To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and loyal Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newark-upon-Trent, in the County of Nottingham.

S I R E,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newark-upon-Trent, in the County of Nottingham, participating in the general Joy which your Majesty's Entrance into the Fiftieth Year of your Reign has diffused among all Ranks of our fellow Subjects, beg to renew to your Majesty the Assurances of our affectionate and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Sensible how much we owe to Divine Providence for the Preservation of your Majesty's Life, and for the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, we offer to your Majesty, on this joyful Occasion, the respectful Homage of our Attachment to a Monarch, who, preserving undiminished and unimpaired the glorious Fabric of our excellent Constitution, amid the Wreck and Desolation of other Governments, has, at the same time, recommended, and enforced by his Example, the milder, but essential, Virtues of private life.

That your Majesty may long live to enjoy the well-earned and lasting Affection of your Subjects; and continue to dispense the Blessings of a Reign unexampled in the just, equitable, and mild Administration of the Laws, is our hearty Prayer, confident that the Life of your Majesty is deeply and closely connected with the Happiness and Prosperity of your People.

Rd. Fisher, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bridgnorth, assembled in the Town Hall, the 6th Day of November, 1809, most humbly, but joyfully, congratulate your Majesty, the Father of your People, upon your entering into the Fiftieth Year of Your Majesty's Reign; the Blessings of which, as they have been generally felt, to have they been universally acknowledged, in an unparalleled Manner, by your grateful and loyal Subjects.

A lively Sense of these Blessings is deeply impressed upon our Minds; by the Feelings of Compassion and Indignation, which the highly contracted Miseries of surrounding Nations so forcibly awaken; while they call forth every Emotion of Gratitude to Providence, for eminently distinguishing this favoured Nation with your paternal Care.

We assure you, Sir, that no Persons are more sensible of those Benefits than we are. We sincerely hope that you may be long spared to a faithful and affectionate People; and when it shall please the King of Kings to take you to himself, may your Throne descend, in peaceable and regular Succession, to your Posterity; and may they prove themselves Heirs, as to your Power, so to your Virtues.

Signed, by the Desire, and on Behalf of the Meeting.

Benjamin Yate, Francis Moore, Bailiffs.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Inhabitants of the Royal Burgh of Montrose.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Inhabitants of the Burgh of Montrose, assembled in our Town-Hall to celebrate the Fiftieth Anniversary of your Majesty's Accession, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of sincere Congratulation, such as cannot but be felt by those who have experienced the many Blessings that have distinguished your Majesty's auspicious Reign. The long and eventful Period during which your Majesty has happily ruled over so great a Portion of the World, has been marked by many singular Catastrophes. Most of the ancient States of Europe have been overthrown; some by internal Disorder, some by external Force, and some by mean Submission to the Enemy, while the Fate of those which remain, seems to be full of Uncertainty and Danger. In the Midst of all these Difficulties and Revolutions, it affords us the highest Satisfaction to reflect that your Majesty's Arms have been ever found upon the Side of Justice against Oppression. Threatened, as we have been, with unexampled Perils, we acknowledge with Gratitude the Firmness and Dignity of your Majesty's Councils, by which we see, that while we have triumphed over all the Efforts of domestic Faction, foreign Hostility, we are yet possessed of inexhaustible Resources to contend with both.

We are far from insensible, however, to the Operations of the same wise Policy, as they have been displayed in the internal Situation of the Country.
 Under your Majesty's protecting Hand, all the Arts that improve and embellish Life, have advanced with a Progress formerly unknown; Manufactures have flourished; the Wages of Labour have increased; and the Condition of the Labourer as well as of every other Class of your Majesty's Subjects has been substantially ameliorated. When we survey the many Miseries with which it has pleased the Supreme Dis-poser of Events to afflict the other Nations of the World, we consider ourselves as peculiarly privileged; permitted as we have been to enjoy in the Midst of Tranquillity, all the Benefits of a free Government, equal Laws, and an enlarged and growing Commerce; nor is it possible to forget the many gracious Acts of Benignity, by which it has been your Majesty's constant Aim to extend these Blessings; to strengthen the Hands of Justice, or to temper the Rigour of Law, by a just Exercise of your constitutional Prerogatives.

While your Majesty's paternal Cares have thus extended to every Branch of Domestic Policy, they have not been withheld, even from those Depen-
