From Saturday April 29, to Tuesday May 2, 1809.

AT the Council-Chamber Whitehall, the 29th of April 1809,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by Order in Council, bearing Date the Eighteenth of this instant April, it was, among other Things, directed that all Ships and Vessels coming from or having touched at the Ports of Stockholm and Carlscrona, or any other Port of Sweden, should come to Anchor at such Place and Places as should be appointed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, in order that the State of Health of the Crew and Persons on board such Ships and Vessels should be duly examined into and ascertained prior to such Ships and Vessels being permitted to enter their Ports of Destination; and that in certain Cases mentioned in the said Order, all such Ships and Vessels, with their Cargoes and Persons on board, should perform a Quarantine of Fifteen Days: And whereas it has been represented to this Board, that the Fever of a contagious Description, which had prevailed in the Ports of Stockholm and Carlscrona during some Part of the last Winter, had never manifested itself at Gottenburgh or other Ports of Sweden, except the Ports of Stockholm and Carlscrona, it is hereby ordered in Council, that the Precautions and Regulations contained in the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Eighteenth of this instant, be revoked (and they are hereby revoked) so far as respects all Ships and Vessels which are arrived, or may arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, from any of the Ports of Sweden, except from the Ports of Stockholm and Carlscrona.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque

Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the said Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Council-Chamber Whitehall, the 18th of April 1809,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Forty-fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for making further Provision for the effectual Performance of Quarantine," it is among other Things enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or any Three or more of them, to make such Order as they shall see necessary and expedient upon any unforeseen Emergency, or in any particular Case or Cases with respect to any Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels arriving and having any infectious Disease or Distemper on board, or on board of which any infectious Disease or Distemper may have appeared in the Course of the Voyage, or arriving under any other alarming or suspicious Circumstances as to Infection, although such Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels shall not have come from any Place or Places from which His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, by and with the Advice of His or Their Privy Council, may have adjudged and declared it probable that the Plague, or any such infectious Disease or Distemper may be brought, and also with respect to the Persons, Goods, Wares, and Merchandize on board the same; and all such Orders so made by the Lords or others of the Privy Council, or any Three or more of them as aforesaid, shall be as good, valid, and effectual to all Intents and Purposes (as well with respect to the Commander, Master, or other Person having the Charge of any such Ship or Vessel, and all other Persons on board the same, as with respect to any other Persons having any Intercourse or Communication with them,
