

we do further profess, that we will defend, to the utmost of our powers, your Majesties Royal Person and Prerogative, the Protestant Religion as by Law established, and the Peace of this your Majesties Kingdom, against all opposition whatsoever.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury of the County of Cumberland, at the general Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, held for the said County, at the City of Carlisle, the 13th day of July, 1681.

WHE the said Justices and Grand Jury having considered Your Majesties late Declaration, touching the Dissolution of the two last Parliaments, do hold our selves obliged to take this first opportunity to make our humble Acknowledgment of Your Majesties great Goodness to all Your People, in the many Gracious Promises You are therein pleased to give them, as being abundantly sufficient to remove the Fears, and quiet the Minds of all peaceable and good Men, and to confirm in them, a confidence of Your Majesties Gracious Resolutions to secure them against Popery, and in the enjoyment of their just Liberties and Properties, according to the Laws of the Kingdom; And as Your Majesty hath been pleased most Graciously to Declare, that you look upon Parliaments as the best Method for healing the distempers of this Kingdom, and to preserve Monarchy in due Credit and Respect both at home and abroad; so we all heartily endeavour to do our parts towards a just settlement both of Church and State, by choosing Representatives of such approved Loyalty and good Affection to serve in Parliament for this County (when your Majesty in your great Willdom shall think fit) as shall account it their happiness to perform that Duty and Service, in such manner as may tend to your Majesties Honor, and the support of the Monarchy; upon which we cannot but be sensible, that our Church-Government, Liberty and Property do intirely depend; And we do further most humbly Profess and Declare, That we will defend to the utmost of our power, your Majesties most Sacred Person, your Heirs and lawful Successors, the Prerogative and just Rights of the Crown, the Protestant Religion as by Law established, and the Peace of the Kingdom, against all opposition whatsoever.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of several Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Inhabitants between the Rivers of Dudden and Esk, containing many Mannors within Millom (in the County of Cumberland, adjoining to Lancashire) being a Lordship.

May it please Your Sacred Majesty,

WHE Your Majesties most Real, Constant, Dutiful, and Obedient Subjects, do with all Submission and Gratitude acknowledge Your Majesties great Care in preserving the Church now Established, and the Rights of Your Subjects, both of which we were constant (with your Royal Father of ever Blessed Memory) to uphold, and shall with our Lives and Fortunes be always ready to assist the preservation of Your Majesties Sacred Person and Government, against all that shall dare to disturb the same, whether Papists, Dissenters or any maintainers of Common-wealth Principles, that do not stick to say, they will not believe persons upon their Oaths, yet so unreasonable as to have the People believe them upon their bare Words, whose Actions may prove like others, To do contrary to what is declared and shew'd to the World, whereof we in these parts did bitterly taste in the time of the most unparalleled Rebellion, the effects of which was the amazement of Hearbents as well as Christians; and yet then we had not, nor now have (we hope) four Papists or Dissenters amongst us, And as we keep all one Church, retain true Faith to God and Your Sacred Majesty, whom he hath so Miraculously restor'd, and set over us; so, with cheerfulnes and inexpressible joy and satisfaction, as in Duty bound, we return Your Royal Majesty our hearty Thanks for Your Majesties most Gracious Declaration, which cheers our hearts, and puts Life into our Countenances, to serve and assist Your Majesty with all that's near and dear unto us, persevering to Death when your Majesty Commands: And withal, we humbly implore your Sacred Majesty graciously to accept the sincere affections of, Great Sir, Your Majesties most truly Loyal and Obedient Subjects.

Signed by 825 Persons.

Lyme, July 20. A Person of this Town having spoken very scandalously and unbecomingly of the Address in general, and particularly, of that which was Presented to His Majesty by the Gentlemen of this County; upon Information given thereof upon Oath to Captain Alford, he yesterday caused the said Person to give good security to answer the same at the Assizes.

Tork, July 20. At the Assizes held here, Sir Miles Stapleton was brought to his Tryal, upon an Indictment of High Treason, in having conspired the death of the King, and Subversion of the Government; and the Witnesses having been fully examined, the Jury brought him in Not Guilty.

Whitehal, July 23. This day about two a clock arrived here his Highness the Prince of Orange, coming Post from Margate where he Landed and having Dined at Sir Seppen Foxes, one of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesties Treasury, his Highness parted for Windsor.

Advertisements.

WHEREAS there are several Strollers, or Stage-Players, Mountebanks, Rope dancers, and others, who shew Motions and strange sights, wander about the Countrey with forged Licenses, pretended to be granted from his Majesties Office of the Revels in Whitehal. These are therefore to give notice to all persons who at present have Licences for that purpose, which are not yet expired, that they forthwith bring them in to Courtes Killiger Esq; (Master of the said Office of Revels) to the end that they may have the same renewed under his Hand and Seal, and Printed in Red and Black Letters, for the discovery of such abuses (and all Justices of Peace, Mayors, Bayliffs, Constables and other His Majesties Officers, are hereby desired to Apprehend and punish according to Law, all such persons who shall continue the said Abuses, and such as have no Licence, and none are granted from the said Office but for twelvet Months, and no longer, and ought to be renewed every year.

These are to give Notice, That there is a Patent Granted by the Kings Majesty to Mr. William Pawley, and Mr. Edward Dallow, for the making of an Engine for Drawing of Penn-Grounds, and all sorts of Pits or Mines of any depth; and flowing of Lands, which Engine, by much Charge and Industry is now perfected; and if any Gentleman or others have occasion to make use of the same, they may Treat with the said Mr. Pawley, and Mr. Dallow at his Glass-house at Salt-peter-Bank near East-Smithfield, London, where likewise they may see a Model of the said Engine.

Lost the 8th Instant, betwixt Hammerston and Harbrough, in the County of Leicester, one Diamond Ring with thirteen Pebble stones, seven large, and six small, set round like a Rose, a Ring with three pointed Diamonds, a Ring with three Emeralds, a large Mourning Ring, a Gold Locket Engraven on the top, a Gold Locket with a Chrystal; all these things were strung upon a broad Black Satin Ribbon. Whoever shall give notice of the abovesaid things, and restore them to Mr. Th. Wrightman of Leicester, or to Mr. Andrew Knrick, at the Rose and Crown in Crespide, shall have 5 l. reward.

Taken from a young Gentlewoman out of a Hackney-Coach, an Indian Picture done in Limning, with another Picture in Red Cryon upon white Paper, by a young man of middle stature, light colour short Hair, a round visage, in Grey Cloaths, pretending himself to be Mr. Johns Son the Cabinet maker in Lang-acre, and that he took them to put them in Frames. Whoever gives notice of the aforesaid Pictures, so that they may be recovered, to Mr. Neill, Bookeller, at the Queens Arms in the Pall-Mall, shall have a Guinea reward.

Lost out of Isleworth Park in Warwickshire, the 8th of June last, a little Black Mare about 13 hands high, a short bob Tail, thorn Mane, a Star in her Forehead. Whoever gives notice of her to Mr. John Fox at Isleworth, or at the Beewee Inn in Halburn, London, shall have a good reward.