AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 12th of July 1809,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was, by His Order in Council of the Thirty-first of May One thousand eight hundred and nine, pleased to direct, that no Foreign Vessel, except as therein excepted, should enter into the Port, Harbour, or Road lying between the Island of Heligoland and Sandy Island, and the Shoals of the said Islands respectively, and commonly called or known by the Names of, the North Haven and the South Haven, under any Pretence whatever;

His Majesty is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to revoke so much of the said Order as respects Ships entering into the Port of the said Island or Places thereof, in Ballast; and to direct, that henceforth Merchant Vessels, under any Flag except the French, coming in Ballast, shall be allowed to enter therein without His Majesty's Licence: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.
