employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies: Provided that upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles for the Purpose of Trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards and Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, (except as hereinafter excepted,) to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been all duly landed at the Places for which they were entered outwards: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure, nevertheless, that the following Articles, viz. Bar-Iron, White and Tarred Rope, Tallow or Mill Grease, Tarpaulins for Waggon-Covers, Pitch, Tar, and Turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon Payment of the proper Duties, without Bond being entered into by the Merchant Exporter, to any of the British Plantations in the West-Indies, or to any of His Majesty's Settlements in South America; provided the Merchant Exporter shall first verify, upon Oath, that the Articles so exported are intended for the Use of a particular Plantation or Settlement, to be named in the Entry Outwards, and not for Sale; and that the said Plantation or Settlement has not before been furnished with any Supply of the said Articles during the same Season; and provided also that the Exportation of the said Articles shall, in no Case, exceed the Value of Fifty Pounds Sterling for any given Plantation or Settlement, whether by one or more Shipments within the same Season: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. *W. Copies of Two Letters from Captain M. Kinley, of His Majesty's Ship the Lively, to the Honourable William Wellesley Pole.

SIR, Lively, Vigo, June 7, 1809.

BE pleased to inform my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that, Yesterday Evening, an Express arrived from a Spanish Officer at San Payo to Commodore Don Juan Carranfas, that the Conde de Norona was retiring with his Division of the Galician Army from Pontevedra to that Place, and desiring Boats might be there to convey the Troops across the River, (the Bridge having been broken down on the 7th of May,) Commodore Don J. Carranfas requesting Assistance, Captain Winter with the Cadmus (who had been obliged to put back from Strefs of Weather) immediately sailed up the River with the Portuguese Schooner Curiosa, under my Orders from the Honourable Vice-Admiral Berkeley, the Tigre Spanish Schooner of War, and as many Boats and Vessels as could possibly be collected.

This retrograde Movement caused me much anxiety, and I very early this Morning went up in the Barge to San Payo, where I found Brigadier-General Carrera strongly posted on the South Side of the Bridge (the Conde de Norona being at Redondela); and in my Interview with him, I learnt that the Enemy after the Brigadier-General had taken Santiago, united his Forces from Lugo to those of Corunna, amounting to Eight Thousand Men, Two Thousand Five Hundred Cavalry, with several Field-Pieces and some Twelve-Pounders.

This Force being very much superior to the Brigadier's, he retreated to Caldas and Pontevedra, where the Conde de Norona joined. From the excessive and continued heavy Rains we have had of late, much of the Ammunition was unavoidably damaged, and Pontevedra being too distant to receive any more when attacked, the falling back on such a strong Position was well conceived and most ably executed. On a Height above the Bridge they had a Battery of Two Eighteen-Pounders, and this Army was increased to between Six and Seven Thousand Men armed, and Three Thousand fine young Men without Arms, One Hundred and Twenty Horse, Nine Field Pieces, acting under the immediate Direction of the Brigadier-General.

At Nine the Enemy appeared on the other Side in great Force, and although the Galician Troops had undergone much Fatigue, and suffered greatly from the Inclemency of the Weather, to which they had been constantly exposed, yet, on the Approach of the Enemy nothing could exceed the Animation and Spirit of the Soldiers, all was Alacrity and Confidence, and I left the Brigadier-General, and was saluted by the Enemy from their Field Pieces, but without hurting us, although nearly within Musket-Shot; at Half-past Nine they opened their Fire on the Spaniards, which was most spiritedly returned and their Field Artillery was moved with great Alacrity and well served.

On my Return on board I landed my Marines and Twenty-five Seamen at the Castle (having taken them on board some Days past); and Lieutenant-Colonel Carroll, in the most zealous and handsome Manner, offered his Services to assist Captain Crawford in Defence of the Castle. Sixty Soldiers, whom he brought from Gijon with him, (Part of our Army,) at his earnest Request were landed, and I supplied them with Arms; and every Thing was put in the best possible Order of Defence by Commodore Don Juan Carranfas, Don Barnado Gonzalez the Governor, and Captain Crawford, of His Majesty's Ship Venus.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) GEO. M. KINLEY.

SIR, Lively, Vigo, June 12, 1809.

I CONCLUDED my Letter of the 7th Instant, which I did myself the Honour of writing to acquaint you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that the Enemy had began an Attack at Half-past Nine that Morning on the Spanish Troops under the Command of Brigadier-General Carrera, on the South Side of the Bridge of St. Payo.

I have to request you will be pleased to make known to their Lordships, that the Enemy, having taken Post on the North Side of the Bridge, a Pistol-shot across, in Houses, and in a Wood a little below it, kept up his Attack, supported with Field Artillery and Three Twelve-Pounders, with great Vivacity during the whole of that Day (the 7th), which was sustained by the Galician Army with great Coolness and Bravery.

During the Night of the 7th, the Enemy erected a Battery. Commodore Don Juan Carranfas sent up Three Gun-Boats, One of which Captain Wynter manned, under the Charge of Lieutenant Jefferson, his First Lieutenant. At Daylight in the Morning of the 8th, the Enemy opened his Fire, both on the Galician Troops and the Boats; the latter of which, from the Tide being up, got near, and destroyed the Enemy's Batteries. At the Fall of the Tide the Enemy made Two desperate Attempts to cross below the Bridge with his Cavalry and Infantry, but the great Courage and Spirit displayed by our Friends repulsed them with great Slaughter. A Body of them went higher up the River to the Bridge to Sottomayor, and that active and brave Officer Don Pablo Murillo was detached with a Division to oppose them, and the Enemy, after persevering for an Hour and an Half, were obliged to give way to the superior Gallantry of the Spaniards, and retreated to San Payo, where another Attack, during a thick Fog, was again made by the Enemy, who, as in the former ones, was driven back, and Marshal Neys, who commanded the French Troops, consisting of Eight Thousand Men, Two Thousand Five Hundred Cavalry, with Field Artillery and Two Twelve-Pounders, experienced a Defeat from a new raised Army consisting of Six Thousand Armed Men, and Three Thousand without Arms, and some small Field Artillery, with Two Eighteen-Pounders, and in the Night the retreated, leaving some of his Wounded. The Enemy burnt many of their Dead, and in one Pit has been discovered Thirty buried; his Loss must have been great. The Loss on the Side of the Spaniards has been trifling, only One Hundred and Ten killed and wounded. Captain Wynter, who was some Time at the Camp, and who had a narrow Escape, a Grape Shot having grazed his Hat, described to me that such was the Animation of the Spanish Troops, that it was with Difficulty they were restrained by their Officers from pushing across.

Thus, Sir, the Spirit and good Conduct of this Division of the Spanish Galician Army who, though without almost every Part of Clothing, and exposed to heavy Rains without Shelter, had shewn to their own Nation, and to all Europe, that they are inspired with Ardour for the Delivery of their Country from a cruel Usurper, which alone a brave and loyal People can feel; and the Merit of their Commanders bears so conspicuous a Part, as their Lordships must appreciate much better than I could take the Liberty of expressing of Officers superior in Rank to myself. And it is but just to say, that the Officers employed in the Gun-Boats, executed well the Instructions they received from Don Juan Carranias, whose unwearied Attention to give every Aid and Assistance to the Army with the most active Promptitude excited Admiration.

Lieutenant Toledo, commanding the Tigre Spanish Schooner of War who was up the River to give Succour, was most active, and Lieutenant Alves, commanding the Portuguese Schooner Curioza, was alert and zealous to support the Cause; and you will also be pleased to express to their Lordships the Happiness I feel in being enabled to inform them that Captain Wynter and the British Officers and Men felt all that Ardour to assist real Friends which is inherent in their Character.

I have the Honour to be, &c.
