GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 18th of October 1809,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this Day ordered, by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Thursday the Second Day of November next, be further prorogued to Tuesday the Fifth Day of December next.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 18th of October 1809,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Majesty, in Council, that in His Majesty's Order in Council of the Fifth of April One thousand eight hundred and five, appointing the Places for the Performance of Quarantine by Ships and Vessels bound to the several Ports of this Kingdom, Highlake, near Liverpool, is prescribed as the Place for the Performance of Quarantine by Vessels arriving at the Port of Liverpool, liable thereto; but that Bromborough Pool has been found, on a careful Inquiry recently made, to be a safer and more convenient Place for the Performance thereof; His Majesty is therefore pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that all such Ships or Vessels as are or shall be bound to the Port of Liverpool, or any Creek or Place belonging to or within the said Port, from any Place or Places from whence Quarantine is required to be performed, shall in future perform their Quarantine in Bromborough Pool, instead of Highlake: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Farwell.

Queen's Palace, October 25, 1809.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Earl of Liverpool, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been, by his Lordship, presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Council of Liverpool, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Council of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Liverpool, in Council assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne at this particular Period, with the most heartfelt Emotions of Joy and Gratitude, and to be permitted to express our deep and awful Sense of the Goodness of Divine Providence to this highly favoured Kingdom, in the Continuance of your Majesty's long and glorious Reign.

Impressed with the inestimable Value of your Majesty's Life, we are particularly anxious to offer our renewed Assurances of Fidelity and Attachment to a Sovereign, not less to be revered for his domestic Virtues, than honoured for the Practice of those Principles which, as they cast such resplendent Rays on the Morning of your Majesty's Reign, do also gild the Evening of it with increasing Lustre.

We earnestly and devoutly supplicate the great Disposer of all Events, that your Majesty may long live to enjoy the Blessings of your pious and patriotic Conduct, and continue the happy Instrument of preserving, in the most exalted Degree, the civil and religious Liberties of a free, loyal, and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal, at Liverpool aforesaid, this 4th Day of October 1809.

[Transmitted by Lieutenant-General Gascoyne.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal, and grateful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Council of the Borough of Kidwelly, in the County of Carmarthen, assembled at the Guildhall of the said Borough, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's sacred Person, with our warmest Congratulations on the memorable and happy Epoch of your Majesty entering into the Fiftieth Year of your august Reign, and humbly crave Permission to unite our cheerful Voices with a loyal and affectionate People, and with gladdened Hearts to testify the grateful Sense they entertain of the manifold Blessings bestowed by Providence upon this favoured Land, during the benign Reign of your gracious Majesty, extended to a Length but little known in the History of Empires.

The unrivalled Eminence the Arts have attained under your Majesty's fostering Protection, the Extension of the Commerce of the Nation to an Height unequalled in the Annals of the World, the brilliant Achievements of the Navy, the natural Bulwark of the Country, and the splendid Gallantry of the Army, all unite to confirm the grateful Sense felt in common by your Majesty's loving Subjects, for the Blessings universally enjoyed under the mild and equal Administration of the Laws which form so eminent a Feature in the History of your Majesty's Reign, affording at the same Time an instructive Example to future Monarchs, and a grateful Theme of Admiration and Applause to the surrounding Nations of the Earth, for the remotest Ages.

Full of Praise and Thanksgiving for the manifold Blessings vouchsafed to these Realms, during your Majesty's long and arduous Reign, we humbly approach the Throne of Grace, and with grateful Hearts implore the Almighty Author of all Human Excellence, to have the revered and well beloved Sovereign of a loyal and faithful People in his Holy keeping; and that by the Extension of your Majesty's Reign, we may during many revolving Years repeat the Universal Jubilee, which on the happy Occasion animates all Classes of your People, vying with each other in Acts of Loyalty and Assurances of Attachment to your Throne and Family, forcibly and with Truth felt by all, but by none with more Sincerity and Affection than your sacred Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects of your ancient and leige Town and Borough of Kidwelly.

James Roberts, Mayor, T. W. Nevill, Town Clerk.

Kidwelly, Wednesday, October 25, 1809.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Capital Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Dorchester, in the County of Dorset, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our unfeigned Congratulations on the Occasion of your Majesty having attained the Fiftieth Year of your Reign. We are truly thankful for the Happiness and Tranquillity which we have enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government; and gratefully acknowledge, that it is to your Majesty's exemplary Virtues, under Favour of Divine Providence, that we owe our Preservation from the dreadful Calamities which have overwhelmed the Rest of Europe; and we earnestly pray, that your Majesty may yet many Years continue to be the Guardian of the Liberties, the Laws, and the Religion of an affectionate and loyal People.

[Transmitted by the Honourable C. A. Cooper, Esq; and Robert Williams, Esq; the Members, and Charlton Byham Wollaston, Esq; the Recorder of the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgeses, of the Borough of Newport in the Isle of Wight, in Common-Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgeses of the Borough of Newport in the Isle of Wight, humbly beg Leave to offer our most sincere and loyal Congratulations, on this great Epoch of your Majesty's Reign.

The Blessings which Providence has bestowed on these favoured Nations, have been pre-eminently great; and we entertain the most sanguine Hopes, that the truly pious and exemplary Conduct of their beloved Sovereign during a long and arduous Reign, (earnestly endeavoured to be faithfully, though imperfectly followed, by all your Majesty's true and loyal Subjects,) will continue to these Dominions, those Blessings we have constantly enjoyed under your Majesty's benign Government, and to which we sincerely lament other Countries have been so long Strangers.

That your Majesty may many Years continue to reign over these your happy Dominions, is the fervent Prayer of us your faithful Subjects, firmly attached to your Majesty's Government and Royal House.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall of the Borough of Newport, on the 25th Day of October, in the Fiftieth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates, Clergy, Gentry, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of Birmingham and its Neighbourhood, beg Leave, with heartfelt Congratulations, to approach your Throne on the Day which introduces the Fiftieth Year of your Majesty's Reign over a free and loyal People.

We cannot, Sire, contemplate the extraordinary Events which have convulsed, and in Succession overthrown, some of the most ancient Dynasties of Europe, the Perils to which the British Empire has been exposed, the arduous Contest in which it is engaged, without offering to Heaven the Tribute of unfeigned Gratitude for the great Blessings and Happiness which, amidst the Disasters of surrounding Nations, we, under your Majesty's wise and mild Government, have continued to enjoy.

We rejoice, Sire, in the Opportunity which this Day presents, of laying before your Throne our humble Testimony to the Virtues of a Monarch, not less distinguished by unshaken Firmness and Patriotism in the Discharge of his public Duties, than by the Purity of his Example as a Husband, a Father, and a Christian.

In a Life adorned by such Virtues, and so long preferred to us, your grateful People have beheld an illustrious Pledge of their National Security and Greatness.

May God long preserve your Majesty, as "His Minister to us for good;" may the Evening of your Days be gladdened by the increased Prosperity, and affectionate Loyalty of your People; may the choicest Blessings of Heaven rest on your Royal House; and may your Majesty's Imperial Inheritance, enriched by the Memory of your illustrious Virtues, descend, and be transmitted unimpaired, to your Posterity for ever.

Signed by the Direction of the Magistrates, Clergy, Gentry, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of Birmingham and its Neighbourhood, James Alston, High Bailiff, Edward Cairns, Low Bailiff.

Birmingham, 25th October 1809.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty, The humble Address of the Provincial Synod of Merse and Teviotdale.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Members of the Provincial Synod of Merse and Teviotdale, being assembled on this Anniversary of your Accession to the Throne of these Realms, joyfully embrace the Opportunity of mingling our cordial Congratulations with those of our fellow Subjects upon your Majesty's entering on the Fiftieth Year of your Reign.

The uniform and sacred Regard shewn to the Interests of Religion, and to the Protection and Security of the established Churches of the Empire, the liberal Toleration extended to Dissenters of all Denominations, the Encouragement given to the Diffusion of the Gospel, the anxious Desire evinced to preserve the Rights and Privileges, and to promote the Prosperity and Happiness of all your Subjects, justly endear your Majesty to a free, a loyal, and happy People; and must unite their Hearts with ours in fervent Prayer to Almighty God, for the Prolongation of a Life productive of such inestimable Blessings, and distinguished by so many private Virtues.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Kello, this 25th Day of October 1809 Years, by John Elliot, Moderator.

[Transmitted by the Rev. John Elliot, Moderator.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of Portsmouth, Portsea, and their Vicinities.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to offer our most unfeigned and heartfelt Congratulations on this Day. While we express our Feelings on this happy Occasion, we find ourselves imperiously called on by every Sentiment which can animate a grateful People, to state to your Majesty some general Reasons, from the Contemplation of which, not only our Joy is derived, but also the Veneration and Attachment, we are proud to declare, we entertain for your royal and august Person. In doing this, we look back to the auspicious Day when your Majesty's illustrious Family was placed on the Throne of this Kingdom, which Event we consider as the primary Source that has progressively advanced this Country to the distinguished Situation in which it now stands, whether we view it in respect to its unexampled Prosperity, its unfaded Glory, or its pre-eminent and justly-envied Liberty.

But to the present Generation it was reserved to behold your Majesty reigning over these Dominions for nearly Half a Century, in Times of portentous and unexampled Difficulty; during which we have seen Events arise, of such extraordinary and unprecedented a Nature, as would, but for the unshaken Firmness and manly Determination of your Majesty, inevitably have terminated in the most distressing and fatal Consequences. To the upright and judicious Exercise of these Qualities by your Majesty, we owe the Preservation of our holy Religion, and of our glorious Constitution, as by Law established, and as handed down to us by our Ancestors.

In the many Trials of Danger to which your Majesty's Person and Government have been exposed, amidst the general Wreck of Nations, and the overthrow of nearly every other civilized Establishment in Europe; we have beheld your Majesty's Virtues and Courage surmount every Difficulty, and guided by them we have happily been led from Dismay and Apprehension, to Confidence and internal Tranquillity; but of all the Qualities that adorn your Majesty or endear you most to us, whether we view you in the Relations of private Life, or in the high Situation of King and Father to us all, there is none for which you are more conspicuous, or more gratified in the Exercise of, than in shewing Mercy to the miserable and unfortunate Offenders against the Laws of their Country. In return for this and the other inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Government, we will not cease to pray, that your Majesty may live to enjoy many, many Returns of this Day; and when it may please the Almighty Disposer of all Events to call you to a better Kingdom, that you may there meet the Reward due to your exemplary Virtues; and that the Successor to your Majesty may follow your good and glorious Example, and may, like you, be blessed with loyal, brave, and grateful Subjects.
