To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The dutiful and humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Abingdon, in the County of Berks.

WE beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, and to mingle our Congratulations with the rest of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, on the Commencement of the Fiftieth Year since your Majesty ascended the Throne of your Ancestors to reign over a free and powerful Nation. The warmest Feelings of our Hearts also excite us to express our Gratitude to Almighty Providence for the long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign, which is almost without Example in our History; and during which the Subjects of your Majesty have enjoyed in Security, the Blessings of a mild and benignant Sway; while other Nations have seen their political and civil Institutions defaced, their Countries wasted, and their Kings dethroned. It will be our constant Prayer, that the rest of your Majesty's Reign may be prosperous and happy, and your lengthened Days be closed in Peace; and that those Glories which so eminently distinguish the British Sceptre above all other Nations on Earth, may descend, with undiminished Lustre, to your Majesty's latest Posterity.

Thomas Goodall, Mayor.
