By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

For further continuing from the Thirty-first Day of December next, until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain, in the United Kingdom.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Forty-ninth Year of Our Reign, intituled "An Act to prohibit the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain in the United Kingdom, for a limited Time;" it was enacted, that in case We, at any Time after the First Day of October last, should in Our Royal Discretion judge it to be for the Benefit and Advantage of Our Kingdom, further to continue the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain from the Thirty-first Day of December next, until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, then, and in such Case, it should and might be lawful to and for Us, by Our Royal Proclamation or Proclamations, to be issued by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, or by Our Order in Council, to be published from Time to Time in the London Gazette, and in the Dublin Gazette, to continue, throughout the United Kingdom, from the said Thirty first Day of December until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, the Prohibition therein before mentioned, that is to say, That throughout the United Kingdom, during the Continuance of such Prohibition, no Worts or Wash for Distillation shall be made from Oats, Barley, or any other Corn or Grain, or from Malt, Flour, or Bran, or any Mixture with the same: And whereas We do judge it for the Benefit and Advantage of Our Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be further continued; We are thereupon pleased by this Our Royal Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to order and direct that the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain in the United Kingdom, be further continued from the Thirty-first Day of December next, until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, and that during that Period, no Person shall cause any Worts or Wash for Distillation to be made from Oats, Barley, or any other Corn or Grain, or from Malt, Flour, or Bran, or any Mixture with the same, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeiture in the said Act mentioned.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, the First Day of November, One thousand eight hundred and nine, in the Fiftieth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

THE following Addresses have been transmitted to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, and have been presented by him to the King; His Majesty was pleased to receive them in the most gracious Manner.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

TO accept the loyal Congratulations of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Citizens of your ancient City of Chichester on a late joyful Event, so uncommon in the Annals of our History, and so interesting to our Feelings, when we reflect that the Blessing we commemorate has been bestowed on a Monarch ever studious to cultivate, and anxious to retain, the affectionate Attachment of his People.

Devoted as we are to the Constitution under which we live, from a serious Conviction of its unrivalled Excellence, and bearing equal Regard to the exalted Virtues of him who presides over it, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall never cease to pray for the Prosperity of the one, and the Health and Felicity of the other.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of our said City to be hereunto affixed this 4th Day of November, in the Fiftieth Year of your Majesty's most auspicious Reign.

[Transmitted by R. Stead, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereigns,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and others Inhabitants of the County of Glamorgan, with Hearts full of Affection and Duty to your Majesty, and Gratitude to Divine Providence, do humbly offer unto your Majesty our most
