

and Duty to your Majesty, and Gratitude to Divine Providence, do humbly offer unto your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations upon your Majesty's entering the Fiftieth Year of your Reign.

We are deeply affected with the Sense of the many Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's just and benign Government, and are fully persuaded not only that our Rights and Liberties have been maintained, but that the very being of the British Name and Constitution, have, in a great Measure been preserved through Times of unparalleled Difficulty, by the Influence of your Majesty's Example and Virtues.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that as we are grateful to Divine Providence for having vouchsafed thus long to grant to us the Benefit of your Majesty's Protection, so we do most earnestly pray the Almighty for the further Continuance of your Majesty's Life and Health, being perfectly convinced that your Majesty's gracious Views will ever be directed to the Welfare, Prosperity, and Happiness of your People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Master, Wardens, Assistants, and Elder Brethren of the Corporation of Trinity-House, of Deptford Strond.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the ancient Body Corporate of the Seamen of England, ever anxious to manifest our Loyalty and Attachment to our Sovereign, his Family, and Government, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, with the sincerest Demonstrations of Respect and Congratulation, on the happy Event of your Majesty's having entered the Fiftieth Year of your Reign, and with the most fervent Prayer, that your Majesty's auspicious and benign Sway, over these Kingdoms, may be continued for many Years yet to come; and that notwithstanding the Convulsions throughout Europe, your Majesty's Throne may ever remain firmly established, the Virtues that adorn it be perpetuated, and the united Efforts of a loyal, brave, and independent People, be its Support and Defence; and to which we, in common with our fellow Subjects, most unreservedly pledge ourselves, and at the same Time, beg to renew our Tender of Duty and Service, in the most zealous, respectful, and affectionate Expressions of Gratitude, and Veneration towards your Majesty.

The lamented Death of our late Master, the Duke of Portland, has prevented an earlier Approach to your Majesty, but relying on your Majesty's Consideration thereof, this dutiful Homage of your faithful and devoted Subjects (the sincerest Effusions of their Hearts) they still hope will meet your Majesty's Acceptance.

Given under the Common Seal of the Corporation this 7th Day of December 1809.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble and dutiful Address of the Presbytery of Caithness.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your most loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Presbytery of Caithness, embrace this first Opportunity of our meeting in Presbytery, to beg Leave with sincerest Sentiments of Gratitude, Affection, and Veneration, to congratulate your Majesty on that benign Care of Providence which continually watches over your sacred Person, prolonging your dear and valuable Life, and on all the past and present Felicity, which by the Blessing of Heaven distinguishes your Majesty in this Fiftieth Year of your auspicious Reign. We rejoice with all our fellow Subjects in that venerable Integrity and mature Wisdom in your Majesty, which establish the Land, which maintain the Dignity of the Crown, and secure the Independence, Prosperity, and Happiness of these Realms; whilst want of Principle hath involved surrounding Nations in such variety of Confusion, Calamity, and Misery. We trust in answer to the constant and ardent Prayers of your People, that the Favour of Heaven will long be vouchsafed to your Majesty and these happy Realms; that those Principles of Mercy and Truth which have secured to your Majesty and your Royal House the ancient Throne of your Forefathers, will still continue to establish it; and that amidst external Dangers and internal Difficulties, your Royal Discernment, parental Authority, and exemplary Virtues, will be blessed in defeating every Principle of Imposition or Delusion, under whatever Disguise they may appear, and whatever else is inconsistent with the pure Principles of Christianity and of sound Policy, on which the Fabric of our venerable Constitution is erected, and transmit the Advantages with increasing Lustre to the latest Posterity.

That the Most High may preserve your Majesty for many Years to go out and in before this mighty Nation; bless and prosper your Royal House, and crown with Success all your Endeavours to promote the Peace and Happiness of these Lands, and the good of Mankind, and finally confer on you a Crown of eternal Glory, is the ardent Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Moderator and Remanent Members of the Presbytery of Caithness.

Signed in our Name and Presence, at Thurso this 29th Day of November 1809.

Geo. Mackenzie, Moderator.
