Admiralty-Office, July 8, 1809.

THE following Particulars relative to the Evacuation of Corunna and Ferrol by the French, are contained in a Series of Letters from Captain Hotham, of His Majesty's Ship the Defiance, to Admiral Lord Gambier, dated from the 22d to the 30th of last Month.

In consequence of the Defeat sustained by the Enemy's Army under Marshal Ney in the Action against the Spanish Forces at the Bridge of the Payo, that General fell back on Corunna on the 13th June, and immediately began to take Measures for relinquishing the Possession of that Place and Ferrol, removing his Forces by Divisions to an Encampment three Leagues in advance from Betanzos towards Lugo. The last Divisions of the French left Ferrol on the 21st and Corunna on the 22d, after having in both Places spiked the Guns and destroyed the Defences on the Landside, together with the Magazines and Stores of every Kind, and completely disarmed the Places and their Inhabitants.

The Proximity of the Enemy's Position continuing to hold the Authorities established by the French at Corunna in Subjection through the Fear of his Return, no Communication being suffered with the British Ships but by Flag of Truce, and the State of Defence in which the Batteries and Lines on the Sea Side were left, rendering it dangerous for the English to land or approach the Coast in the Event of the Re-appearance of any of the Enemy, Captain Hotham on the 24th ordered a Detachment of Seamen and Marines to land and disable the Guns on the different Batteries bearing on the Anchorage, offering at the same Time to the Governor the Services of the Detachment in rendering any Assistance that might be in its Power to the Cause of the Spanish Patriots. The Cannons and Mortars on the Sea Lines at Corunna, and in the Forts commanding the Bay, were accordingly all dismounted on the same Day, leaving untouched those on the Lines towards the Land which had been spiked by the Enemy.

On the 26th Captain Hotham sent Captain Parker, of His Majesty's Ship Amazon, to Ferrol, where he was received by the People with the loudest Acclamations of Joy, and received from the higher Orders of the Inhabitants the strongest possible Marks of Attachment to the English, and Happiness at seeing once more among them an Officer of that Nation. The Castle of San Felipe, however, was still under the Command of a Person appointed by Marshal Ney, and attached to the French Interest, with a Garrison composed of a Detachment of a Legion raised by the Enemy during their Possession of Ferrol and Corunna; and on the 27th Captain Hotham received Information that the above Commandant had given Orders to fire on any English Ships or Boats that might attempt to pass the Castle. In consequence, Captain Hotham repaired to Ferrol in the Defiance, and landed the Marines of that Ship and the Amazon, with a Party of armed Seamen, under the Direction of Captain Parker, who entered the Castle without Opposition, preceded by a Flag bearing the Name of King Ferdinand the Seventh and the Spanish Colours. The Detachment then proceeded to the Town of Ferrol, where it was received in the most affectionate Manner by the Inhabitants, and having arrested the Commandant of the Castle in the Name of King Ferdinand, sent him on board the Defiance. The Governor of Ferrol not having any Means of garrisoning the Castle, the Guns in it were spiked, and the Powder removed to the Arsenal, and the Place left under the Command of the former Governor, who had been superseded by the Enemy.

On the 28th Captain Hotham entered the Port of Corunna, where he was informed by the Governor that he had received Instructions from the Marquis de la Romana, dated at Orense on the 27th, to proclaim His Catholic Majesty Ferdinand the Seventh, with Advice that he had dispatched a Regiment from his Army to attend the Ceremony and garrison the Place: the Governor at the same Time gave Captain Hotham Assurances that the Port was from that Hour to be considered under the Controul and Authority of the lawful King of Spain; and the Captain placed himself, and every Assistance that the Ships under his Orders might be able to afford, at the Governor's Disposal.

On the 29th, Major General the Conde de Norona, Captain-General of Galicia arrived at Corunna from St. Jago, and was followed on the next Day by General Carrera with about Eleven Thousand Men, forming the Conde's Division of the Marquis of Romana's Army.

The French Army under Marshal Ney moved from its Camp near Betanzos on the 22d, taking the Road to Lugo and Astorga. It was reported that, previously to its breaking up the Camp, it destroyed its Baggage and heavy Artillery.

On the 27th the Marquis de la Romana was stated to be at Orense with General Mahi and Thirty Thousand Men. Marshal Soult's Position on the 15th was said to have been at Monforte and Quiraga.

Admiralty Office, July 8, 1809.

CAPTAIN GOATE, of His Majesty's Sloop Mosquito, has transmitted to the Hon. William Wellesley Pole Letters from Lieutenant Banks and Rowe, commanding the Blazer and Cenfor Gun-Brigs, stating the Capture of Five of the Enemy's Privateers and Armed Vessels in the Rivers Jahde and Ems.

Admiralty-Office, July 8, 1809.

REAR-ADMIRAL SIR RICHARD STRACHAN has transmitted to the Hon. William Wellesley Pole a Letter from Lieutenant Banks, commanding the Blazer Gun-Brig, giving an Account of an Attack made by a small Party of Seamen and Marines under the Direction of Lieutenants Mansell and M'Dougall, of the Patriot Gun-Vessel and Alert Hired Cutter, upon a Body of French Douaniers and Soldiers stationed at Ekwarden in the River Jahde.

The Enemy being driven from their Posts, Two Douanier Boats, One Danish and Five Galliot's were taken Possession of and brought out, together with a Quantity of Merchandize which had been seized by the French and Danes.

This Service, which was performed without any Loss on our Part, was executed with great Judgment and Resolution.

Admiralty-Office, July 8, 1809.

Copy of a Letter from George M'Kinley, Esq; Captain of His Majesty's Ship Lively, to the Hon. W. W. Pole, dated on board that Ship at Vigo, the 2d of last Month.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour of inclosing to you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Copy of a Letter I received from Brigadier-General Carrera, commanding a Division of loyal Spanish Troops, giving an Account of his taking from the French the City of Saint Jago Compostella; by which their Lordships will see the Spirit and Gallantry of the Brigadier-General, and the Ardour of the Troops under his Orders.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) GEO. M'KINLEY.

Head-Quarters at Santiago, May 23, 1809.

SANTIAGO is in our Possession:—the Enemy, consisting of Three Thousand Infantry, with Fourteen Pieces of Artillery, and Three Hundred Horse, came out to meet us, and attacked us on our March in the Plain called De la Estrella. Our Scouts having fallen in with their Voltigeurs, and exchanged some Firing, brought me the Information, and I ordered the Division to form in the best Position that could be taken. The Enemy attacked with Vigour, but were unable to gain the smallest Advantage. Our Artillery was as good as their's was bad, not a Man being wounded on our Side by a Cannon-Ball. After an Hour's Firing we became impatient of suffering it, and I ordered Don Pablo Murillo to charge them on their Right Flank whilst I advanced in Front with the Three other Columns. The Enemy twice took up Positions, and were as often dislodged. The Unevenness of the Ground favoured their Escape; in effecting which they shamefully blew up two Ammunition Chests; two others, with two of Clothing, upwards of Six Hundred Muskets, and some Horses and other Articles, which I have not yet examined, fell into our Hands. Murillo entered the City; and pursued the Enemy through the Streets to the Distance of more than a League from hence. I am not yet informed of the Number of Slain, nor of that of the Prisoners, of whom there are many. The General, Maquian, has been severely wounded by two Musket Shot; the Second in Command was killed in the Field, whose Insignia have been brought to me by the Soldiers. Our Loss has been trifling; the Troops are in high Spirits, and I may expect much from them.

I am, &c.

MARTIN DE LA CARRERA.

Captain M'Kinley, Commander of the British Ships at Vigo.
