THE following Address having been transmitted to the Earl of Liverpool, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been, by his Lordship, presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen, met at Aberdeen, this 11th Day of October 1809, participating in that Joy, which universally prevails in your Dominions, on the approaching Anniversary of your Accession to the Throne, beg Leave, with all Humility and Respect, to express to your Majesty, the Sense, which we entertain of the Divine Goodness, in having blessed these Realms with your Majesty's mild and equitable Government for near Half a Century.

Whether we contrast the Instability of other Thrones, with the firm Basis on which that of your Majesty is placed; whether we look Abroad to the Misery of the surrounding Nations, or at Home to the Happiness of our own; whether we contemplate the Comforts enjoyed by all Classes of your Majesty's Subjects in this favoured Land, or reflect on the Encouragement afforded to Religion in general, by your Majesty's Example and Influence, and the Support experienced by our own Ecclesiastical Establishment in particular; our Hearts are filled with the most lively Sentiments of Gratitude and Attachment: and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will continue to maintain and advance the Interests of Religion, and to inculcate on the People committed to our Care, that Righteousness which exalts a Nation, and to guard them against that Sin, which is the Reproach, and must be the Ruin of any People.

That your Majesty may long sway the Sceptre of this Kingdom; that under the Weight of declining Years, you may be solaced by the Love and Veneration of your Subjects, and the Duty and Affection of your Family; and that when you shall be called upon to resign your earthly Crown, a heavenly Crown may be the Reward of your Piety, and many other exalted Virtues, is the Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen, and subscribed in our Name and Presence, and by our Appointment by Gavin Mitchell, Moderator.
