahée.—Repaired in 1803.

Jemappe, 74 Guns, Captain Fauvau.—On Shore under Madame.

Tonnerre, 74 Guns, Captain Clement de la Rouchiere.—Nine Months old, never at Sea.

Aquilon, 74 Guns, Captain Maingon.—Old.

Ville de Varfovie, 80 Guns, Captain Guvillier.—New, never at Sea.
