

Stamp-Office, May 12, 1809.

Whereas, in pursuance of a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the Forty-eighth Year of the Reign of our present Lord the King, intituled "An Act for granting to His Majesty a certain Sum of Money to be raised by Lotteries," Francis Hornsby and William Wakefield, of No. 412, Strand, in the County of Middlesex, Lottery-Office-Keepers, did, on the 1st Day of April 1809, receive a Licence from the Commissioners for managing the Duties upon Stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, for the Time being in England, to divide Lottery Tickets into Shares, and to issue such Chances as by the said Act are permitted to be issued, and to register the Numbers of any Tickets in the Lotteries authorised by the said Act, at their House or Place situate at No. 412, Strand aforesaid, which Licence was to continue in Force till after the Expiration of the Drawing of the last of the Lotteries to be drawn under the Authority of the said Act; and whereas it is by the said Act directed, that all and every Persons and Person to whom such Licence or Licences should be granted in Great Britain, pursuant to the said Act, should deposit at some Office or Place at or in the Head Office of the said Commissioners in London, appointed and established by the said Commissioners for that Purpose, Thirty whole undrawn Tickets in each of the Lotteries to be established by the said Act, for every such Licence granted to him, her, or them, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act; and that every such Licence, for which no Deposit should be made, should be void and of no Effect; and that every Person acting under any such Licence in any of the Matters therein contained, after such Default made, should be adjudged and considered in every Respect as an unlicensed Person; and that it should be lawful for the said Commissioners upon every such Default, to cause to be published the Names and Places of Abode, and the Description of the Office, of such Persons or Person making such Default as aforesaid, in the London Gazette, and to declare therein the Time when such Default was made, and that such Forfeiture should take place from the Time of such Publication; and whereas the Drawing of the second of the said Lotteries in the said Act mentioned, being the next of the said Lotteries after the granting of the said Licence to the said Francis Hornsby and William Wakefield, began on the 12th Day of April now last past, and ended on the 29th Day of April now last past, the said Commissioners do therefore hereby give Notice and declare, that the said Francis Hornsby and William Wakefield, of No. 412, Strand, in the County of Middlesex aforesaid, Lottery-Office-Keepers, did not before or on the said 12th Day of April now last past, nor at any Time since, deposit at the Office or Place at or in the Head Office of the said Commissioners in London, appointed and established by the said Commissioners for such Deposit, Thirty whole undrawn Tickets in the said Second Lottery so drawn by virtue of the said Act, but wholly neglected so to do; and that they the said Francis Hornsby and William Wakefield have thereby forfeited their said Licence.

By Order of the Commissioners of Stamp Duties,
C. E. Beresford, Secretary.
