From Tuesday August 8, to Saturday August 12, 1809.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 2d of August 1809,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this Day ordered by His Majesty in Council, That the Parliament which stands prorogued to Thursday the Tenth Day of this Instant August, be further prorogued to Thursday the Twenty-eighth Day of September next.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 2d of August 1809,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this Day ordered by His Majesty in Council, That the General Embargo laid by His Majesty's Order in Council, dated the Twelfth of last Month, upon all Ships and Vessels in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland (except as therein excepted) be taken off. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Stephen Cottrell.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 26th of July 1809,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this Day read at the Board, the humble Memorial of Sir Lucas Pepys, Baronet, Physician to His Majesty, and President of the College or Commonalty of the Faculty of Physic in London, setting forth, that the said President and College have, with great Care, Pains, and Industry, revised, corrected, and reformed a Book by them formerly published, intitled "Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis," prescribing and directing the Manner of preparing all Sorts of Medicines therein contained, together with the true Weights and Measures by which they ought to be made: which Book is now perfected, and ready to be published, and it is conceived will contribute to the Public Good of His Majesty's Subjects, by preventing all Deceits, Differences and Uncertainties in making or compounding of Medicines, if, for the future, the Manner and Form prescribed therein should be practised by Apothecaries, and others, in their Compositions of Medicines; the Memorialist therefore humbly prays that His Majesty will be graciously pleased to enforce the Observance thereof in such Manner as to His Majesty shall seem meet: His Majesty this Day took the said Memorial into His Royal Consideration, and being desirous to provide, in all Cases, for the common Good of His People, and being persuaded that the establishing the general Use of the said Book may tend to the Prevention of such Deceits in the making and compounding Medicines, wherein the Lives and Health of His Majesty's Subjects are so highly concerned, hath therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby to notify to all Apothecaries, and others concerned, to the Intent they may not pretend Ignorance thereof, that the said Book, called Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis, is perfected and ready to be published; and His Majesty doth therefore strictly require, charge, and command all and singular Apothecaries, and others whose Business it is to compound Medicines, or distil Oils or Waters, or make other Extracts, within any Part of His Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, that they and every of them, immediately after the said Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis shall be printed and published, do not compound or make any Medicine or Medicinal Receipt or Prescription, or distil any Oil or Waters, or make other Extracts that are or shall be in the said Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis mentioned or named, in any other Manner or Form than is or shall be directed, prescribed, and set down by the said Book, and according to the Weights and Measures that are or shall be therein limited, except it shall be by the special Direction or Prescription of some learned Physician in that Behalf: And His Majesty doth hereby declare, that the Offenders to the contrary shall not only incur His Majesty's just Displeasure, but be proceeded against for such their Contempt and Offences, according to the utmost Severity of Law.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Extracts, have been received at the Office of Lord Viscount Castlereagh, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Lieutenant-General Sir Arthur Wellesley, K. B.

My Lord, Placencia, 15th July 1809.

AFTER I had written to your Lordship on the 11th Instant, Joseph Bonaparte crossed the Tagus again, and joined Sebastiani with the Troops he had brought from Madrid, and with a Detachment from Marshal Victor's Corps, making the Corps of Sebastiani about Twenty-eight Thousand Men, with an Intention of attacking Vanegas' Corps. Vanegas, however, retired into the Mountains of the Sierra Morena, and Colonel Larey with his advanced Guard attacked a French advanced Corps in the Night, and destroyed many of them.

The French Troops then returned again to the Tagus, which River Joseph had crossed with the Reinforcement which he had taken to Sebastiani's Corps; and this last Corps, consisting of Ten Thousand Men only, was on the left Bank of the Tagus, about Madriejos, in Front of Vanegas, who was again advancing.

The last Accounts from this Quarter were of the 8th.

The French Army under Victor, joined by the Detachments brought by Joseph from Sebastiani's Corps, and amounting in the whole to about Thirty five Thousand Men, are concentrated in the Neighbourhood of Talavera, and on the Alberché; General Cuesta's Army has been in the Position which I informed your Lordship that it had taken up since I addressed you on the 11th Instant.

The Advanced Guard of the British Army arrived here on the 8th, and the Troops which were with me on the Tagus arrived by the 10th; the 23d Light Dragoons and the 48th arrived Yesterday; the 61st Regiment will arrive To-morrow.

I went to General Cuesta's Quarters at Almaraz on the 10th, and stayed there till the 12th, and I have arranged with that General a Plan of Operations upon the French Army, which we are to begin to carry into Execution on the 14th, if the French should remain so long in their Position.

The Spanish Army under General Cuesta consists of about Thirty eight Thousand Men, (exclusive of Vanegas's Corps) of which Seven Thousand are Cavalry. About Fourteen Thousand Men are detached to the Bridge of Arzobispo, and the Remainder are in the Camp under the Puerte de Mirabete.

I have the Pleasure to inform your Lordship, that the Seven Battalions of Infantry from Ireland and the Islands, and the Troop of Horse Artillery from Great-Britain, arrived at Lisbon in the Beginning of the Month.

General Crauford's Brigade is on its March to join the Army, but will not arrive here till the 24th or 25th.

I have the Honour to be,
ARTHUR WELLESLEY.

Talavera de la Reyna, July 24, 1809.

My Lord,

ACCORDING to the Arrangement which I had settled with General Cuesta, the Army broke up from Placencia on the 17th and 18th Instant, and reached Oropesa on the 20th, where it formed a Junction with the Spanish Army under his Command.

Sir Robert Wilson had marched from the Venta de Bazagon, on the Tietar, with the Lusitanian Legion, a Battalion of Portuguese Chasseurs, and Two Spanish Battalions on the 15th; he arrived at Arenas on the 19th, and on the Alberché, at Escalona, on the 23d.

General Vanegas had also been directed to break up from Madriejos on the 18th and 19th, and to march by Trembleque and Ocana to Puente de Guadalupe on the Tagus, where that River is crossed by a Ford, and thence to Arganda, where he was to arrive on the 22d and 23d.

On the 22d, the combined Armies moved from Oropesa, and the advanced Guards attacked the Enemy's Outposts at Talavera. Their Right was turned by the 1st Hussars and the 23d Light Dragoons under General Anson, directed by Lieutenant-General Payne, and by the Division of Infantry under the Command of Major-General Mackenzie, and they were driven in by the Spanish advanced Guards under the Command of General Sarjas and the Duc d'Albuquerque.

We lost Eleven Horses by the Fire of Cannon from the Enemy's Position on the Alberché, and the Spaniards had some Men wounded.

The Columns were formed for the Attack of this Position Yesterday; but the Attack was postponed till this Morning by Desire of General Cuesta, when the different Corps destined for the Attack were put in motion, but the Enemy had retired at about One in the Morning to Santa Ojalla, and thence towards Torrijos; I conclude to form a Junction with the Corps under General Sebastiani.

I have not been able to follow the Enemy as I could wish, on account of the great Deficiency of Means of Transport in Spain. I enclose the Copy of a Letter, which I thought it proper to address upon this Subject to Major-General O'Donoghue, the Adjutant-General of the Spanish Army, as soon as I found that this Country would furnish no Means of this Description.

General Cuesta has urged the Central Junta to adopt vigorous Measures to relieve our Wants: till I am supplied, I do not think it proper, and indeed I cannot, continue my Operations. I have great Hopes, however, that before long I shall be supplied from Andalusia and La Mancha with the Means which I require, and I shall then resume the active Operations which I have been compelled to relinquish.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c. &c.

(Signed) ARTHUR WELLESLEY.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been received at the Office of Lord Viscount Castlereagh, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Lieutenant-General the Earl of Chatham, K. G.

Head-Quarters, Middelburg,
7th August 1809.

MY LORD,
NOTHING very material has occurred since my last Dispatch of the 3d Instant. We have been unremittingly employed in bringing up the Artillery of Siege, Ammunition and Stores to the Vicinity of Flushing, and the Troops have been occupied in the Construction of the Batteries, and in carrying on the several Works before the Place, but which have been necessarily interrupted by the very heavy Rains which have fallen here.

The Enemy is active and enterprising, and the Garrison has certainly received considerable Reinforcements from the opposite Coast; nor has it been in the Power of the Flotilla hitherto to prevent it. Under these Circumstances it has been found necessary to land Lieutenant-General Grosvenor's Division, and the Two Light Battalions of the King's German Legion have been also for the present brought on Shore.

Immediately on the Fall of Ramakens, I determined, as soon as the necessary Arrangements were made, to pass the Infantry of Lieutenant-General the Earl of Rosklyn's Corps, together with Lieutenant-General the Marquis of Huntley's Division, and the Light Brigades of Artillery, into South-Beveland, to form a Junction with the Reserve under Lieutenant-General Sir John Hope, and that the Cavalry and Ordnance Ships, together with the Transports for Lieutenant-General Grosvenor's Division, the Moment their Services could be spared from before Flushing, should be brought through the Slow Passage, and proceed up the West Scheldt, but of course this latter Operation cannot take place until a sufficient Naval Force shall have been enabled to enter the River, and to proceed in advance, but the very severe blowing Weather we have constantly experienced, added to the great Difficulty of the Navigation, has hitherto baffled all their Efforts.

By Letters from Lieutenant-General Sir John Hope, I find that the Enemy had, on the 5th Instant, come down with about Twenty-eight Gun-Vessels before Batz, on which Place they kept up a smart Cannonade for some Hours, but were forced to retire by the Guns from the Fort, and every Thing has since remained quiet in that Quarter.

I have the Honour to enclose a Statement of the Casualties that have occurred in the several Corps before Flushing, since the last Returns of killed and wounded.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

R. LONG, Col. Adj. Gen.

MY LORD, Middelburg, 8th August 1809.
SINCE closing my Dispatch of Yesterday's Date, the Enemy, towards Five o'Clock in the Evening, in considerable Force, made a vigorous Sortie upon the Right of our Line occupied by Major-General Graham's Division.

The Attack was principally directed upon our advanced Piquets, which were supported by the 3d Battalion of the Royals, the 5th and 35th Regiments under Colonel Hay. These Corps, together with Detachments of the Royal Artillery, the 95th and light Battalions of the King's German Legion, received the Enemy with their accustomed Intrepidity; and after a sharp Contest of some Duration, forced him to retire with very considerable Loss in killed, wounded, and Prisoners.

In this Affair the Enemy has had another Opportunity of witnessing the superior Gallantry of British Troops; in no Instance has he succeeded in making the least Impression throughout our Line, and on this Occasion, so far from profiting by his Attempt, he has been obliged to relinquish some very advantageous Ground where our advanced Posts are now established.

I cannot too strongly express my Sense of the unremitting Vigilance and Ability manifested by Major-General Graham, in securing and maintaining his Post against the repeated Attempts of the Enemy to dislodge him; and I have great Satisfaction in acquainting your Lordship, that the Major-General mentions, in Terms of the warmest Approbation, the distinguished Conduct and Gallantry of the Officers and Troops engaged on this Occasion.

I am now enabled to transmit, for your Lordship's Information, an Abstract Return of the Ordnance, Ammunition, and Stores that have fallen into our Hands since our arrival in this Island.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

CHATHAM.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Collingwood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to the Honourable W. W. Pitt, dated on board the Ville de Paris, off Toulon, 11th Decr 1809.

SIR,

I HAVE received Two Letters from Captain Brenton of His Majesty's Ship Spartan, of Date the 27th April, and 5th May, relating the Proceedings of the Ships therein named with him at Pesaro, on 23d April, and at Ceseratico, on the 2d Ultimo; when, on both Occasions, all the Enemy's Vessels in those Ports were captured, and the Forts destroyed. no Loss was sustained on our Part, and this must be attributed to the well concerted measures which were taken for accomplishing this Service.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

COLLINGWOOD.

MY LORD, Spartan, Trieste, April 27, 1809

I HAVE the Honour to inform your Lordship, that being with the Amphion and Mercury off the Town of Pesaro, on the 23d Instant, I observed a Number of Vessels lying in the Mole, and thought it practicable to take Possession of them, for which purpose the Ships were anchored with Springs upon their Cables, within Half a Mile of the Town, the Boats formed into Two Divisions, the First consisting of Launches with Caronades, and other Boats carrying Field Pieces, under the Orders of Lieutenant Philott, First of the Amphion, took a Station to the Northward of the Town, and the Second Division, consisting of Rocket-Boats, under the Order of Lieut. Baumgardt, of the Spartan, to the Southward, both Divisions commanded by Lieutenant Willis, First of the Spartan; as soon as these Arrangements were made, I sent a Flag of Truce on Shore, to demand the Surrender of all the Vessels, adding, that should any Resistance be made, the Governor must be answerable for the Consequences. I gave him Half an Hour to deliberate.

At Half past Eleven A. M. the Officer returned with a Message from the Commandant, stating, that in Half an Hour I should receive his Answer.

I waited Thirty-five Minutes from the Time the Boat came alongside, when observing no Flag of Truce flying on Shore, but that Troops were assembling in considerable Numbers in the Streets, and on the Quays, and that the Inhabitants were busily employed in dismantling the Vessels, I hauled down the Flag of Truce, and fired One Shot over the Town to give Warning to the Women and Children, and shortly after made the Signal to commence firing, which was instantly obeyed by the Ships and Boats. At Thirty-two Minutes after Twelve, observing several Flags of Truce hung out in the Town, I made the Signal to cease firing, and Lieutenant Willis pulled into the Harbour, where he was informed that the Commandant had made his Escape with all the Military.

120. 16282.

B

I considered the Place as surrendered at Discretion, and gave Orders for all the Boats to be employed in bringing out the Vessels, and the Marines to be landed to protect them.

Lieutenant Willis made the most judicious Arrangements, to put these Orders into Execution; the Marines were drawn up on the Marina, under Lieutenant Moore of the Royal Marines of the Amphion, the Launches stationed in such a Manner as to enfilade the principal Streets; and the other Boats' Crews employed in rigging the Vessels, and laying out Warps to haul them off with, as soon as the Tide should flow.

About Two P. M. I received a Letter from the Commandant, dated Half past One, demanding another Hour for Deliberation; I refused him a Moment, and told him that in case of Resistance, I should destroy the Town.

By half-past Six, Thirteen Vessels deeply laden, as per inclosed List, were brought off; several others had been scuttled by the Inhabitants, and sunk; some were still aground, and dismantled; there were besides a few in Ballast, and a Number of Fishing Vessels.

I should have burnt the Merchant Vessels, but was apprehensive of setting Fire to the Town, and destroying the Fishing Boats, I therefore directed Lieutenant Willis to blow up the Castle at the Entrance of the Harbour, and bring off his People; this he did at Seven o'Clock.

I am happy to say we did not hear of any Lives being lost in the Town, although many of the Houses were much damaged; One Man only was killed by the Explosion of the Castle; after the March had been lighted, and our People retreated, he approached it; a Musket was fired over him to drive him away, but he sought Refuge behind the Castle, and was buried in its Ruins.

As the Enemy made no active Resistance, I can only express my Admiration of the Zeal and Promptitude with which Captain Holte and the Honourable Henry Duncan, executed the Orders they received, and the Manner in which they placed their Ships. Lieutenant Willis upon this, as upon every other Occasion, displayed the greatest Energy, Skill, and Judgment; the Arrangements he made for the Defence of his Party, whilst in the Harbour, and the Expedition used in sending out the Prizes, do him the highest Credit.

Lieutenant Philott and Lieutenant Baumgardt, in the Command of their respective Divisions, and Lieutenant Moore in that of the Marines, was also exemplary.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

List of Enemy's Vessels captured in the Port of Pesaro, by His Majesty's Ships Spartan, Amphion, and Mercury, on the 23d of April 1809.

St. Nicholas, of 138 Tons, laden with Oil and Almonds.

Il Practico, of 90 Tons, laden with Oil.

L'Azzardo Fortunato, of 54 Tons, laden with Oil.

A Vessel, Name unknown, of 130 Tons, laden with Oil, Hides, and Almonds.

A Vessel, Name unknown, of 90 Tons, laden with Oil and Hemp.

St. Antonio, of 120 Tons, laden with Oil.
 St. Antonio, of 100 Tons, laden with Plank and Spar.
 Santo Nio, of 56 Tons, laden with Morocco Leather, Hides, Bees' Wax, and Plank.
 Name unknown, of 30 Tons, laden with Oil and Hides.
 Charlotte Fortunato, of 56 Tons, laden with Oil.
 Name unknown, of 53 Tons, laden with Oil.
 Ditto, of 60 Tons, Oil, Almonds, Figs, Candles.
 Providenza, of 30 Tons, laden with Oil.
 Total—13 Vessels.

MY LORD, Spartan off Rovigno, May 5, 1809.
 ON the 2d Instant the Spartan and Mercury chased Two Vessels into the Port of Cefenatico, the Entrance of which is very narrow, and was defended by a Battery of Two Guns (Twenty-four Pounders) and a Castle; observing at the same Time several other Vessels lying there, I determined to take Possession of them if possible. This Coast is so shoal, that we had only Four Fathoms considerably out of Gun-shot of the Town; I was therefore under the Necessity of sending the Boats a-head, and on each Bow to lead us in, with Directions to make a Signal when in Three Fathoms.

We were by this Means enabled to anchor at Noon in a Quarter Three, within Range of Grape of the Battery, and very soon silenced it, when the Boats under the Command of Lieutenant Willis 1st of the Spartan pushed in, and took Possession of it, turning the Guns upon the Castle and Town, which were soon after deserted. We captured in the Port Twelve Vessels, some laden with Corn for Venice, and the others being in Ballast. We filled them with Hemp and Iron out of the Magazines for those Articles that were on the Quay, and in which the Sails and Rudders of some of the Vessels were concealed.

Another large Vessel laden with Iron, which lay at the Entrance of the Harbour scuttled, we burnt, and after blowing up the Castle and Magazine, destroying the Battery, and spiking the Guns, the Boats came off, I am happy to say, without the Loss of a Man, or any Person being wounded, although much exposed to the Fire of the Battery, as well as Musketry, nor was any Damage done to the Ships.

The Mercury, from Captain Duncan's Anxiety to place her as near the Town as possible, took the Ground, but in so favourable a Position as gave the fullest Effect to her Fire. She was however hove off by Six P. M. without having sustained any Injury. I never witnessed more Zeal and Energy than was evinced by Captain Duncan upon this Occasion. Lieutenant Willis displayed great Gallantry in taking Possession of the Battery the Moment the Ships had ceased firing; in the Expedition with which he turned the Guns against the Place; his Exertions also in bringing out the Vessels were very great. Much Credit is also due to the Officers and Men of both Ships for their Activity.

I have the Honour to be, &c.
