AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 16th of August 1809,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth of April One thousand eight hundred and nine, to authorize the Governors and Lieutenant-Governors of His Majesty's Islands and Colonies in the West Indies, (in which Description the Bahama Islands and the Bermuda or Somer Islands were included,) and of any Lands or Territories on the Continent of South America to His Majesty belonging, to permit for Twelve Months from the Date of the said Order, subject to be sooner terminated, varied, or altered, in any Ships or Vessels belonging to the Subjects of any State in Amity with His Majesty, the Importation into the said Islands, Colonies, Lands and Territories respectively, of certain Articles enumerated in the said Order, being the Growth or Produce of the Country to which such Ship or Vessel importing the same should belong, and also the Exportation from the said Islands, Colonies, Lands and Territories respectively, into which the Importation of Staves, Lumber and Provisions shall be made, of Rum and Molasses, and of any other Articles, Goods and Commodities whatsoever, except Sugar, Indigo, Cotton-Wool, Coffee and Cocoa; provided that such Ships or Vessels should duly enter into, report, and deliver their respective Cargoes, and reload at such Ports only where regular Custom-Houses should have been established.

But His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, was thereby further pleased to order, that nothing therein contained should be construed to permit, after the First of November One thousand eight hundred and nine, the Importation of Staves, Lumber, Horses, Mules Asses, Neat Cattle, Sheep, Hogs, Poultry, Live Stock, Live Provisions, or any Kind of Provisions whatsoever, into any of the said Islands, Colonies, Lands, or Territories in which there should not be, at the Time when such Articles should be brought for Importation, a Tonnage Duty of not less than Five Shillings per Ton on every Ship or Vessel bringing the same, according to the Admeasurement such Ship or Vessel; nor to permit, after the First of July One thousand eight hundred and nine the Importation of Fish into any of the said Islands, Colonies, Lands, or Territories in which there should not be, at the Time when such Fish should be brought for Importation, a Duty of not less than One Shilling Sterling per Quintal on Dried or Salted Cod, or Ling Fish, cured or salted; and a proportionate Duty per Barrel on Cured or Pickled Shads, Alewives, Mackarel, or Salmon, so imported; and also a Tonnage Duty to the Amount above mentioned on every Ship or Vessel bringing such Fish, according to the Admeasurement of such Ship or Vessel.

And whereas it has been represented, that the Legislature of the Island of Jamaica have passed an Act, imposing the Duties hereinafter mentioned on the Vessels and Produce of the United States of America imported into that Island, in Addition to another Law in force in the said Island, laying a Duty of Two Shillings Sterling per Quintal on Cod Fish, and a proportionate Duty per Barrel on Pickled Shads, and other Pickled Fish so imported from the United States.

Which New Duties are as follows:

	Current Money of Jamaica.
On the Vessels, per Ton,	£ 6 8
On Wheat Flour per Barrel, not weighing more than One Hundred and Ninety-six Pounds Net Weight,	0 6 8
On Bread or Biscuit of Wheat Flour, or any other Grain; per Barrel, not weighing more than One Hundred Pounds Net Weight,	0 3 4
On Bread, for every Hundred Pounds made from Wheat or any other Grain whatever, imported in Bags, or other Packages than Barrels, weighing as aforesaid,	0 3 4
On Flour or Meal made from Rye, Pease, Beans, Indian Corn, or other Grain than Wheat, per Barrel, not weighing more than One Hundred and Ninety-six Pounds,	0 3 4
On Pease, Beans, Rye, Indian Corn, Callivancies, or other Grain, per Bushel,	0 0 10
On Rice, for every One Hundred Pounds Net Weight,	0 3 4

Current Money
of Jamaica.

And so in proportion for a less or larger Quantity.

On Shingles, called Boston Chips, not more than Twelve Inches in Length, per Thousand, - - - - -

£ 3 4

On Shingles, being more than Twelve Inches in Length, per Thousand, - - - - -

0 6 8

For every Twelve Hundred (commonly called One thousand) of Red Oak Staves, - - - - -

0 15 0

For every Twelve Hundred (commonly called One Thousand) of White Oak Staves, and for every One Thousand Pieces of Heading, - - - - -

0 15 0

For every One Thousand Feet of White or Yellow Pine, Lumber of all Descriptions, - - - - -

0 10 0

For every Thousand Feet of Pitch Pine Lumber, - - - - -

0 15 0

For all other Kinds of Wood or Timber not before enumerated, - - - - -

0 15 0

For every One Thousand Wood-Hoops, - - - - -

And in Proportion for a less or larger Quantity of all and every the Articles enumerated.

Horses, Neat Cattle, or other Live Stock, or other Goods, Wares, and Merchandize whatsoever, which by Law may be imported into Jamaica from the United States of North America, not before enumerated and taxed, for every One Hundred Pounds of the Value thereof, at the Port or Place of Importation, - - - - -

10 0 0

And whereas the Tonnage Duty of Six Shillings and Eight Pence current Money of Jamaica, is not equal to Five Shillings British, required by the said Order to be imposed on Vessels importing such Articles as aforesaid, but such Deficiency in the Tonnage Duty appears to be fully compensated by the Duties as aforesaid; imposed on the Articles imported in such Vessels; His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to authorize the Governor and Lieutenant-Governor of the said Island of Jamaica, and the Governors and Lieutenant-Governors of all His Majesty's Islands and Colonies in the West Indies, (including therein the Bahama Islands and the Bermuda or Somer Islands,) and of any Lands or Territories on the Continent of South America to His Majesty belonging, in which Duties, equal in Amount, when taken together, to those imposed as aforesaid, by the Legislature of the Island of Jamaica have been or shall be granted on the Importation of the several Articles specified in the said Order of the 12th of April, and on the Vessels importing the same, to permit notwithstanding any Thing in the said Order of the 12th of April last, the Importation and Exportation into and from the said Islands, Colonies, Lands, and Territories of the several Articles mentioned and permitted in the said Order of the 12th of April last, for the Period thereby allowed, subject to be sooner determined, varied or altered as therein expressed.

Admiralty-Office, September 16, 1809.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Whitshed, Commander in Chief on the Coast of Ireland, to the Hon. William Wellesley Pole, dated at Cork, the 8th Instant.

SIR,

I TRANSMIT herewith, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Copy of a Letter that I received from Captain Worth, of His Majesty's Sloop Helena, stating his having captured, on the 1st Instant, in Latitude 45. 0. N. and Longitude 8. 10. W., Le Jafon, French Lugger Privateer; and I have to acquaint you, that Le Jafon arrived at this Port last Evening.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) JAMES H. WHITSHED,
Vice-Admiral.

SIR,

Helena at Sea, September 1, 1809.

I HAVE the Honour to acquaint you, that His Majesty's Sloop, under my Command, captured this Afternoon Le Jafon French Lugger Privateer, (pierced for Ten Guns and Forty-four Men, from Bayonne, Twenty-one Days, not made a Capture) after a Chace of Seventy Miles; she threw her Guns overboard except Two. Her Capture was fortunate, as she would have intercepted the Packet, which I crossed during the Chace, and answered her private Signals; suppose her to have been from Lisbon.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

J. A. WORTH.

Vice-Admiral Whitshed, &c. &c. &c. Cork.

Holyhead Harbour.

Notice is hereby given, that Application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing Session, for Leave to bring in a Bill, and obtain an Act for the making of a Pier or Piers, or other Works for the Improvement of the Harbour of Holyhead, and for the making of a Road through the said Harbour, and the adjoining Lands, from or near a certain Inn called the Eagle and Child, to and through a certain Island called Ynys Halen, or Salt Island; which said intended Road is to form a Communication between the Road near the said Inn, and the Pier or Piers, or other Works proposed to be made, all of which are in the Parish and Island of Holyhead, and County of the Isle of Anglesea.—House of Commons, September 14, 1809.

Sam. Gunning, Parliamentary Agent.

New intended Turnpike Road from Colne to Addingham.

Notice is hereby given, that Application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next Session, for Leave to bring in a Bill, and for an Act for continuing the Term and altering and enlarging the Powers of an Act, passed in the Thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing the Road from Colne to Blackburn, in the County of Lancaster," and for increasing the Tolls granted by the said Act; and for making, maintaining, improving, and keeping in Repair a Road from the said last mentioned Road to Addingham and Cocking End, both in the West Riding of the County of York; which said first mentioned Road passes from, through, and into the several Townships of Colne, Great Marsden, Little Marsden, Reedley Hallows, Burnley, Habergham Eaves, Padiham, Altham, and Clayton-le-Moors, all in the Parish of Whalley, in the said County of Lancaster, and through and into the several Townships of Rishton and Blackburn, both in the Parish of Blackburn aforesaid; and the said Road to Addingham and Cocking End passes, or is intended to pass from, through, and into the several Townships of Colne aforesaid, and Toubridge, in the Parish of Whalley aforesaid, in the said County of Lancaster, and the several Townships of Cowling, Sutton, Glusburn, Kildwick, Steeton, and Silsden, all in the Parish of Kildwick aforesaid, and into and through the Township of Addingham aforesaid, in the Parish of Addingham aforesaid, in the West Riding of the said County of York; and it is intended, in case it shall be deemed expedient and advantageous for the said Truist, to repeal the said Act, and also several other Acts, passed respectively in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His late

Majesty King George the Second, and the Twenty-first and Forty-third Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for repairing, widening, and amending the Road from Cocking End, near Addingham, in the West Riding of the County of York, through Kildwick to Black Lane End, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, and to consolidate the Powers of the said Acts (together with such other and further Powers and Provisions, as shall be found necessary for the more effectually repairing and improving the said respective Roads) in one Act of Parliament, and under one Trust.—Dated at Colne this 7th Day of September 1809.

John Hargreaves, Solicitor.

Notice is hereby given, that an Application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next Session, for Leave to bring in a Bill, in order to obtain an Act of Parliament for better supplying the Town of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, in the County of Southampton, and the Parts and Places adjacent, with Water, from certain Springs and Waters in the Parish of Carisbrooke, in the same Isle; and also for making public Conduits and other Water-works in the same Town, and for making Common Sewers in and through the same.—Dated this 15th Day of September 1809.

Thomas Sewell, Solicitor.

Notice is hereby given, that Application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next Session, for an Act to extend the Term, increase the Tolls, and alter and enlarge the Powers of an Act, passed in the Forty-first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue for Twenty-one Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, the Term and alter and enlarge the Powers of Two Acts, passed in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, and in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for repairing and widening the Road from the Bars at Boughton, within the Liberties of the City of Chester, to Whitchurch, and from thence to Newport, in the County of Salop, and several other Roads therein mentioned, so far as the said Acts relate to the Road leading from Whitchurch aforesaid, through Ternhill, to Newport aforesaid, being the Second District of Roads in the said Acts mentioned," and also of the said Two Acts in that Act mentioned, so far as the said Three several Acts relate to the Road leading from Ternhill to Newport aforesaid, being the Newport Division of the Second District of Roads in the said Acts mentioned.

Thomas Morris, Solicitor.
