East India-House, March 28, 1810.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the East Indies, do hereby give Notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leadenhall-Street, on Wednesday the 18th of April next, from Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon until Six in the Evening, to ballot on the following Question, viz.

NO. 16355.

B

“ That this Court approve the unanimous Resolution of the Court of Directors of the 21st Instant, wherein they state, that they have every Reason to believe, that all the Persons who were on board the Ship Lord Nelson at the Time of her Loss have perished; and that the Occasion and Circumstances relating to her Loss are wholly unknown, and therefore that there is an Impossibility of enquiring satisfactorily into the Loss of the said Ship; and that this Court are fully satisfied that the Ship was stored in a sufficient Manner at her Outfit for her Voyage; and that consequently no Blame can attach to the Owners; and from the Experience and Ability of the Commander and Officers, it is reasonably to be inferred, that no Blame attaches to them.”

In order to determine by such Ballot, whether Three Parts in Four of the Proprietors present at such General Court concur with the Court of Directors in their above-mentioned Resolution.

William Ramfay, Secretary.
