A LETTER from Rear Admiral Sir Richard John Strachan to the Honourable William Wellesley Pole, dated on board St. Domingo, Flushing, 17th August 1809, transmits one from Sir Richard Goodwin Keats, including the Terms of Capitulation for the Surrender of the Towns of Zeirikzee and Browershaven, with the whole of the Islands of Schowen and Duiveland, of which the following is a Copy.

ARTICLES of CAPITULATION, entered into for the Surrender of the Towns of Zeirik Zee and Browershaven, and the Whole of the Islands of Schowen and Duiveland, to His Britannick Majesty's Forces, and concluded between the Earl of Roslyn, Lieutenant-General, and Richard Goodwin Keats, K. B. Rear-Admiral of the Blue, on the One Part; and Mr. J. Nelemans Mr. Secretary Van Dopff and Mr. J. de Kater, Members of the Regency Deputies from the Towns of Zeirik Zee and Browershaven, and the Whole of the Islands of Schowen and Duiveland, on the other Part.

The said Deputies, in Consequence of the Eighth Article of the Capitulation of the Town of Middleburgh, communicated to them by the Prefect of Zeeland, and in Conformity to the Disposition from him of the Sixth August, have expressed their Readiness, to accede to the Conditions of the said Capitulation, and to surrender the Towns of Zeirik Zee and Browershaven, and the Whole of the Islands of Schowen and Duiveland, to His Britannick Majesty's Forces, upon the following Articles of Capitulation.

Art. I. Security shall be granted to every Person, public Functionaries, private Persons, Citizens, and Inhabitants, whatever their political Opinions may have been, or now are, provided they conduct themselves as peaceable Citizens, and conform to such Regulations as shall be hereafter established by the Authority of the British Government.

Art. II. Protection shall be granted to all private Property, but all publick Property is to be accounted for, to such Commissioners as shall be named by the General and Admiral commanding His Britannick Majesty's Forces.

Art. III. The Arms of the Inhabitants, which have been received from the Government, shall be delivered up to such Officer as shall be appointed on the Part of His Britannick Majesty, to receive the same; but it shall be permitted to the Magistrates to retain such Proportion of them, and to arm such Part of the Burghers for the Purposes of the internal Police of the Towns, as shall appear to be proper and necessary, to the Officers commanding in the Island on the Part of His Britannick Majesty; but none shall be retained or used, except subject to His Authority and His Discretion.

Art. IV. Publick Functionaries and their Families, shall be permitted, if they desire it, to return to any other Part of Holland; but such as shall remain; shall, if required and authorized so to do, by the Officer commanding in the Islands, continue to exercise their several Functions, for the Administration of the Affairs of the Towns and Islands aforesaid.

Art. V. Inhabitants who are absent from their Houses shall be permitted to return with their property subject to the Conditions in the First Article.

Art. VI. Every Care will be taken that the Quartering of the Troops stationed in the Towns and Islands shall be made as little Burthenfome to the Inhabitants as possible.

Art. VII. If any misunderstanding shall arise regarding the foregoing Articles, they shall be explained in Favour of the Inhabitants of the Towns and Islands aforesaid.

Done on Board His Britannick Majesty's Ship Superb off Cattendyke 15th August 1809.

ROSSLYN, Lieutenant-General
