

Two ancient Towns, and their Members, and for that Purpose to require and have all such Returns of the Number of Men liable to serve, and exempt therein, as should be necessary to enable the said Privy Council to regulate and fix a proper Quota for such Local Militia: And whereas Returns have been made to His Majesty's Privy Council of the Number of Men liable to serve, and exempt in the Cinque Ports, Two ancient Towns, and their Members, and of the Number of Volunteers serving therein; His Majesty's Privy Council, in pursuance of the said last mentioned Act of Parliament, and of the Powers and Authorities therein contained, have accordingly ascertained, settled, and fixed, and do hereby ascertain, settle, and fix the Quota of Local Militia for the said Cinque Ports, Two ancient Towns, and their Members, at One thousand five hundred, including the Volunteers, to be apportioned among the said Ports, Two ancient Towns, and their Liberties, and the several Members thereof respectively, according to the Provisions of the said first recited Act. And His Majesty's Privy Council do order and direct, that this Order be transmitted to the Warden of the Cinque Ports, in order that he may proceed upon the same, pursuant to the Directions of the said first recited Act. Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 10th of April 1810,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by virtue of the Powers vested in His Majesty by sundry Acts of Parliament, His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the 12th of April last, to allow, and did thereby allow, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and ten, the Importation into any Port or Place of Great Britain, of certain Articles of Provision, in the Manner and under the Conditions therein mentioned; and whereas by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, it is enacted, that an Act, made in the Thirty-ninth Year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation, and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty, to continue in Force until Six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament," which was continued by an Act of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of His present Majesty, and amended and further continued by several subsequent Acts until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and ten, shall, from and after the said Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and ten, be, and the same is thereby further continued until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eleven, except so far as respects the Exportation of Corn, Grain, or Flour to Ireland; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to allow, and doth hereby allow, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eleven, the Importation, into any Port or Place of Great Britain, of any Beans, called Kidney or French Beans, Tares, Lentiles, Calavancies, and all other Sorts of Pulse; and also of Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, and Swine, and of Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, and Lamb, (except Salted Beef, and Pork,) and of Bacon, Hams, Tongues, Butter, Cheese, Potatoes, Rice, Sago, Sago Powder, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Millet Seed, Poultry, Fowls, Eggs, Game, and Sour Crout, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; provided that a due Entry shall be made of all such Articles as aforesaid, that shall be imported, with the proper Officers of the Customs at the Port where the same shall be imported, under the Penalties and Forfeitures mentioned and referred to in the said above-recited Act, passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of His present Majesty: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly. Steph. Cottrell.
