AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 20th of December 1809,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-first Day of June last, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom of any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, will expire upon the Eleventh Day of January next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whosoever do at any Time, for the Space of Six Months, from the said Eleventh Day of January next, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Sheet-Copper, Sail-Cloth or Canvas, or other Naval Stores, or do ship or lade any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Sheet-Copper, Sail-Cloth or Canvas, or other Naval Stores, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt-Petre, Arms, and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation

" or Order in Council:" But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies: Provided that upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles for the Purpose of Trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards and Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, (except as hereinafter excepted,) to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been all duly landed at the Places for which they were entered outwards: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure, nevertheless, that the following Articles, viz. Bar-Iron, White and Tarred Rope, Tallow or Mill Grease, Tarpaulins for Waggon-Covers, Pitch, Tar, and Turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon Payment of the proper Duties, without Bond being entered into by the Merchant Exporter, to any of the British Plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's Settlements in South America; provided the Merchant Exporter shall first verify, upon Oath, that the Articles so exported are intended for the Use of a particular Plantation or Settlement, to be named in the Entry Outwards, and not for Sale; and that the said Plantation or Settlement has not before been furnished with any Supply of the said Articles during the same Season; and provided also that the Exportation of the said Articles shall, in no Case, exceed the Value of Fifty Pounds Sterling for any given Plantation or Settlement, whether by one or more Shipments within the same Season: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawkenner.

THE following Addresses have been transmitted to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, and have been presented by him to the King; His Majesty was pleased to receive them in the most gracious Manner.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

AT this auspicious Moment, when the united Voice of a whole People is raised in celebrating the Commencement of the Fiftieth Year of a beloved Sovereign's Reign, the President and Council, and the rest of the Academicians and the Associates of your Royal Academy, feel doubly bound to join the general Congratulations, and to offer their Effusions of Gratitude to your Majesty, not only as their King, but as their Founder.

Enjoying with the rest of their fellow Subjects those public and private Advantages, which during so long a Period have diffused Happiness over Three Kingdoms, they, as a Body, date their Existence from your Majesty's paternal Care, you Sire, have given them a Station and that Name which it will ever be their Duty and their Pride to render important by their own Exertions, and to transmit pure and unblemished to their Successors.

That the Supreme Disposer of all Good, may for a long Series of Years preserve in you, Sire, the Father of a loyal, happy, and grateful People, is the fervent Prayer of, your Majesty's most devoted Subjects and Servants, the President and Council, and the rest of the Academicians and Associates of your Royal Academy. Benjamin West, President.

[Transmitted by John Tenn, Esq; Treasurer.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Caithness.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Caithness, with Gratitude to Heaven for the Prolongation of your Majesty's invaluable Life, beg Leave to approach the Throne and present to your Majesty our Tribute of hearty Congratulations upon your attaining the Fiftieth Year of a Reign so eminently distinguished by a steady Adherence to the Principles of our glorious Constitution in Church and State; by a paternal Regard for the best Interests of your Subjects, and by setting before them, in the Exercise of the private Virtues, a bright Pattern of that Conduct, the individual Observance of which can alone insure the Happiness of a Nation.

It is, Sire, to the Benefits resulting from your Majesty's benign Government, whereby the Hears of your People continue firmly united in a faithful Attachment to your royal Person and Family; that, by the Blessing of God, we owe our being still left in the envied Possession of our dearest Rights and Privileges, while the surrounding Nations of Europe have been destined to sink under the Yoke of a cruel and relentless Tyrant.

That your Majesty may long continue to wield the British Sceptre, and that to the Close of Life you may have to reflect that your Reign has been productive of the most solid Advantages to those Realms, is the most ardent Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Caithness.

Signed in General Meeting, in our Name, and in our Presence, at Thurso, this 6th Day of December 1809.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, was Yesterday Morning received at Lord Liverpool's Office, addressed to his Lordship by Lieutenant-General Don, dated His Majesty's Ship Caesar, off the Duerloo Passage, December 22, 1809.

His Majesty's Ship Caesar, off the

My LORD, Duerloo Passage, Dec. 23, 1809.

ALTHOUGH I have regularly communicated to your Lordship the principal Circumstances which have occurred, relative to the Army under my Command, yet I have judged it advisable to postpone my detailed Report on the Evacuation of the Island of Wa'cheren until the Troops were withdrawn and the Fleet had sailed.

On the Receipt of your Lordship's Dispatch of the 13th of last Month, conveying to me His Majesty's Commands to evacuate the Island of Walcheren with the Forces under my Orders, and further signifying the Determination of His Majesty, that previously to the Evacuation I should take such Measures as I might deem most effectual for the Demolition of the Basin of Flushing, and the Naval Defences of the Island, I made the necessary Preparations for the Removal of the Sick and Convalescents of the Army, and the Arrival of a Division of Transports afforded me the means of completing their Embarkation on the 26th Ultimo.

On the same Day the new Frigate that was built in the Dock Yard, was got out of the Basin, and which enabled me on the following Morning to commence the Demolition of the Sea Defences, Basin, Dock Yard, Arsenal, Magazines Naval Store-Houses, &c. of the Town of Flushing, the total Destruction of which was completed on the 11th Instant.

These Services were conducted under the immediate Direction and Superintendence of Lieutenant-Colonel Pilkington, Commanding Engineer, assisted by a strong Party from the Navy, under the Command of Captain Moore, and for the Particulars, I beg Leave to refer your Lordship to the Lieutenant-Colonel's Report, a Copy of which I enclose.

The very judicious and skilful Manner in which these Measures have been completed, reflects great Credit upon Lieutenant-Colonel Pilkington, and the several Officers who acted with him, and I am persuaded it will afford your Lordship peculiar Satisfaction to know, that the whole of this extensive Work has been accomplished, without any Injury being done to the Inhabitants; the Destruction not having extended beyond what was necessary to deprive the Enemy of the Advantage of Flushing as a Naval Station.

The Embarkation of the Ordnance and the Stores of the several Departments having been completed, the Army was withdrawn and embarked on the 9th Instant, but the Weather being extremely unsettled, and conceiving it probable from the active and continued Preparations of the Enemy, that he might hazard an Attack, I judged it expedient still to hold the Towns of Flushing, Middleburg, and Ter Veer, and Fort Rammekins; at the same Time I made an Arrangement for the Disembarkation of the Army, the four Divisions of which were stationed as follows, viz. the 1st Division immediately off the Town of Flushing; 2d Division to the Westward of that Town; 3d Division between Flushing and Fort Rammekins, to act and co-operate with the Naval Force in the Sloo Passage, under Captain Mason; and the 4th off Ter Veer, to act and co-operate with the Naval Force between the Veer Gat and Wolversdyke, under Commodore Owen.

By this Disposition, had the Enemy attempted to invade the Island, the four Posts above mentioned could easily have been reinforced, and the Enemy in the Event of his effecting a Landing, attacked in his Flanks and Rear; as from the Precautions I had taken in stopping the Fresh Water Sluices, his Advance into the Country must have been confined to the Dykes and Causeway, from Ter Veer through Middleburg to Flushing.

The Fleet continued Wind-bound until this Morning, when the Rear Guards were withdrawn, the Ships of War and Transports from the West Scheldt got under weigh, and I conclude those in the Veer Gat moved about the same Time.

I feel great Satisfaction in mentioning the very able and cordial Support I have uniformly received from Rear-Admiral Otway, and that our Arrangements for the final Evacuation of the Island were approved of by Rear-Admiral Sir Richard Strachan, on his Arrival on the 11th Instant.

I cannot conclude this Report without acquainting your Lordship that I found the Army in an excellent State of Discipline, and that the Conduct of the Troops has in every Respect merited my warmest Approbation.

On the Day of Embarkation, the different Corps of the Army marched from the several Points, and embarked in the most perfect Order and Regularity, and the Magistrates of the Towns and Villages, expressed to the Officers left in the Command of the Rear Guards, that the Troops on their Departure, had in no Instance molested or injured the Inhabitants.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) G. DON, Lieut.-Gen.

SIR,

Flushing, Dec. 11, 1809.

IN obedience to your Orders of the 25th U.C. and with the Concurrence of Captain Moore of the Royal Navy, the necessary Directions were given to commence the Demolition of the Basin, Arsenal, Dock-Yard, Naval Defences, and Magazines of this Place; and on the 26th, a Party of Seamen, under the Superintendence of Captain Tomlinson, began at Low Water to destroy such Parts of the Break-Waters as appeared to protect the Entrance of the Harbour. On the following Day, Captain Moore, with Parties of Seamen, proceeded on the Destruction of the Wharfing of the Basin and of the Dock-Yard, and both were accomplished in a few Days in the most effectual Manner.

The Demolition of the Sea Defences was also begun upon on the 26th Ult., under the immediate Superintendence of Captain Rudyerd of the Royal Engineers, assisted by Captain Read, with a Detachment of Officers and Men of the Royal Staff Corps, and Captain Donovan and a Detachment of Officers and Men of the Royals.

Arrangements were, on the same Day, made to proceed on the Demolition, by mining, of the Piers and Masonry of the Flood-Gates at the Entrance of the great Naval Basin, under the Directions of Captains Squire and Fanshawe of the Royal Engineers.

I have now the Honour to inform you, that the Services allotted to the Royal Navy have been most effectually accomplished, the Dock-Yard, Arsenal, Magazines, and every Building belonging to the Naval Establishment being wholly destroyed. The Entrance of the Harbour is also blocked up, by sinking of Vessels filled with heavy Materials, so as to render the Passage of Ships of War impracticable.

The Destruction of the Defences towards the Sea, under the Direction of Captain Rudyerd, has also been completely carried into Effect, by dismantling the Batteries, throwing down the Parapets, and in every Respect extending the Devastation of such Works, as far as could be accomplished without hazarding an Inundation of the Town; and with regard to the important Service of the Mines employed as the Means of destroying the Piers and Abutments of the Flood-Gates which secured the Basin, I am to acknowledge the skilful Directions of Captains Squires and Fanshawe, and the personal Exertions of the other Officers of the Corps of Royal Engineers, and Assistant Engineers employed under them, as the Undertaking happily terminated in an Explosion that succeeded in displacing the very Foundations throughout the whole Work.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) R. PILKINGTON,

Lieutenant-Colonel Royal Engineers.

Copy of a Letter from Sir Richard John Strachan, Bart. and K. B. Rear-Admiral of the Red, &c. to John Wilson Croker, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship St. Domingo, in the Downs, 28th of December 1809.

SIR,

IT is with great Pleasure I inform you of the Arrival of Commodore Owen, in the Clyde, who gives me the pleasing Intelligence of the Divisions under his Command, and that under Captain Mafon having failed from the East and West Scheldt, and are by this Time at the Mouth of the Thames, if not at the Places of their respective Destination; I enclose the Commodore's Report of his Proceedings. It is my Duty to draw their Lordships' Attention to the excellent Conduct of Commodore Owen, in the Discharge of the various and arduous Duties he had to perform: and I beg, in the most earnest Manner, to recommend to their Lordships' Notice, the Zeal, Bravery, and Perseverance of the Captains, Officers, and Seamen, composing the Flotilla under the Commodore's Orders. The same good Conduct has pervaded the Captains, Officers, and Seamen of the Flotilla under Captain Mafon, of the Fisgard; and when I get that Officer's Report, I shall have great Pleasure in introducing his Merits to their Lordships' particular Notice.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) R. S. STRACHAN.

His Majesty's Ship Clyde, off the North Foreland, December 28, 1809.

SIR,

IN Obedience to the Direction of Rear-Admiral Otway, I have the Honour to lay before you the following Detail of my Proceedings in carrying into Execution the Orders to evacuate that Part of the Island of Walcheren, with the Duties of which I had the Honour to be charged.

Of our previous State of Preparation you have been acquainted, and that all the Stores, Guns, and Ammunition not judged immediately necessary to our Defence, had been withdrawn and put on board, and every Arrangement made in the Beginning of December.

I have likewise had the Honour to report to you, that the Enemy's Anxiety to complete his Works on Wolversdyke and South Beveland, for the Purpose of clearing the Sloß, and driving our advanced Divisions from the Channels which led to it, had obliged me to commence a System of offensive Operations, and the Result thereof has likewise been submitted to you.

I had further informed you of the Necessity I felt for shifting my Pendant to the Cretan, that I might be better situated to direct our Movements.

Our Flotilla held their forward Stations when, on the Morning of the 23d, I received your Letter, acquainting me that you intended to quit Flushing on that Day, provided the Wind would permit the Line of Battle Ships to pass the Duerloo. I immediately made Preparation likewise to withdraw. The Boats assembled, and embarked the Rear-Guard of the Army, under the Direction of the Honourable Captain Cadogan; whilst the few remaining Guns of Vere and Armuyden Points were rendered useless, and every other Article of Stores was taken off.

In the Meantime our advanced Divisions fell back, and collected at their defensive Stations, but it was Two o'Clock before those Duties were completed, and there was no Chance of clearing any considerable Part of our Force from the Veer Gat before dark, whilst the Wind, which was very light, hung so far to the Westward, as to leave me doubtful of your succeeding with the Line of Battle-Ships; I therefore ordered the Clyde only, whose Draught of Water might embarrass us, to shift out to the Roompot, whilst I sent an intelligent Person to Flushing for Information of your Movements.

Colonel Pack (with whom it has been my good Fortune to co-operate) was good enough to offer the Town-Major of Ter Veere for this Duty. Captain Clements of the 71st Regiment, who returned to me at Five o'Clock, with the Information that every Thing was clear except Two Frigates, and a Two decked-Ship, and the Stay of these seemed to be the Effect of Chance alone, and I concluded they would follow in the Morning. Captain Clements found the Towns of Middleburgh and Flushing occupied by Burgher Guards, and at Four on the following Morning, the Gates of Veete were likewise given to the Burghers.

At Daylight of the 24th, I made the Signal for our distant Ships to move, but the Transports at the Entrance of the Gat did not succeed in getting out till dark.

Captain Davis's Division of the Gun-Boats however reached the Roompot, and were disarmed.

It was whilst this Movement was making, and which was much retarded by the baffling Winds, I learnt of your Arrival in the Roompot; and it was in the Pause the Shift of Wind and Tide occasioned that you did me the Honour to join me in the Cretan, and sanction my Proceedings.

On the Morning of the 25th, our Guard Boats were recalled, the Pallas got out to the Roompot, and a Movement of our whole Flotilla made; but as it then came on to blow, you ordered it to take a Position off the Fort Den Haak.

Encouraged by our Retreat, the Enemy's advanced Division of Gun-Boats moved through the Wolversdyke Channel to the Station heretofore occupied by our Advance, but on our anchoring, returned again to its former Station, as however we had decidedly given up Ter Veere, Three Row-Boats with Dutch Troops, crossed over there from Camperé, and in the Course of the Afternoon some Schuyts followed likewise with Dutch Troops, and by Sunset the Enemy had posted Sentinels at Dent-zaak.

On the 26th, the Wind got round to the N. E. and you (seeing every Prospect of our getting out) had failed for England, the Wind however backed again to the Westward of North, and I did not think it right to disarm any more of the Gun-Boats, than the Division of Acting Captain Rich.

All the Merchant Vessels had got clear of the Veere Gat, but one Gun-Boat was aground. I sent Captain Carteret with Two Divisions to cover her, and to protect the disarmed Boats, which I ordered once more to anchor off Den Haak.

The Enemy's Gun-Boats had in this while anchored in a Line off Ter Veere, but again abandoned that Position, and returned to Wolverdyke.

The Morning of the 27th was as favourable as could be desired; the several Convoys sailed soon after Day-light with a gentle Breeze at East; the Two disarmed Divisions of Gun-Boats parted Company whilst the Remainder were disarming, which done, the whole Squadron was a-weight by Half-past One, and fairly in the Stone Deep by Sunset. I there met Captain Mason in the Fisgard, with his Squadron, and learnt that all was clear from Flushing.

The Wind and Weather have been so favourable and fine, there is no Doubt all will reach Sheerness in Safety, I should hope, To-day.

In closing this Detail, I feel it is my Duty to remark to you the great good Will that has been manifested by all and every one I have commanded.

Of the Bravery and Spirits of the Gun-Boats you were well aware; their cheerful Submission to the Deprivations their peculiar Service rendered necessary, makes them still more estimable.

The Merits of Captain Carteret in the general Command of this Part of our Force, I have, in some particular Instances, had occasion to report to you. In every Instance I have known, his Conduct has been good alike.

The several Divisions were under Captains Aberdour and Davies, acting Captain Rich, and the Honourable Captain Dawson; the latter of whom I charged with a Division, in Consequence of Captain Lowe having been removed by Rear-Admiral Otway to the Command of the Sabrina.

In the Honourable Captain Cadogan, of the Palas, I found a most zealous Second and Supporter; and from Captain Jauverin, whom you charged with the Duties of the Port. From every other Captain, from every Officer, and from every Man, I have, in their respective Stations, had a prompt Obedience and Co-operation, anxious always to outrun my Wishes for the Service. In short, Sir, I cannot speak too strongly to you in their Praise.

The peculiar Circumstances we were placed in, obliged me to leave the Management of my own Ship wholly to Lieutenant Strong, and in so doing have given him an Opportunity to confirm the good Opinion I had formed of him in the Course of Seven Years Service with me.

The Duties of the Guard fell heavy on our Boats. The Men of every Ship vied with each other in the cheerful and effectual Discharge of this harassing but needful Duty.

Again, Sir, I beg most earnestly to recommend them to your Countenance, and have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) G. W. C. R. OWEN,
Commodore.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Nicholas Teminsson, to J. W. Croker, Esq; dated Dec. 27, 1809.

I BEG Leave to acquaint you, that the Vessels under my Orders, laden with Fire-Ship Stores, lately composing Part of the Expedition to the Scheldt, are all arrived at the Nore, except that in which I was embarked, she having been wrecked on the 18th Instant; but I was enabled to make room for, and save all the valuable Part of her Cargo, by throwing overboard the Bevins (Baker's Faggots dipped in Tar) from the other Ships, which I hope will meet their Lordships' Approbation.

His Majesty's Ship Diana, off Borealen, 2d December 1809.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to inform you, that having gained Information that the Enemy were disembarking Guns at Odenkirk, and thinking it was practicable to cut them off, I sent away the Boats of His Majesty's Ship under the command of Lieutenant Daniel Miller, accompanied by Lieutenant Sparrow, Messrs. Robertson, Knocker, King, and McCartey, Midshipmen, who in the most gallant Manner landed and beat off the French Guard, under a very heavy Fire of Round and Grape Shot, and brought away Three Vessels that were secured to the Shore by Hawfers, laden with Battery Train and Field Pieces, together with Wood to form a Platform.

Lieutenant Miller, First of this Ship, an old and meritorious Officer, who has often distinguished himself in cutting out different Vessels, speaks highly of the Gallantry and Assistance he received from Lieutenant Sparrow, the young Gentlemen, and the Boats Crews and Marines.

I am happy to inform you, that this Service has been performed without any Person being hurt.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

Read William Otway, Esq; to be Paymaster, vice Sadlier.

Whitehall, December 30, 1809.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

Upon Complaint made, upon Oath, before any Justice of Peace, that any Person is endeavouring to seduce any such Artificer, or that any such Artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's Dominions, for the Purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his Warrant to bring the Person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the Oath of One Witness, or by Confession, that he was guilty of any of the said Offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such Person shall refuse to give Security, the Justice may commit him to Gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law. And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

IF any Person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any Artificer in Wool, Mohair, Cotton, or Silk, or in Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, or any Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer in any other of the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this Kingdom or Ireland into any Foreign Country not within the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted, upon Indictment or Information, in the King's Bench at Westminster, or by Indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery for the County, &c. wherein such Offence shall be committed in England, or by Indictment in the Court of Justiciary or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such Offence be committed in Ireland; the Person so convicted shall, for every Artificer contracted with or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted for Twelve Calendar Months, and until Forfeiture be paid: And in case of a subsequent Offence of the same Kind, the Persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every Person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Two Years, and until such Forfeiture be paid.

If any Person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on board any Ship or Boat, not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such Tools or Utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the Preparing, Working up, or Finishing of the Woollen or Silk Manufactures, or any Part of such Tools, he shall, for every Offence, forfeit all such Tools, or Parts thereof, put on board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by Action of Debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no Essoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publicly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his Vessel, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and, if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Sufferance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of His present Majesty.

BY these Statutes the like Penalties and Forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to Persons packing or putting on board any Vessel, not bound directly for some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, any Machine, Engine, Tool, Press, Paper, Utensil, or Implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the Cotton, Steel, or Iron Manufactures of this Kingdom, or any Part or Parts of such Machines or Implements, or any Models or Plans thereof; and all Captains of Ships and other Persons receiving or being in Possession of any such Articles, with an Intent to export the same to Foreign Parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an Entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like Penalties as are above-mentioned, in the case of Tools and Utensils used in the Woollen and Silk Manufactures.

Whitehall, December 12, 1809

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that Three Persons did, on Friday Evening the 1st Instant, between the Hours of Ten and Eleven o'Clock, on the New Road leading from the City of Rochester to the Sign of the Gibraltar, in the Parish of Chatham, dreadfully wound, with Intent to murder; Mr. Thomas Boucher, sen. of the said City, by cutting his Throat in a most shocking Manner, and, after rifling his Pockets, threw him into a Field, and there left him for dead, in consequence of which Wound his Life is much despaired of;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the Persons concerned in such atrocious Act, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually cut and wounded the said Mr. Boucher) who shall discover his or their Accomplices or Accomplices therein, of that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, either by Messrs. W. and T. Boucher, or by the Banks of Messrs. Day, Hulkes, and Co. Chatham and Rochester.

Admiralty-Office, Dec. 22, 1809.

Notice is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas, within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old-Bailey, London, on Monday the 22d Day of January next, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning.
