REGULATIONS for preparing and drawing the last Lottery authorized by Act 48 Geo. 3. Cap. 139.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Forty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, Cap. 139, intituled "An Act for granting to His Majesty a Sum of Money to be raised by Lotteries," certain Lotteries have been drawn, but One Lottery of Twenty Thousand Tickets remains to be drawn under the said recited Act; and whereas by an Act, passed in this Session of Parliament, for granting to His Majesty a certain Sum of Money to be raised by Lotteries, it is, amongst other Things, recited, that it was expedient that the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury should be enabled to provide that the Lottery so remaining to be drawn under the first recited Act should be drawn in One Day, and the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, are therefore by the said last recited Act authorized to direct, that the same should be prepared, sold, and drawn under such Rules and Regulations as should be necessary for that Purpose.

Now, we being Three of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, in pursuance of the Powers vested in us by the said last recited Act, and in order that the Lottery remaining to be drawn under the said first recited Act may be drawn in One Day, do direct, that the Managers and Directors appointed under the said first recited Act for preparing and delivering out Tickets, or the major Part of such of them as shall be present at any Meeting held for the Purpose, shall for the said Lottery cause a proper Number of Books to be prepared, and divided into Four Classes, which shall be distinguished one from the other by the Letters A B C D being marked respectively on all the Books belonging to each Class, so that all the Books belonging to one Class shall be marked A, and all the Books belonging to another Class shall be marked B, and so in like Manner with Respect to the other Books, and every Leaf in each of such Books shall be divided and distinguished into Three Columns, and upon the innermost of the said Three Columns in each Class of the said Books, there shall be printed for the said Lottery Five Thousand Tickets, to be numbered 1, 2, 3, and so onwards in arithmetical Progression where the common Excess is to be One until they rise to the Number of 5000, and each Ticket shall be marked with the same Letter as is marked upon the Book in which such Ticket is printed, and upon the middle Column in each of the said Books shall be printed the like Number of Tickets, of the same Breadth and Form, and numbered and lettered in the like Manner with the Tickets in the innermost Column of the same Book; and in the extreme Column of each of such Books, there shall be printed a Third Rank or Series of Tickets, of the same Number and Letter with those of the other Two Columns in the same Book, which last mentioned Tickets shall severally be of an oblong Figure, and the Tickets in each of the said Books shall be joined with oblique Lines, Flourishes, and Devices, in such Manner as the said Managers and Directors, or the major Part of them present, shall think most safe and convenient; and every Ticket in the third or extreme Column of each of such Books, shall have written or printed thereupon, besides the Number of such Ticket, Words, Letters, or Figures to the following Effect:—No. 1. Third Lottery 1808. The Bearer of this Ticket will be entitled to such Benefit as shall belong thereto in the said Lottery to be drawn in pursuance of the Act passed in the Forty-eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

A.

And the Books shall be examined and delivered to the Cashiers of the Bank of England, and the Tickets of the extreme Columns shall be sold and cut off, and the Books delivered back to the said Managers and Directors; and all other Proceedings in Respect of the said Lottery shall be had in the Manner and under the Regulations prescribed in the said first recited Act, except where the same are hereby altered.

And that the said Managers and Directors, or the major Part of them which shall be present at a Meeting as aforesaid, shall cause all the Five Thousand Tickets in the middle Columns in the respective Books marked A, to be carefully rolled up and made fast with Thread or Silk; and the said Managers and Directors, or the major Part of them as aforesaid, shall in their Presence, and in the Presence of any such Contributors or Adventurers as may be there, cause all the said Tickets which are to be rolled up and made fast as aforesaid, to be cut off indentwise through the said oblique Lines, Flourishes, or Devices, into a Box to be prepared for that Purpose, and to be marked with the Letter A, which is presently to be put into another strong Box, and to be locked with Seven different Locks, and Keys to be kept by as many of the said Managers and Directors, and sealed with their Seals, or the Seals of some of them, until the said Tickets are to be drawn; and the Tickets in the first or innermost Columns of the said Books marked A, and the Tickets contained in the innermost and middle Columns of the several Books marked B C and D respectively, shall remain still in the Books for discovering any Mistake or Fraud, if any should happen to be committed contrary to the true Meaning of this Act.

And that the said Managers and Directors, or the major Part of them which shall be present at any Meeting as aforesaid, shall also prepare, or cause to be prepared, for the said Lotteries respectively, other Books, in which every Leaf shall be divided or distinguished into Two Columns, and upon the innermost of those Two Columns there shall be printed Tickets to the Number of Five Thousand Tickets, and upon the outermost of the said Two Columns there shall be printed a like Number of Tickets, all which shall be of equal Length and Breadth as near as may be, which Two Columns in the said Books shall be joined by some Flourish or Device, through which the outermost Tickets may be cut off indentwise, and such Number of Tickets as shall be fixed for the Purpose by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, Part of those to be contained in the outermost Columns of the Books last mentioned, shall be, and be called, The Fortunate Tickets, to which Benefits shall belong; and the said Managers and Directors, or the major Part of them, or such of them as shall be present at a Meeting as aforesaid, shall cause the Sum of Money which shall have been fixed upon for each of such Fortunate Tickets, to be written or printed thereupon, as well in Figures as in Words in Length; and the said Managers and Directors, or the major Part of them who shall be present at a Meeting as aforesaid, shall cause all the said Tickets contained in the outermost Columns of the said last mentioned Books, to be in the Presence of the said Managers and Directors, or the major Part of them which shall be present at a Meeting as aforesaid, and in the Presence of such Contributors or Adventurers as will then be there, to be carefully rolled up, and fastened with Thread or Silk, and carefully cut out indentwise through the said Flourish or Device, into another Box to be prepared for this Purpose, and to be marked with the Letter B, which Box shall be put into another strong Box, to be locked up with Seven different Locks, and Keys to be kept by as many of the said Managers and Directors, and sealed up with their Seals, or the Seals of some of them, until these Tickets shall also be drawn; and that the whole Business of rolling up and cutting off, and putting into the said Boxes the said Tickets, and locking up and sealing the said Boxes, shall be performed by the said Managers and Directors, or such of them as aforesaid, before the last Six Days immediately preceding the Day appointed for the drawing of the said Lottery. And to the End every Person concerned may be well assured that the same Number with his or her Ticket is put into the Box marked with the Letter A, from whence the same may be drawn; and that all other Matters are done as hereby directed, some public Notification in Print shall be given of the precise Time or Times of putting the said Tickets into the said Boxes, to the End that such Adventurers as may be minded to see the same done, may be present at the doing thereof; and the drawing of the said Tickets from the said Boxes shall take place in the Manner directed by the said first recited Act.

And the Fate of each of the Tickets marked B C D, as well as of the Ticket actually drawn, shall be decided by the drawing of the Ticket marked A, bearing the corresponding Number.

And where any Ticket shall be drawn a Prize, each of the Tickets marked B C and D, bearing the corresponding Number, shall, as well as the Ticket actually drawn marked A, be entitled to the whole Sum or Benefit specified in the Prize Ticket.

And where any Ticket, marked with any Letter in Manner aforesaid, shall be divided into Shares or Chances under the Provisions of the said first recited Act, there shall be written or printed upon the Share or Chance, or Agreement for a Share or Chance, in addition to the Words and Figures directed to be written or printed thereon under the said first-recited Act, the Letter with which the Ticket so divided shall be marked and distinguished.

And all the Rules and Provisions contained in the said first-recited Act, so far as they are not expressly altered by these Regulations, or are not inconsistent therewith, shall be observed and put in force in drawing the Lottery provided for in the present Regulations.
