Sewer's-Office, Guildhall, London,
May 1, 1810.

THE Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London and Liberties thereof, having resolved to redeem or pay off the Bonds or Instruments charged on the Credit of the Sunday Toll, as far as the Sum of 1500*l.* will extend; they have this Day (in order to make all the Holders of the said Bonds or Instruments Creditors in equal Degree, without Preference in any Respect whatever) decided by way of Lottery, that the following of the said Bonds or Instruments should be so paid off or redeemed, viz Nos. 6, 22, 34, 44, 52, 91, 98, 101, 120, 124, 148, 171, 200, 201, 212.— The said Commissioners do hereby give Notice, that the Holders of the said Bonds or Instruments, numbered as above, may receive the several Sums first advanced thereon respectively, at the Chamberlain's Office, Guildhall, on the 25th Day of December next, together with all the Interest which shall be due thereon to the said 25th Day of December, from which Day the Interest on the said Bonds or Instruments respectively will cease. And also that the Holders of the said Bonds or Instruments, numbered as above, may receive the several Sums first advanced thereon respectively, at the Chamberlain's Office, Guildhall, any Day (Sundays and Holidays excepted) after the 24th Day of June next, together with all the Interest which shall be due thereon to the said 24th Day of June

William Bond, Principal Clerk.

Exchequer Bill Office, May 16, 1810.

All Exchequer Bills bearing Interest after the Rate of Three Pence Halfpenny per Centum per Diem, and all Exchequer Bills dated in the Month of June 1809,

TO BE PAID OFF.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having given Directions for paying off the Principal of the above-mentioned Exchequer Bills with the Interest due thereon, at the Exchequer Bill-Office, in the Receipt of Exchequer, New Palace-Yard, Westminster, on Tuesday the 26th Day of June 1810, Attendance will be given daily (Sundays and Holidays excepted) until, and including, Saturday the 16th Day of June, from Ten o'Clock in the Morning till One in the Afternoon, for the Purpose of receiving the same. And for the greater Dispatch, the Bearers of the said Bills are desired to bring separate Lists of each Description of Bills, containing the Numbers in Numerical Order, according to the Dates of the said Bills and Commencement of Interest, with the Principal Sums and Interest due thereon, computed from, but excluding, the Days on which they are respectively dated, to the said 26th Day of June 1810, inclusive, when the Interest will cease; and the said Bearers (being Holders or not) are indispensably required to indorse each Bill with their usual Signature, and to write their Names and Residence at the Bottom of each separate List; and they are moreover required to attend the Exchequer Bill-Office for Payment, and to receive the New Bills, and give the Receipts for the same.

If any of the Holders of the aforesaid Bills should be desirous of receiving Payment of the Principal and Interest, previous to the said 26th Day of June, they may be accommodated on computing the Interest to the Day on which they wish to be paid, and leaving the said Bills for Examination One Day prior thereto.

Such Persons as may be desirous of having New Exchequer Bills in whole or in part Payment of Principal, upon marking New Bills, and mentioning the Amount at the Bottom of their Lists, delivered on or before the 16th Day of June, may be accommodated with New Bills, carrying an Interest of Three Pence by the Day on every One Hundred Pounds, which said New Bills will bear Date the said 26th Day of June 1810, and will be delivered on Thursday the 28th of June, and the following Days.

N. B. All Exchequer Bills dated prior to 1st May 1809, have been advertised to be paid off, and the Interest thereon has ceased; and those dated in May 1809, are advertised to be paid off on the 30th May 1810.
