Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 10, to Tuesday June 13, 1809.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 24th of May 1809,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the Twenty-sixth of April last, to declare certain Ports and Places of the Countries which have been lately styled the Kingdom of Holland, to be subject to the Restrictions incident to a strict and rigorous Blockade, as continued from His Majesty's former Order of the Eleventh of November One thousand eight hundred and seven; and whereas Advices have been received of a certain provisional Agreement entered into by His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary in America, with the Government of the United States, whereby it is understood that His Majesty's Orders in Council of the Seventh of January and of the Eleventh of November One thousand eight hundred and seven, shall be withdrawn so far as respects the United States, on the Tenth of June next.

And whereas, although the said Provisional Agreement is not such as was authorized by His Majesty's Instructions, or such as His Majesty can approve, it may already have happened, or may happen, that Persons being Citizens of the said United States may be led by a Reliance on the said Provisional Agreement, to engage in Trade with and to the said Ports and Places of Holland, contrary to, and in violation of the Restrictions imposed by the said Orders of the Seventh of January and of the Eleventh of November One thousand eight hundred and seven, as altered by the Order of the Twenty-sixth of April last; His Majesty, in order to prevent any Inconveniences that may ensue from the Circumstance above recited, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the said several Orders shall be suspended, so far as is necessary for the Protection of Vessels of the said United States, so sailing under the Faith of the said Provisional Agreement, videlicet, That after the Ninth Day of June next, no Vessel of the United States, which shall have cleared out between the Nineteenth of April last, and the Twentieth of July ensuing, for any of the Ports of Holland aforesaid from any Port of the United States, shall be molested or interrupted in her Voyage by the Commanders of His Majesty's Ships or Privateers.

And it is further ordered, that no Vessels of the United States, which shall have cleared out from any Port of America previous to the Twentieth of July next, for any other permitted Port, and shall, during her Voyage, have changed her Destination, in consequence of Information of the said Provisional Agreement, and shall be proceeding to any of the Ports of Holland aforesaid, shall be molested or interrupted by the Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Privateers, unless such Vessel shall have been informed of this Order on her Voyage, and shall have been warned not to proceed to any of the Ports of Holland aforesaid, and shall, notwithstanding such Warning, be found attempting to proceed to any such Port.

And it is further ordered, that after the said Ninth Day of June next, no Vessel of the said United States which shall have cleared out for, or be destined to any of the Ports of Holland from any other Port or Place not subject to the Restrictions of the said Order of the Twenty-sixth of April last, after Notice of such Provisional Agreement as aforesaid, shall be molested or interrupted in her Voyage by the Commanders of His Majesty's Ships or Privateers, provided such Vessel shall have so cleared out previous to actual Notice of this Order at such Place of Clearance, or in default of Proof of actual Notice previous to the like Periods of Time after the Date of this Order, as are fixed for constructive Notice of His Majesty's Order of the Eleventh of November, One thousand eight hundred and seven, by the Orders of the Twenty-fifth November, One thousand eight hundred and seven, and of the Eighteenth of May One thousand eight hundred and eight, at certain Places and Latitudes therein mentioned, unless such Vessel shall have been informed of this Order on her Voyage, and, warned by any of His Majesty's Ships or Privateers not to proceed to any Port of Holland, and shall notwithstanding such Warning, attempt to proceed to any such Port.

And His Majesty is pleased further to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said several Orders of the Seventh of January and Eleventh of November One thousand eight hundred and seven, as altered by the said Order of the Twenty-sixth of April last, shall also be suspended, so far as is necessary for the Protection of Vessels of the said United States which shall clear out, to any Ports not declared to be under the Restriction of Blockade from any Port of Holland between the Ninth Day of June and the First Day of July next; provided always, that nothing that is contained in the present Order shall extend, or be construed to extend, to protect any Vessels or their Cargoes, that may be liable to Condemnation or Detention for any other Cause than the Violation of the aforesaid Orders of the Seventh of January and the Eleventh of November One thousand eight hundred and seven, as altered by the said Order of the Twenty-sixth of April last.

Provided also, that nothing in this Order contained shall extend, or be construed to extend to protect any Vessel which shall attempt to enter any Port actually blockaded by any of His Majesty's Ships of War.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 31st of May 1809,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by His Order in Council of the Twenty-fourth Day of May instant, was pleased to order that the Orders of His Majesty in Council of the Seventh of January and Eleventh of November One thousand eight hundred and seven should be suspended, so far as was necessary for the Protection of Vessels of the United States of America, sailing for or from the Ports of Holland, for a limited Time, and under certain Circumstances; His Majesty, more distinctly to ascertain the Southern Boundary of the Countries to be taken as comprized under the Description of Holland in such Order, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order shall not be construed to extend or to comprehend the Island of Walcheren, which is in the Possession of France, or any Port or Place South of the said Island; but, nevertheless, no Vessel of the said United States, which shall have been destined to the Island of Walcheren, or to any Port or Place on the North Bank of the River Schelde, shall be liable to Capture under this Order, unless such Vessel shall have been informed of this Order on her Voyage, and warned by any of His Majesty's Ships or Privateers not to proceed to the said Island of Walcheren, or to any Port or Place in the River Schelde:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary Measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 31st of May 1809,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Island of Heligoland surrendered to His Majesty's Forces, and is now in His Majesty's Possession; His Majesty is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Trade to and from Heligoland shall be confined to British Ships, navigated according to Law, except in Cases where His Majesty may be pleased by His special Licence otherwise to permit.

And for the more effectually preventing any Foreign Vessel carrying on any Trade, to or from the said Island, contrary to His Majesty's Will and Pleasure, as by this Order expressed, His Majesty is further pleased by and with the Advice of His Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no Foreign Vessel except as before excepted, shall enter into the Port, Harbour or Road lying between the Island of Heligoland, and Sandy Island, and the Shoals of the said Islands respectively, and commonly called or known by the Names of the North Haven, and the South Haven, under any Pretence whatever; and that no Goods, Wares, or Merchandize whatsoever, shall be in any Manner put on Shore in any Part of the said Island of Heligoland, from any such Foreign Vessel, or carried from the Shore of such Island to any such Foreign Vessel, or in any manner transhipped from any such Foreign Vessel, into any Vessel lying in the said Harbour, Port, or Road, or from any Vessel lying in the said Harbour, Port, or Road, into any such Foreign Vessel.—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Council-Chamber Whitehall, the 31st of May 1809,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS, from Information received, there is reason to believe that the contagious Fever which prevailed last Winter at Stockholm and Carlscrona no longer exists; it is therefore ordered, that the Order in Council of the Twenty-ninth of April last, by which it was directed, that Ships and Vessels arriving from the said Ports of Stockholm and Carlscrona should still be subject to the Performance of Quarantine, be, and the same is hereby revoked; and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief, for the Time being, of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 24th of May 1809,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-third Day of November last, for prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition, will expire upon the Sixth Day of June next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever, (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service,) do at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said Sixth Day of June next, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty, to prohibit the Exportation of Salt-Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt-Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition."—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. Steph. Cottrell.
