

Prophetess: that Popery, and Fanaticisme shall be depressed, and the true Protestant Religion in its Purity (as established by Law in the Church of England) shall be supported amongst us; so that if Your Majesties Ministers and Officers, in their respective places, do with cheerfulness and vigor discharge their Trusts and Duties, all the Designs of Factions and Ill Men, will be so obviated and defeated, that Your Majesties Reign over us (which we pray God long to continue) will be crowned with Serenity and Peace. And as we have the Honour to be a Corporation, by the Grace and Favour of Your Majesties Royal Ancestors; we shall with all cheerfulness and courage, discharge our Duties to Your Majesty and the Laws in our several capacities and Stations: And do humbly offer up to Your Majesty our Lives and Fortunes, and our All, to Defend Your Majesties Royal Person, Prerogatives and Rights, against all attempts whatsoever; and will continue True, Loyal and Faithful Subjects to Your most Sacred Majesty, Your Heirs and lawful Successors. Signed 14. Feb. 1724

The Humble Address of Your Majesties Loyal Subjects, of the Town and Port of Deal.

May it please Your Majesty,

WHEREAS we cannot but be sensible of the great Happiness and Prosperity we and all Your good Subjects have lived in under Your Majesties most Gracious Government, since Your Majesties most blessed Restoration; we do think that we should appear a most ungrateful People both to God and our King, if we should not render Thanks to both; especially at this time when Your Majesty has by a new Instance of Love to Your Subjects, condescended by a late Declaration (which we have heard read) to promise a continuation of all our Happiness, by giving Your Royal Word, in all things to Govern according to the Laws of the Kingdom, by which we hope the present establishment by Law, both in Church and State, under which, this Nation has for so many years (and alone) flourished, to be so secured unto us, that the Plots and Conspiracies of (whosoever) evil Men shall not be able to change or ruine it.

And therefore we beseech Your Majesty to accept of, and believe that we do render Your Majesty our most hearty and unfeigned Thanks for this Your Princely Care of us, and all Your Obedient and Loyal Subjects.

And because (as we hear) many proud, restless and Ambitious Men, our fellow Subjects, do by scandalous Pamphlets or other ways, endeavour to asperse and defame Your Majesties Royal Person and Government, And some make it their business to encroach upon the Regalties, to lessen and diminish the just Prerogatives of this Imperial Crown of England; nay, and (perhaps) even to change the Monarchy into a Common-wealth, and again, to banish or extirpate the Royal Family, and bring us into bondage under the Tyranny of an armed Fanatical Merciless Multitude; whilst others of Popish Principles seek the death of Your Sacred Majesty, to change our Religion, to introduce Idolatry and Superstition.

We Humbly beseech Your Majesty to believe that we detest and abhor the Principles and Endeavours of all such evil Men: And that we will in defence of Your Majesties Person and Government, of Your Heirs and Successors, and of our Religion, as by Law now established, spend the last drop of our Blood, and every thing that is near and dear unto us, valuing our Consciences and Loyalty to our King, more than any thing in this World. And so praying God to Grant Your Majesty a long, peaceful and triumphant Reign over us here, and after that to reward You with a Crown of Joy and Glory in Heaven We Subscribe Your Majesties most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects. Signed by 362.

May it please Your most Sacred Majesty,

WE your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the ancient Burrough of Great Marlow in the County of Bucks, having with great joy heard Your Majesties most Gracious Declaration read in our Church, with all Humility return Your Sacred Majesty our most unfeigned and hearty Thanks for the same; especially for Your Royal Care so to maintain the Protestant Religion, as now by Law established amongst us; and Your Gracious Promises of having frequent Parliaments, and of fast making the known Laws Your Rule, and of Declaring Your Royal intencion of not suffering any others to exercise Arbitrary Power over us. In acknowledgment of which transcendent Favours we humbly pray, we do lay at Your Sacred Majesties Feet, the promise of our poor assistance with our Lives and Fortunes, against all manner of Opposers. Blessing God for giving us such an Excellent Prince, and praying for Your Majesties long Life, Health and Happiness. Signed by 222.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Loyal Party of Your Majesties antient Town and Burrough of Chesterfield in Your County of Derby.

WE Your Majesties most Humble, most Obedient, and most Dutiful Subjects, doe heartily, with all cheerful, humble, and due Submission and Obedience, return our Loyal Thanks to Your most Sacred Majesty for Your most Gracious Declaration, and principally for asserting and supporting Your Royal Prerogative, in Calling, and Dissolving Parliaments at Your Princely Pleasure, and thereby preserving us from the late growing Usurpation, of Arbitrary Government, by imprisoning Your Majesties Subjects, and other irregularities, committed by the late House of Commons; And for that Your Majesty will put the Laws in execution against all Dissenters, of what sort soever, from the true Protestant Church of England, which is a sure support of Monarchy, a curb to Dissolaty, and the only strong Tower of Defence against Rome, and the Phanaticks, the Nurslings of the Pope.

For these Your Majesties most Royal and Graciously Mercies and Favours, we, as in Duty bound, submit, and offer both our Lives and Fortunes to Your Majesties Command, for the preservation of your Majesties most Sacred Person, the lawful Heirs of your Imperial Crown and the established Laws of this Nation. Your Majesties most Loyal Subj. &c.
