The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday June 16. to Wonday June 29. 1681.

Strasburg, Fund 10.

The French will have two Flying Camps this Summer, the one near the Rhine, and the other on the Saar, and their Troops are marching for that purpose. In the mean time they continue to work on the Fortifications they are making with all the diligence possible.

Hague, June 20. Their Highnesses came hi her the 17th Instant in the Morning, but returned again in the Evening to Honflaerdike, where they still conti-The Elector of Brandenburg has again affored the States-General, that he will take care that their Subjects shall not receive the least disturbance in their Trade by his Frigats. His Electoral Highnes-ses Minister here, the Heer Van Diest, intends to go and wait upon his Electoral Highness at Piermont The Letters we receive from Spain tell us, That the King had approved of what the Duke de Giovinazzo, his Envoye, had done at Lisbonne, for the composing the differences between the two Crowns in the West-Indies; and gives us hopes that the differences between that Crown and the Elector of Brandenburg will be at last accommodated, through the Mediatelon of the King of England, and of this State.

Wiselfur, Inne 18. Yellerday was Presented to His Majesty an Humble Address from the Members of the Society of Grays-Inn, which was Signed by about 120 Persons.

To the Kings most Sacred Majesty.

The Hamble Address of us Tour Maje ties Truy Loyal Subjects, Momber 2 of the Society of Grays-Inn.

Wa Your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, do a Your Majciffes most Loyal and Duttiul Subjects, do most faithfully and unteignedly with all Humility, return our hearty Thanks for Your Majesties endearing Promises, and steady Resolutions so publickly Declared by Your Majesty in Your late Gracious Declaration; the happy Effects of which, we, even in this our Society already find, and are sensible of. As also for Your Royal Care in maintaining the Rights of the Crown and Succession in their due course; and Rights of the Crown and Succession in their due courie; and the Protestant Rel gion, as now by Law established. And we do with all Humility acknowledge Your Majesties exceeding Goodness in Declaring, that as Your Majesty will not make use of any Arbitrary or Illegal Power Your Self, so You will not permit it in orthers, to the great prejudice of Your Loyal Subjects, contrary to the known Laws of this Kingdom, and to the discouragement of the Members of this House, and all other Loyal Subjects and Practicers of the Laws. and all other Loyal Students and Practicers of the Laws. and all other Loyal students and Practicers of the Laws.
And we do unanimoully Declare, That we are all of Opinion, that the convening of Parliaments to any place, Proroguing and Diflolving of the fame, is the undoubted Right of Your most Excellent Majesty, according to the artest and Fundamental Laws of this Your Kingdom.

We likewise Resolve that with our Lives and Fortunes we will stand b, Desend, and Maintain Your Majesties Royal Perten and Commental as by Laws of this Most city Brees Con-will frand b, Detend, and Maintain Your Majetties Royal Per-formand Government, as by Law established, the Protessant Religion, and Your Majesties Heirs and lawful Successors, a-gainst all Popish Plots and Traiterous Conspiracies of such disastected Men, as design the subversion of the best of Go-vernments; and at all times, and upon all occasions, be ever most willing and ready to llew our Selves, Great S I R, Your Sacred Majesties most Duriful, Loyal, and Obedient Subjects.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Magistrates, Cumon-Crancil, and other Friemen, and chief Inhabitams of the Town and Bu rough of Clifton Dartmouth Harness in the County of Devon.

Dread Sovereign,

TE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Magistrates, and Common-Council, with other Freemen and chief Inhabitants of the antient Town and Burrough of Cl fun Da im with Have fig. reflecting upon the grievous Tyranny and Proflures this Nation ground under in the late times of Confusion, wherein our Religion, Laws, Liberry, and Property, were with no small violence invaded; And considering withal, How that upon Your Majetties miraculous and happy Restauration, we were relieved of those Oppressions, which unconscionable Usurpers afficied us with, and breinons, which uncontrionable Uturpers amicred us wirth, and had not only our excellently Reformed Religion, according to the Primitive and Apottolical Purity in the Church of Eng Land, as by Law established; but also our Laws, Liberties and Properties restored and confirmed to us, which we have peachly established the for the properties and confirmed to us, which we have peachly established. Properties reflored and confirmed to us, which we have peacably enjoyed these twenty years, and owe the happiness of it (under God) to Your Majesties Goodness and prudent Conduct; and having had from time to time repeated Evidences of Your Frincely Grace and Condescension to Your I cople; do now with Hearts full of Duty and Reverence, desire to shew to Your Sacred Majesty and the World, our most grateful Resentments of the many benefits we have enjoyed under Your prudent Government, and to render our most under Your prudent Government, and to render our most Humble and hearty Thanks for Your Majestics Gracious Declaration lately Published for the latisfaction of Your loving Subjects; in which Your Majetty renews unto us, Your fixed Refolutions of maintaining the true Reformed Religion, as by Law eliablished in our Church of England; against the pernicious endeavours of Papists, and other Sectaries that oppose it, and to preserve Your Rayal Authority, and the Peoples Rights and Priviledges from being invaded: Which Gracious Promises, and surther Assurances, in Your faid Princely Declaration, of adhering to the Laws of the Land, so as to make them always the Rule of Your Government (as hitherto Your Majesty hath done, (be it ever thankfully acknowledged by us) and of advising frequently with Parliaments; will, we hope, allay the Fears and Jealous that have been raised by ill-affected tersions, and put a stop to the evil Designs of Papists and Factious Republicans, against Your Majesties just and Merciful Reign.

Your Majesty having done so much for Your People, and pursued us all along with such unparalelled Instances of Clemency and Affection; it remains now on us for the rending Declaration lately Published for the Satisfaction of Your lo-mency and Affection; it remains now on us for the rendring this an happy Nation, not only to retein a grateful Memory of Yoar Majesties Goodness, to bless God for setting over us so Gracious a King, and to pray for Your Majesties long Life, and continuance of Your happy Reign; but also to make such other Returns of Allegiance, Aid, and Succors, as are necessary for the support of Your Majesties Honour and Government; for the support of Your Majettes Honour and Government; and is the Dury of Subjects always to pa: and we do for our parts faithfully promise on all occasions to be ready to assist Your Majetty with our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of Your Sacred Person, and Dignity, and of the Church and State, as by Law now established against the Papists, and all other Enemies thereof, of what Denomination or Sect soever. Signen by about dixty Persons.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

Molt Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majesties most Loyal and Faithful Subjects the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonatty of the antient Burrough of Heriford doe (in all Humility) conceive it our Duty to manifest to the World the great Obligations we owe Duty to manifest to the World the great Obligations we owe to Your Majesty, and to return our Humble Thanks and Gratitude for those manifold Blessings which we now enjoy under Your Gracious Government, and those large and Royal Favours which we lately received from You, the best of Kings, when You was graciously pleased to enlarge the bounds of this Your Burrough, to prefer us to the Honor of a Sword, and to Grant whatsoever might conduce to the support of our Government, the advance of Justice, the improvement of our Trade, and to our benefit, which are evident means to make us and our successors for ever happy

And we do further acknowledge, that Your Grace and Favour hath not been limited to us alone, but hath slowed in abundant manner to all Your good Subjects in general; for You have made us a Free People, who lately groaned under the heavy Impositions of an insulting Common-wealth, And (though Kings be accountable for their actions to none but God himself) yet You have Graciously condescended to Declare the Reasons of Your Proceedings (which have given great or of the anishreaf n ble M n) and of the of the wich Y u have fr Puliaments, which is the interior of the country of the coun a.

in You I improve Your Endeavours to extirpate , re't is it the Grievances of Your good Subjects, and thing, Gwernby the Laws of the Land i are a True D. onder of the Arient and Catholick , Think and M tintained by the Church of Ending, the and Bulwark that hath preferved is and Argond People, in eproph. I tels and only in of the Sectary, the Idonard Supplies of the Papills, which have both lard do divide her Community in a Atomes, that by her until now much be made a prey to the Romins Faction. All in all Marks of Your great Zeal for the Protestant in the Rail in and the great Care for the Lakery of Your interest of the Lakery of Your great Care for the Lakery of Your great Care for the Lakery of Your great Care for the Lakery of Your (12' .ifhed R ii i n, and the great Care for the lafety of Your the med R 11.1 n, and the great Care for the lakety of Your 5 b 4s, and or Your Affection for their Interests, which cannot flow the mouths of the Seditions and Factions, ren - all canteless Fears, and confirm the Loyalty of Your Sibi 6: And we (as in Duty bound) do man inoully and heartily affire Your Majsity, that we will factice our L is and fortunes to preferve Your Sacred Person, Your its andlawful Successions, and to maintain the true Protional to the Reis ion, and the Government as now established both in Cauth and State; and on all scale as stall readity ions. C sur h and state; and on all occair no itall readily joyn a lother Your Loyal Subjects, to give You (in proporty) such all thances as may keep You lafe at home, make Y i valued by Your Friends and Allies, feared by Your Energy, and Glorous to the World; We confuling and ache wiedling et all we can do, mult be infinitely fhort of the utilibare of that Duey which we owe, and are defined to per, mrn t | Excellent and to Gracians a Prince, who is Safer. . rm t | Excell at an 16 Gracians a Prince, while Safe1, work and Honor we account our only Interest; And we rely Pray, that Your Goodness may affect the Hearts on in Teople, and that they may be truly scalible of the 1 bilans rees f Your Government; that Adur Life may may, Your Reion Glorrous; and that the Church of Fanar may finish nucley Your Protection. Your Majetties 12 Duthing Loya, a d Obedient Subjects. Sign by the Migray of the North Subject.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Bestiff, Appr ved Men, and Eufeff i if i e Bosongh of Iown of Andever, in the County of Southampton.

E Your Majorlies most Duriful and Loyal Subjett, who Who rejoyce in nothing more than the Glory of our Obdierce to Gods At inted, who is (next under God) our Suprementations of Christian Governor upon harth and the most Gracious of Christian a King, has hig not only-heard with all due Meveronce and At-t with, Your Maj (t) s Inte Declaration received publically in GIT Churche; but allo Rehel and Revolved it in our feweral pri-Hotles, and no our Hearts; and being provoked to I statisty the nay most Laudable and Loyal Addresses I be four it we subjects, do think it our Duty to ac-tioned de bottop God and Your Mijetty, the manifold Hapin and a cooting operant four Majerry, the majorid Rapi wee joy, more than any other subjects through ut which Wild unity our Majifits most Gracious Gotyrin nith the first and the incing Arrument. For therein we have different from unfipeakable Comfort and satisfaction, in Maje fie Care and Rifolution (as a Tire Definder of the Trith) to priectus in the enjoyment of the Protyrinkeli to, as by Law chabilitied, against those Endeay reard Artemps which have of late been made against it, well by Forteignas Home-bred Exemies as well by the Powell by Forreignas Home-bred E temies, as well by the Po rin as Fanatic. Fat ion, the constant Enviers of our Happin, and diffurbers of our Peacet ever fince the time of our Promation. Therein we see our Obligation to give Your Michael of our legal Rights and Liberties, avairff the Incursions, that of our legal Rights and Liberties, avairff the Incursions, My control than be and hear yithanks, for Declaring in the biral of our legal R ghts and Liberties, a airly the Incurrions, I have, and Arbitrary Government of tellow-Subjects; and I'll declaring in behalf of all the Laws we live tunder, Your Re-I'll this to Subject and Maintain the Monarchy, with MI the I'll the Arbitrary the World Indian to the Monarchy, with MI the Line of the Litter of the Live which we are time dry the world experience of twenty years (even from the birth of the late Rebellion, until Your Alapeties moil to birth of the late Rebellion, until Your Alapeties moil to birth of the late Rebellion, until Your Alapeties moil to high fire your happiness man and Servants to bear the first fire of the Live of Livelyhoods; but shall relapte to the first fire of the late of the

The Addrel , yet none thall ever exceed us in Dutiful A legiance o our Y'lije"; affri y Your 11 48 cr ' 1 j lv f our rea i ch, a luch simulies to ut Yor Mi fres Laws in e vio, a ritim t to Ele dr-f at fuch Mi. crs (vlen 1 r M j. if) to rv in paffiament, rs may Anler the Great of the Your Maj flies mot Gracious D charatta Falmouth, June 13. The Mafter of a finall Veffel arrived from Ros., lays, le met four French Frigats cruiting in the Plymonth, Jane Ia. On Saturday I ft Sailed H's Majetties Ships the Fr fight and the Fancor, with the M rchair. Ships under their Convoy for the Stright. The Antelop wil Sail to morrow for Newformshand.

L mo, Jan 15. Yesterday was publickly staved by the Officers of the Coston House, Interactions of French Wines pursuant to the A tot Parliament.

Oxford, June 144 It baying at a late Common-Council held here, been unanimously Resolved, That the Right Jonourable James Lord Norreys, Baron of Ry-got, Lord Lieutenapt of this County, and Henry Ber-tic Esq; bis Brother, should be received into the Liber-ties of this City, and have Baylists places in the Coun-cil-Chamber; several of the suid Council-Chamber did attend his Lordship and Mr. Bettie, to do the City the Honor to accept thereof; which they did, and came hither the next day to the Jurus C. Fir radhip and bither the next day for that purpose. His Lordship and Mr. Bertic were accompanied with several Gentlemen of this County, and merereceived at the farthest extent of the Liberties of this City in a Meadow called Port-Meadow, by the Affistants to the Mayor, by greatest part of the Council-Chamber, and other Gentlemen of this City, to the number of 100 Persons, all on Horseback, and h fore they came hither, were most by above 300 Freemen on Foot, who attended them into the City, the Bells Ringing, Trumpets Sounding, Drums Beating and the City-Musick Playink as they past along. In this manner his Lordship and Mr. Bertie were conducted to the Town-Hall, where the Mayor and his Brethrenexpeded them, and baving Sworn them Freemen of this City, they took their Places as Members of the Council Chamber, there being then about 1000 Freemen in the Court-Hall; after which, his Lordship very Nobly entertained the Citizens, and so returned bome.

London, June 20. Sir Robert Viner being desirous to give satisfultion to those with whom he is concerned; hath made a Settlement upon Persons of eminent Credit 4s Trustees, for the satisfaction of his Engagements, and desires those that are soncerned, to go or send (as some as they can) to the Vine in Lombard-street, where they may have a Pap r of the satisfaction proposed.

Hese are to give Notice that Mr. Hassard of Kenfington, hath ingaged to several Persons of Quality (whose Daughters and Relations are now Scholars in his House \ to continue his School as formerly; The Care and Government of the Ladies and Family, since the death of his Wife, being undertaken by Mrs. seward, a Person much conversant with Mrs. Hassard for many years, and often intrusted to supply her Place, when her occasions required an assistance; and well known to, and already approved of, by many persons of worth, who also is equally concerned in the whole with Mr. Hassard.

He Officers of the Receipt of His Majesties Ex-1 chequer, have Money in Bank to pay to Number 826. inclusive. of the Orders Registred on the second All for Disbanding the Army.

Advertif ments.

On Monday July 4. will begin the Sale (by way of Auction) the Library of Mr. Nich las Lloy 1, Lute of St. Mary Newington, and Author of the Distinguisment, the Distinguisment of the Distinguisment o at 1771 am aforelaid, in the County of B. u.s. on to Mr. Philip Bu 10n a this Chamber in C ifferds nn, Londo, so that the Beaginmay be recovered, shall have five Guineas reward