The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-third Day of November last, for prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition, will expire upon the Sixth Day of June next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever, (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service,) do at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said Sixth Day of June next, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt-Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt-Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition:"—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. Steph. Cottrell.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by His Order in Council of the Twenty-fourth Day of May instant, was pleased to order that the Orders of His Majesty in Council of the Seventh of January and Eleventh of November One thousand eight hundred and seven should be suspended, so far as was necessary for the Protection of Vessels of the United States of America, sailing for or from the Ports of Holland, for a limited Time, and under certain Circumstances; His Majesty, more distinctly to ascertain the Southern Boundary of the Countries to be taken as comprized under the Description of Holland in such Order, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order shall not be construed to extend or to comprehend the Island of Walcheren, which is in the Possession of France, or any Port or Place South of the said Island; but, nevertheless, no Vessel of the said United States, which shall have been destined to the Island of Walcheren, or to any Port or Place on the North Bank of the River Schelde, shall be liable to Capture under this Order, unless such Vessel shall have been informed of this Order on her Voyage, and warned by any of His Majesty's Ships or Privateers not to proceed to the said Island of Walcheren, or to any Port or Place in the River Schelde:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary Measures herein as to them may respectively appertain. Steph. Cottrell.
