

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 28, to Saturday December 2, 1809.

THE following Addresses have been transmitted to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, and have been presented by him to the King; His Majesty was pleased to receive them in the most gracious Manner.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Berks, humbly approach your Majesty, with Hearts firm in Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and august Family; gratefully thanking Almighty God for giving us this Occasion to congratulate your Majesty on having entered the Fiftieth Year of your Reign, over Subjects who are fully sensible of the great Blessing your bright Example of Piety and Virtue has been to your People, and for the Preservation of your Majesty's sacred Life, in the many Perils your Majesty's Person has been exposed to.

We beg Leave, in offering our sincere Congratulations on this happy Occasion, to assure your Majesty, we are convinced, the great Benefits we enjoy, are (under Divine Providence) owing to your Majesty's steady Support of our glorious Constitution, and your constantly guarding our Laws, and protecting our Rights and Liberties.

We exult, that your Majesty's Throne has for its Support, the Love and Loyalty of a brave and free People; a People who know the inestimable Value of the real Freedom they enjoy, not only from its beneficent Effect, that gives to all Ranks, Security; but more particularly when compared to the dreadful State of Misery and Wretchedness, which the Inhabitants of surrounding Nations have experienced from tyrannical Oppression and Anarchy.

We look with Confidence (through the Almighty Disposer of Events) to the complete Frustration of all the Machinations of our Enemies, and that they, being convinced a beloved patriotic Monarch, and a brave People, thus united, can never be overcome, will give an Opportunity (so desirable to your Majesty) of establishing an honourable and lasting Peace.

We fervently pray to the great Ruler of the World, that your Majesty's Life may be long preserved, with every Happiness to your Majesty, and Advantage to your Dominions; and that your Majesty's Posterity, may, by imitating your Virtues, hand down to future Ages, our glorious Constitution.

Thomas Theophilus Metcalfe, Sheriff, Berks.

of your Reign; and to convey to your Majesty the Sentiments of Joy and Exultation, we feel on this memorable Occasion.

May the Almighty, Allwise and Divine Disposer of Events, grant to your Majesty many Years of Health and Happiness, yet to come, to reign over a loyal and affectionate People, and may he extend to your Majesty the Blessing and Glory of giving a permanent Repose to Europe, is the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's most loyal and affectionate Subjects.

Admiralty Office, December 2, 1809.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Collingwood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, addressed to the Hon. W. W. Pole, dated on board the Ville de Paris, off Minorca, October 12, 1809.

SIR,

I HAVE great Pleasure in transmitting to you a Letter from Captain Holle, of His Majesty's Ship the Amphion, giving an Account of a very gallant and well-conducted Attack made on the Enemy's Fort and Vessels at Cortelazzo, between Venice and Trieste, by the Seamen and Marines landed from that Ship, which so completely succeeded, that the Fort was taken, and blown up, and all the Vessels which were in the Port captured or destroyed, without the Loss of a Man, one only being wounded by Accident, when employed in destroying the Works.

I have on many Occasions had to represent the Zeal, the Bravery, and the nice Concert of Measures that are necessary to Success, which have distinguished the Services of Captain Holle; and this late Attack of the Enemy is not inferior to those many Instances which have before obtained for him Praise and Admiration.

The Manner in which he speaks of Lieutenant Phillott, who commanded the Party, and of the other Officers and Men, is highly honourable to them; but the Amphion's Officers and Men following the Example of their Captain, could not well be otherwise than they are.

I also transmit a List of the Officers who were employed on this Service, and of the Captures made. Within a Month Two Divisions of the Enemy's Gun-Boats have been taken, consisting of Six each.

I am, &c.

(Signed) COLLINGWOOD.

His Majesty's Ship Amphion, off the Coast of Triaul, August 28, 1809.

SIR,

I BEG Leave to inform you of a most gallant and successful Attack made by the Boats of this Ship and a Detachment of Seamen and Marines on the Enemy's Force at Cortelazzo, consisting of Six Gun Boats, and a Convoy of Merchant Trabaculos, moored in a strong Position under a Battery of Four Twenty-four Pounders, at the Mouth of the Piavie, and in Sight of the Italian Squadron at Venice.

I had reconnoitred them on the 24th Instant, and found it impracticable, from the Shallowness of the Water, to get the Ship in; but I conceived they might be cut out by the Boat, provided I could carry the Battery; and this Opinion was confirmed by a Fisherman I detained the same Evening, who gave me a very correct Account of their Force and Situation: to prevent any Suspicion of my Design, I kept out of Sight of the Land till the Evening of the 26th, when I crowded all possible Sail, and we anchored off the Entrance of the Piavie, at One on the Morning of the 27th. At Three a Detachment of Seamen and Marines, commanded by Lieutenant Phillott, First Lieutenant, assisted by Lieutenant Jones (2), and Moore of the Marines, in all Seventy Men, were landed about a Mile below the Battery to the Southward, and advanced immediately to storm it, leaving Lieutenant Slaughter (Third Lieutenant) with the Command of the Boats, to push for the River the Instant the Fort was carried: at a Quarter past Three the Alarm was given, the Attack was made the same Instant, and such Vigour in the Assault, that in Ten Minutes the Fort was completely in our Possession, and the concerted Signal made. the Guns were instantly turned on the Gun Boats, the Fire on which, and Musketry from the Marines, whom Lieutenant Moore had placed in a most excellent Situation, compelled them to instant Surrender, and our Boats took Possession of the Gun Boats and Vessels, as per enclosed List; Two of the former are of the largest Dimensions.

The Battery was a complete Work, with a Ditch, and Chevaux de Frize round it, and our Men entered it first by Scaling Ladders: the Commandant of the Fort made his Escape with some of his Men, Two were found dead, and One wounded, the rest, consisting of Sixteen of the 3d Regiment of Light Infantry, were made Prisoners. Having spiked the Guns, and totally destroyed the Battery and Barrack, the whole Detachment was reembarked by One P. M.

I have now, Sir, the additional Pleasure of saying, that this Service was performed without the Loss of a Man on our Part. One Marine alone was wounded by an Explosion of Powder after we had Possession, but he is doing well.

The Gallantry and good Conduct of the commanding Lieutenant, Mr Phillott, in the Execution of this Attack, speaks for itself; I have only to say, he had the entire conducting of it, and on this, as on many other Occasions, fully justified the Confidence I placed in him. He speaks in the warmest Terms of Lieutenants Jones and Moore, and the Officers and Men under his Orders; the prompt Manner in which Lieutenant Jones turned the Guns on the Enemy's Vessels, and the judicious Disposition of the Marines by Lieutenant Moore, is highly Praise-worthy. In the Variety of Boat Service we have had, these Officers have particularly distinguished themselves, and some Months back were both severely wounded. The Silence and Regularity of the Seamen and Marines in their Advance to the Fort, and their Bravery in the Attack, is equally deserving of Praise, and truly characteristic of British Seamen. Inclosed is a List of the Officers and Midshipmen employed on Shore and in the Boats.

The Surrender of the Gun-Boats was so quick, that our Boats had not Time to join in the Attack on them, but were most actively employed afterwards in getting the Prizes out, under the Direction of Lieutenant Slaughter.—The above Vessels were stationed at Cortelazzo for the express Purpose of protecting the Trade between Venice and Trieste, and were commanded by a Commandant de Division, Monf. Villeneuve, who is made Prisoner.

I have, &c.
