LONDON DOCKS.

BY THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain, to be secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty," It is enacted, That it should be lawful for the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignee or Consignees of any of the Goods, Wares or Merchandize, enumerated or described in the Table thereunto annexed, marked (B.), and which shall be legally imported and brought into the Port of London, to lodge and secure the same under the joint Locks of the Crown and the London Dock Company, in any Warehouse or Warehouses, erected or to be erected, situate within the Premises belonging to the London Dock Company, without Payment at the Time of the first Entry of such Goods, Wares and Merchandizes of the Duties of Customs or Excise due on the Importation thereof, subject nevertheless to the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions therein contained: Provided that no such Goods, Wares or Merchandize should be so lodged or secured unless and until such Warehouses or other Works belonging or to belong to thereto, should be so far completed, that in the Judgement of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, the same shall be fit and proper in every respect for the Reception of such Goods, Wares and Merchandize, and wherein the same might respectively be safely and securely deposited, and remain under the Regulations and Directions in the said Act contained, and the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, were thereby authorized and empowered, in Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, to certify and make known his or their Approbation of such Warehouses, which Certificate should be published Three Times at least in the London Gazette, and in Two or more public Morning Newspapers usually circulated in London: And whereas the Table marked (B.), above referred to, is in the Words following, viz.

TABLE B.

"A List of Articles which (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the East Indies, or not being imported from the West Indies,) may be secured in the Warehouses within the Premises belonging to the London Dock Company, without the Duties due on the Importation thereof being first paid."

"Rice, Tobacco, Wine,
"Brandy, Geneva and other Spirits"

And whereas certain Vaults for Wine and Spirits, and Warehouses for other Articles of Merchandize, and other Parts of the said Works, have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and are now in Use: And whereas the Building hereinafter mentioned, Part of the said Works, has since been completed.

We, being Three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do certify that in our Judgement that Part of the Building erected on the North West Angel of the Dock Premises marked A. is now so far completed as to be fit and ready in every respect for the Reception of Wine, Brandy, Geneva, and other Spirits.

Given under our Hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, the 31st Day of January 1810.

Whitehall, February 6, 1810.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that on the 26th and 27th Days of January last, the following anonymous threatening Letters were received, through the Medium of the Chester Post-Office, by Roger Barnston, Esq; and William Magnus Henderson, Esq; of Chester, and Robert Jones, Printer, of the said City, according to the respective Affidavits annexed unto the said Letters:

Colonel Barnston

Let the Cause come on at our Castle then we shall do for we shall be in more order for you all but as for your witness they can do no good but let be aware of themselves but your chief witness who at least as seen a good deal of what happened is one Norris, and a Jones a printer but as for him he has little time to consider of himself in this world for he may depend we are in right earnest with him for if we find him which we hope we shall we will dispatch him. if you do not obey our order we will put your life in a critical situation
