

Few Monarchs have, for so long a Period, held the Reigns of Government in this, or in any other Country. None has ever reigned in the Hearts of his Subjects, so long or so deservedly, as your Majesty.

Whether we contemplate the Security of your Majesty's Government, as contrasted with the Fate of the other Governments of Europe, or whether we compare the Liberty of your Majesty's Subjects, as well political as religious, with the State of Slavery and Dependance into which the Continent of Europe is unhappily fallen, we feel abundant Claims upon our Gratitude and Affection. And we cannot but attribute the Blessings we enjoy, in a great Measure, to the high Favour which your Majesty's illustrious Example, in Religion and Virtue, by the Benignity of Heaven, has obtained.

Still long may your Majesty continue to reign over us; and when the Close of your earthly Kingdom shall arrive, may it open to your Majesty a Kingdom which fadeth not away, eternal in the Heavens.

Signed at the Request of the Meeting,
J. Govett, Mayor.
